

we fall in this we shall most assuredly be clipped of our glory.

Let us then, my brethren and sisters, live so that we may at least have a reasonable hope of attaining to these great blessings which are the gift of God. That we may do so and preserve ourselves in integrity before high heaven, and be united together as the heart and voice of one man is my prayer in the name of Jesus. Amen.

WASHINGTON, 2. — Postmaster General Jewell says that the removal of the postmaster at Ogden was ordered on the 26th ult., and was not in consequence of his religious belief, but for other reasons, among which was the fact that the Iowa and Nebraska Congressional delegations have, for a year past, been urging the appointment of N. J. Sharp for that position, and if this removal indicates the adoption by the President of a policy to remove all Mormons holding federal offices he is not aware of it.

The cabinet were in session about two hours. The question of the imprisonment of Brigham Young was talked of, but without further action than a reference of the matter to the Attorney-General, who will make an investigation.

NEW YORK, 2. — A duel occurred this p.m., on the top floor of No. 106 Delancy St., between two Polish Jews, named Joseph Goldman and Moses Piskalt; Goldman was shot and instantly killed, and Piskalt was mortally wounded. The men were partners as jewellers, and the tragedy is supposed to have arisen out of a business quarrel.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2. — A severe shock of earthquake is reported at Yuma, on the Colorado river.

Advices from all parts of the State, the last twenty-four hours, indicate a general rainfall.

WASHINGTON, 3. — Senators Hitchcock and Paddock, of Nebraska, are here urging a fast mail train from Chicago to Omaha, in thirteen hours in place of twenty-four, as at present; there is a prospect of success.

On and after the 1st of Dec. the 4.55 p.m. train for Cincinnati, over the Pennsylvania railway, will be started an hour late, and will include one or more railway postal cars, which are to arrive as at present, in Pittsburg at 7:30 a. m. and Cincinnati at 5 p.m. following day, and at St. Louis, 5 p. m. to 6 a. m. the next day. A limited mail train will still be dispatched from New York daily, at 4:30 a. m.

NEW YORK, 3. — In this city, the complete returns from 18 out of 21 assembly districts give the democratic state ticket a majority of 22,567 in a total vote of 98,921.

The Panama Star and Herald of Oct. 21st, just received, has details of the great fire at Iquique, news of which has already been received. The fire broke out in the German club house, about 2 a.m., on the 7th of Oct., and before noon three fourths of Iquique had vanished in smoke. Twenty-four blocks of houses, stores, banks, etc., were consumed. The merchant vessels in the harbor sent their crews on shore, and all the civilians, foreign residents, sailors, the police and the authorities struggled to subdue the flames, but in vain. Iquique was built almost wholly of wood, and the sidewalks are of the same material. The ground is impregnated with nitrate, and water is a luxury, and the salt water falling on the earth served to kindle the fire hidden by the saltpetre. The fire swept like a hurricane over the city and the houses fell like pasteboard palaces. The damage done is immense. Five million hard dollars will not cover it, and in Iquique no insurance could be obtained from the very nature of the ground and the material employed in building purposes. The principal edifices burnt are the Branch National Bank, Town House of Iquique and the Commercial Hotel, the house occupied by the Pacific Steam Navigation Company, the market place, and the favorite club house of the city. Many families are homeless. The President of Peru ordered the authorities to use 60,000 soles for their relief in Lima the different nationalities contributed liberally. Many merchants had taken advantage of a reduced tariff, and had dispatched large amounts of merchandise, nearly all of which is now destroyed, and now the merchants themselves are absolutely bankrupt, their liabilities owing to the disaster being infinitely in excess of their assets. Their warehouses, in which large quantities of nitrate were stored, close to the sea, were saved, but large quantities of coal, a costly article there, were burned.

NEW YORK, 3. — A Washington dispatch says that in the forthcoming annual report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, he directs attention to the fact that some of the railroad companies in the far West have succeeded in selling, in the aggregate, many thousand acres of worthless lands to immigrants, under a representation that the soil was very productive, when they knew that the land was unfit for farming purposes; by such false reports the money of poor immigrants has been secured, and they are left without any means of recovering it back. The commissioner desires that this matter may have the attention of Congress, so that the practice of imposing on immigrants may be broken up.

WASHINGTON, 3. — Secretary Chandler, accompanied by assistant Secretary Cowan, called at the Executive Mansion to-day, and had a long talk with the President, mainly in regard to Indian affairs. Secretary Belknap and Generals Sheridan and Crook participated in the conference, and gave expression to their well-known opinions concerning the Indian question, besides furnishing such information respecting the practical administration of the peace policy within the limits of their past and present commands.

The Tribune claims that the democratic party was beaten in Tuesday's elections by inflation, as the republicans were a year ago by Grantism and third term. The two elections prove the existence of an independent vote, with power and intelligence to dictate the result in the presidential election next year.

The Times, replying to the Express, positively asserts that Grant will not secure a renomination. The Sun sees in Tuesday's election the explosion and death of inflation and a great triumph for judiciary independence; it says that every judge has now got a new backbone. The World claims that the democrats won a moral victory as visible as their memorable victory last year, because the democratic losses on Tuesday resulted only from the accession to the republicans of the canal thieves. The Times combats this by showing great republican gains in counties having no local interest in the canal question, instancing the thousand republican gain in Dutchess county.

The superintendent of the Direct U. S. cable says that the cable was successfully repaired this a.m., and the Faraday reports the cable, after fifteen months' submersion, in as perfect condition as when manufactured. The fracture, which was found in 70 fathoms of water, was such as would be caused by either an anchor or a grapnel.

