

—Lord Palmerston has, while in office, created eighteen peers: Lords Wensleydale, Aveland, Lyons, B-lper, Fermoy, (Irish,) Eversley, Ebury, Macaulay, Chesham, Llanover, Lyveden, Taunton, Westbury, Fitzhardings, Seymour, Houghton, Annaly, and Earl Russell—a goodly list.

—Hales, the Norfolk giant, once exhibited by Barnum, died at Great Yarmouth, England recently, of consumption.

—A statue is to be erected in the Prince's Gardens, Edinburgh, to the memory of Allan Ramsay, who if not remembered for his verse, will be immortal as the founder of the "circulating library." The statue will stand opposite to that of John Wilson.

—The Richmond people say Confederate currency has so depreciated that you take your money in the basket, and carry your beef in the pocket book.

—214,000,000 francs represent the gold coinage of France last year. This year the amount is 176,000,000 francs. The falling off is attributed to disturbance caused by the war in America.

—"My brudders," said a waggish negro to a crowd, "in all affliction, in all ob your troubles, dere is one place you can always find sympathy."

"Whar, whar?" shouted several.
"Why, in de dictionary," he replied, rolling his eyes skyward.

—A contemporary, noticing the marriage of a deaf and dumb couple, wittily and gallantly wishes them unspeakable bliss.

—Professor Hind, of Toronto, has just published curious details concerning the night blindness, prevalent among the Montagnais and Nasquapee Indians. The sufferers from this affliction can see perfectly, as long as the sun is up; but become nearly or wholly sightless, from sunset until dawn. No artificial light is of the least service to them, and nothing under a flash of lightning enables them to see.

—The "Irish Bull" is not peculiar and patent to the corduroys. A writer in the Dublin University Magazine, speaking of the poor Irish, says, "Many thousands of them were often des itute of the only food they possessed."
