

VENEZUELAN COMMISSION.

IF YOU ARE SICK

And need medicine for your Kidneys, Liver, Bladder or Blood, get the Best.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

If you are suffering from kidney or bladder disease, the doctor asks: "Do you desire to urinate often, and are you compelled to get up frequently during the night? Does your back pain you? Is there a scalding pain in passing it, and is it difficult to hold the urine back?" If so, your kidneys or bladder are diseased.

Try putting some of your urine in a glass tumbler, let it stand twenty-four hours. If there is a sediment, or a cloudy, milky appearance, your kidneys are sick.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will surely relieve and cure the most distressing cases of these renal diseases, and no physician can prescribe a medicine that equals it for kidney, liver, bladder and blood diseases, neurasthenia, dyspepsia and chronic constipation.

Walter D. Miller, of Delhi, N. Y., writes:
"I suffered for years with kidney trouble and severe pains in my back, at times it was so bad I could hardly walk. My stomach also troubled me and I frequently had twinges of rheumatism. I suffered a great deal and received no benefit until I began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. After taking it a short while it cured me."

"All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the NEW 50 CENT BOTTLE and the regular $1.00 size bottles."

Simple bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.

Wm. R. Morrison is Very Ill.
Chicago, Jan. 12.—Wm. R. Morrison, former second secretary of embassy here and was later promoted to the first secretary of embassy at Buenos Ayres, is now at the Italian hospital, where he has been since he was taken to the hospital on Jan. 10. He is in a critical condition.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—The American La Guayra correspondent is authority for the statement that under the persuasion or pressure of President Castro the foreign merchants of Caracas have "contributed" $5,000 to the expense fund of Minister Bowen on his trip to Washington.

CHICAGO COAL COMBINE Chicago, Jan. 12.—The special grand jury which has been called to investigate the conditions responsible for the coal famine continued today to hear evidence which the attorney-general and the states attorney have secured against the coal operators and bid dealers.
Twenty-five coal men, some of the best of whom are first-class lawyers, have "contributed" $5,000 to the
expense fund of Minister Bowen on his trip to Washington.

Kaiser to Visit Italy.
Rome, Jan. 11.—The visit of Emperor William to the Italian court next April may be the means of smoothing over the difficulty between Austria and Italy, which has been of long standing, owing to the failure of the Emperor Francis Joseph to return the visit of the late King Humbert to Vienna in 1892 because of the pope's threat to excommunicate any Catholic sovereign who visited Italy.

Europeans Leave Fez.
London, Jan. 12.—A dispatch to the Daily Express from Tangier, Morocco, says all the Europeans of Fez have now left that place, and that the foreign consulate there will follow immediately.
Official reports from Fez declare the sultan has requested his brother, Muhammad, to return.

The sultan has left Fez with his army and is waiting the rebels at the Heu rue. The sultan is now at Marrakech, and is seeking to raise money for the sultan. The imperial troops are badly armed and unreliable, while the rebel soldiers are well organized and better armed.

Pope Receives Americans.
Rome, Jan. 11.—The pope received Mr.
and Mrs. Howard Benoit and members of their family and Mrs. A. J. Lindsay of St. Louis in private audience today.
The three-year-old daughter of the Benois, who was present, caught sight of the apostolic ring on the pontiff's hand and asked: "What is that on his finger?" Mr. and Mrs. Benoit tried to hush the little girl, but the pope noticed her question and expressed pleasure at her interest. He caressed her and allowed her to examine the ring.

A REIGN OF TERROR.
Sheriff Who Brought Traynor to Elko
Says One Exists in Elko.
Elko, Nev., Jan. 10.—In an interview this morning Sheriff G. P. Newman of Elko gave the following to the Independent:
"I brought Traynor and Gaskill to Elko for the reason that, in my judgment, their lives were in danger in Elko. I did not propose to take any chances and I certainly did not propose to surrender the prisoners under any circumstances."
"There was, and I believe still is, a reign of terror in Elko. It may need here measures to restore law and order. I am going back as soon as I can get away from here and I propose to enforce the law at any cost. I hope it will not be necessary to call on the governor, but if it is I certainly shall ask for troops. I want to see a good jury drawn there at once and set this thing to the bottom. There should be no delay in having the grand jury called and the matter ended once and for all."

PRINETTI-BELLEGRARDE DUEL.
Seconds Have Decided There is No
Need to Fight.
Rome, Jan. 11.—The seconds of For-sign Minister Prinetti and Count Bellegarde, the ex-cavalry officer who has challenged Prinetti to fight a duel, and whose challenge has been accepted, have decided that the foreign minister is not obliged to fight the count's subordinate. The count declares he will not be necessary to call

Earthquake in Mexico.
Oaxaca, Mexico, Jan. 11.—It has been learned here that a severe earthquake shook was felt at Jamiltepec. Considerable damage was done to property, but there was no loss of life. Subterranean rumblings have been heard there for some time.

