first four on the charge of vagrancy, and Logan for stealing a bolt os cloth Special Correspondence. Hyrum, Cache County, April 30 .- As John Evans and G. F. Mullen, two per announcement the people of southhard looking vags, were given 12 days ern Cache met at Hyrum at 10 a.m. Present: Apostles M. W. Merrill and William Manley, drunk, was given Matthias F. Cowley; Elder William C. Parkinson of Preston, Idaho; also Elder Isaac Smith of the new Cache Stake presidency, and the Bishops of Hyrum. Wellsville, Mendon, Millville, Avon, College, Paradise and Stirling, which Wellsville comprise the Hyrum Stake of Zion. The Stake is named after the martyred Patriarch Hyrum Smith. It will be proper to state here that forty-one years ago Apostle Ezra T. Benson and Peter Maughan organized Hyrum ward. and when the question of a name come up it was stated that it was intended to build the City of Joseph on the Church farm. Father Osborn suggest-ed that it would be proper to call the ward Hyrum, and this name was adopted. A town has been built within the last twelve years and called College ward, but the understanding seems to prevail that the name will be changed There was a very large gathering of the people, and Apostle Merrill stated that Elder William C. Parkinson's name had been presented by the First Presi dency and the Apostles to be the presi-dent of Hyrum Stake. He gave Elder Parkinson an excellent name for all that which makes a Stake officer loved by his people. Elder Parkinson then made a few remarks. Apostle Merrill then called for the vote to sustain William C. Parkinson as president of the Hyrum Stake of Zion. It was a grand vote. Not only with the hand but every heart went with it. The other ofcers will be voted in in the near fuand Mr. ture. Elder Cowley gave a twenty-minutes' sel.

H. Leyson has offered a beautiful pair of cups. The rules provide that the members of the club shall be divided into four classes, on the showing made Class D will consist of players scoring 109 or more, eighteen holes; class C scoring 108 or better, and will be limited to fifteen members; class B, recruited from class C, eighteen holes, match play, winners' score not exceeding ninety-nine. This class will be lim ited to ten members. Class A will be recruited from class B, eighteen holes, match play, winners score not exceeding ninety, limited to five members. A member may challenge any of the three men nextabove him in rank, and if the challenger wins, his name shall be placed just above that of his opponent; that when the classes are full, a victorious challenger and his opponent shall exchange ranks. The respective members of each class will be ranked according to the merit of their scores, when winning the right to enter the class. A challenged member of any class failing to play the challenger within one week, if the fault is not chargeable to the challenger, shall be deemed defeated. The women players will be classified on the same system, with whatever changes are necessary. A new system of caddles, which it is thought will prove more effective the one heretofore employed, has also been provided for. The caddies will all be under the supervision of a caddie master, to whom they are expected to report immediately upon their arrival upon the links.

Late yesterday afternoon twelve young fellows ranging in age from 18 to 25 years, were run in for loitering nd the depot, and last evening Justice Hall sentenced each of them to 10 days for vagrancy. At least four of the boys had from $1 to $6 on their per-, and claimed that they were waitng for a train to leave town, and some of the others said they were here hunt-ing work. They did not seem to be of he rough hobo element, but hard workng boys, and were not creating any rbance whatever when arrested ut their sentence was just the same.