The London Morning Post, of Oct. 23rd, has a Berlin dispatch of the 22nd, saying that the depression of trade is felt so keenly by the industrial classes that the government has been requested, as a means of preventing acute distress, to resort to a measure successfully adopted in the last two wars, namely, the establishment of loan banks. The government has not, as yet, shown much inclination to accede to the request, and serious distress is anticipated among the industrial working classes during the coming winter, and apprehensions are also entertained of a crisis in financial circles. The same paper says that Russian correspondents to German newspapers give distressing accounts of the unparalleled failure of this year's harvest; never before, it is asserted, has the failure been so general in Russia, both in geographical extent and in comprehensiveness with regard to the crops affected. The Russians are still familiar with distress resulting from failing crops from their experience of the Samara famine; that, however, was merely a local famine, but the present is general, for the entire cultivated zone is deprived of its expected harvest; from Orel to the Crimea, and from Tambow to Podolsk it is the same tale, and there is no prospect of help, for there is no one to help, and all are groaning under the same load. In other years when there has been a failure of crops it has attacked only one species, be it cereals, roots or grass, but this year all the crops have suffered alike.

Maurice, late U. S. Internal Revenue collector of this district; the Globe-Democrat says that McKee is ready for trial, and the public may rely upon his full and complete vindication when the question of his guilt or innocence is made an issue in the courts.

MEMPHIS, 4. — Some excitement was caused here last night by Ed. Shaw, a colored wharf master, going to Church's saloon and threatening to cut the throat and to scalp Mr. Younger, a colored speaker from St. Louis, for stumping Mississippi during the late canvass for the conservatives; Younger appealed to the chief of police for protection, and that officer sent some men to protect him, but Younger, fearing that Shaw would incite other negroes to murder him, changed his lodgings.

Owerberg, teller of the Union and Planters' Bank, who, seeing Goodbar advance on him flourishing a stick, thought he was a garroter; he wounded Goodbar severely in the face. S. Negley, Henry Fetterborg, Wiley Edwards, Lewis Peck, George Keelon, Albert Metcalf, R. C. Mitchel, G. A. Purdy, David C. Stewart, Frank Lowers, and Henry Waters, and also against Sugg Fort and ex-Congressman R. R. Butler of Tenn.

An arrangement has been perfected among all parties interested, and a new company has been organized to be called the St. Joseph and Pacific Railway Company. As soon as the sale is confirmed the road will be completed at once, and continued under the same management as now.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 4. — Senator Newton Booth, of Cal., was welcomed by his old friends to-day, at Salem, Ind., his native place, but he declined a public reception.

District Court to-day and gave bonds, the former in $5,000, the latter in $10,000, to answer indictments against them for conspiring to defraud the government in connection with crooked whiskey. Indictments against several others were returned to the Court to-day, but the names have not yet officially transpired.

Richard B. Jones, late U. S. storekeeper, withdrew the plea of not guilty to his indictment and entered a plea of guilty.

up 72 republicans and 56 democrats, a republican majority of 16. We have special advices from almost every district."

NEW YORK, 4. — The usual throng filled the Brooklyn rink this evening, and hundreds were unable to get in. After singing by Sankey Mr. Moody preached an eloquent sermon; his text was — "Seek the Lord while he is near," in the 58th chapter of Isaiah. He rebuked the audience for want of earnestness, and said that he had grown tired of the half heartedness which was exhibited. He gave many examples of what men could do by being terribly in earnest. He closed his sermon with an account of a conversation of a young wife in Newcastle, England, who at first said she didn't want to be a Christian; she attended the meetings a week, and then said she wanted to be saved, and she was saved. He read a letter from her husband, telling him that she had since died, and that she had devoted the last days of her life to Jesus' work. "When I read that letter," said Mr. Moody, "I thanked God that I had gone to England." After singing and the closing prayer the congregation dismissed. Enquiry meetings were held in the Simpson M. E. Church.

There is a perceptible falling off in the attendance at Moody and Sankey's prayer meetings, held in the Talmadge Tabernacle every morning; the decreased attendance was accounted for on Tuesday by the election, on Wednesday by the anxiety to know the result, and on Thursday by rain; to-day there is neither election, anxiety about it, nor rain, and yet there is the smallest attendance of the week.

SAN FRANCISCO, 4. — A petition is being circulated in San Bernardino, San Diego and Los Angeles counties, addressed to Senator Sargent, asking the adjustment of the Temecula Indian question and the purchase of reservation lands. D. A. Dryden, Indian agent, has returned to Los Angeles from the Indian country, and he reports that there are no eligible government lands on which the Indians can be placed, and he recommends the purchase of a rancho for them. On his return he found a dispatch from Smith, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, granting the request for authority to expend $500 for the immediate necessities of the Indians, and expressing a hope to shortly make arrangements for leasing a rancho, subject to purchase when funds are appropriated.

Gavin Lang and other non-unionists, who maintain that the fund, amounting to over four hundred and fifty thousand, is the property of the Church of Scotland and can't go to the newly-formed church.

CHICAGO, 5. — A Logansport, Ind., special says that last night David Robinson, six miles from Kokomo, Ind., deliberately attempted the murder of his entire family, first by shooting and killing one of his children, then firing at his wife, but missing her, and she making her escape and gave the alarm. He then shot and killed a second child and wounded a third in the face, who made his escape. Robinson nearly severed one of the dead children's heads from its body, and then left the house. The neighbors aroused by the wife were soon on the spot, and an immediate pursuit was made in all directions, and the body of Robinson was found by the side of the track of the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago railroad, a few miles from Kokomo, he having evidently met his death in attempting to get on or off a moving train. He has been known as a quiet, peaceable citizen heretofore, and the cause of his sudden frenzy is a mystery.