Richard Porter Street Dead.
Chicago, Jan. 12.—Richard Porter
Street, well known in banking circles in Chicago and Canada, is dead of appendicitis at the residence of his son, J. R. Street, Mr. Street was 55 years old, and had been a resident of Chicago for 20 years. He was born in Bucks-hampton, Canada, in 1852. He went to was connected with the Chase bank for many years. After coming to Chicago he was connected with the First National bank for 25 years.
Five children surrounded the death-
bed. They were: Mrs. Cagrain, wife of George S. Boulton, second vice president of the First National bank;
Henry C. Jang and Richard C. Street.

Emigration from Germany.
Berlin, Jan. 11.—The emigration for the year 1907 through Hamburg and Bremen amounted to 286,884 persons, an increase of 43,686 over 1906. The number of emigrants sailing from these ports has increased since 1898. The majority of them go to the United States.

Hazing at Annapolis.
Results in Midshipman Pearson Being in Hospital with Broken Jaw.
Annapolis, Md., Jan. 11.—Particulars of a fight between Midshipman Robert
A. Pearson, a member of the fourth class, from Concord, N. H., and Francis G. Haisdel of New York, show that the former is in the hospital with a broken jaw and bladder is locked.

The affair occurred last Sunday night and was the result of Pearson's refusal to be hazed by the upper classmen.
The upper classmen had been "running" him, and some time ago he is said to have fainted under the ordeal.

He was accused of cowardice and was required to fight a third-class man.
Haisdel was pitched against him, and in the first round he broke Pearson's jaw. The latter, however, continued to fight until the fifth round, when a first-class man present stopped the contest.

It is reported that a first-class man was referee and that seconds were chosen by the men from their respective classes. Haisdel has been placed under arrest, and others connected with the affair will probably be arrested also by the academy authorities, who are determined to punish the guilty parties.

Young Pearson's father, Edward W.
Pearson, secretary of state of New Hampshire, arrived tonight and visited his son. Mr. Pearson will not meddle in the affair, but will leave it entirely in the hands of the naval authorities.

of St. Louis in private audience today.
The three-year-old daughter of the
hand and asked: "What is that on his
hush the little girl, but the pope no-
allowed her to examine the ring.

A REIGN OF TERROR.
Sheriff Who Brought Traynor to Elko
Says One Exists in Elko.
Elko, Nev., Jan. 10.—In an interview
this morning Sheriff G. P. Newman of Elko gave the following to the Independent:
"I brought Traynor and Gaskill to Elko for the reason that, in my judg-

reign of terror in Elko. It may need
order. I am going back as soon as I can get away from here and I propose to enforce the law at any cost. I
and for all."

Seconds Have Decided There is No
Need to Fight.
Rome, Jan. 11.—The seconds of For-
sign Minister Prinetti and Count Belle-
challenged Prinetti to fight a
duel, and whose challenge has been ac-
minister is not obliged to fight the
count's subordinate. The count declares he will not be necessary to call

Earthquake in Mexico.
learned here that a severe earthquake
able damage was done to property,
ranean rumblings have been heard
there for some time.

Richard Porter Street Dead.
Chicago, Jan. 12.—Richard Porter
Street, well known in banking circles
in Chicago and Canada, is dead of appendicitis at the residence of his son,
J. R. Street, Mr. Street was 55 years
old, and had been a resident of Chicago
hampton, Canada, in 1852. He went to
many years. After coming to Chicago
he was connected with the First National bank for 25 years.
Five children surrounded the death-
bed. They were: Mrs. Cagrain, wife of George S. Boulton, second vice president of the First National bank;
Henry C. Jang and Richard C. Street.

Emigration from Germany.
the year 1907 through Hamburg and Bremen amounted to 286,884 persons, an increase of 43,686 over 1906. The number of emigrants sailing from these ports has increased since 1898. The majority of them go to the United States.

Hazing at Annapolis.
Results in Midshipman Pearson Being in Hospital with Broken Jaw.
Annapolis, Md., Jan. 11.—Particulars
of a fight between Midshipman Robert
A. Pearson, a member of the fourth
class, from Concord, N. H., and Francis
G. Haisdel of New York, show that the
jaw and bladder is locked.

to be hazed by the upper classmen.
The upper classmen had been "run-
to have fainted under the ordeal.

required to fight a third-class man.
in the first round he broke Pearson's
test.

It is reported that a first-class man
with the affair will probably be ar-
guilty parties.

nois Manufacturers' association charges is responsible for fuel conditions.
It is the intention of the grand jury that none but coal men shall be examined and under Mr. Deussen's direction they are being asked to explain just what are the aims and objects of the Illinois Coal Operators' association and why coal cars stored on railroad tracks just outside the city limits are not being ordered into the city and market. It is said that the investigators have discovered trains of coal cars stacked and planked with instructions to freight crews to hold the consignments indefinitely, and that hundreds of tons of coal have been taken from the cars and heaped upon all along the tracks. Atty.-Gen. Hamlin declared that the investigation would not be confined to Chicago, but would reach out so as to take up the conditions throughout the state.

Young Pearson's father, Edward W.
Pearson, secretary of state of New Hampshire, arrived tonight and visited
in the hands of the naval authorities.
