

ly the stairways remained intact and the guests all escaped. Some of them lost considerable jewelry and money. Sailors from the United States steamer Vandalia rendered valuable assistance.

WALL STREET, 27.—Stocks quiet and irregular this morning. New York Central and Lake Shore lower, while Northwest, St. Paul, Union Pacific and Western Union fractionally higher.

CLEVELAND, 27.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon the twelfth incendiary fire in Cleveland within 48 hours was started in the lumber yard of the Cleveland Saw Mill and Lumber Company, in the heart of the great lumber district, on "the flat." A strong wind carried the flames eastward through the yard, destroying 1,000,000 feet of lumber and about 50 feet of trestle work of the Canotien Valley Railway, cutting off trains from access to the depot. The fire was here checked with a loss of $20,000.

About 4 o'clock a small boy standing near the passenger station of the Canotien Valley Railroad, observed a man creep stealthily up to a baggage car and passenger coach standing on a side track, and shortly after noticed flames issuing from the rear coach, and gave the alarm. A locomotive backed up and drew the cars into an open space where they were completely gutted, with a loss of $2000, the cars being narrow gauge. The entire department was at the lumber fire. Had the flames from the burning car reached the depot a large district of densely filled wooden buildings must have been swept bare. Toward five o'clock a fire was discovered in the Green block, St. Clair street, but was extinguished without damage. The kindlings used were two packing boxes saturated with coal oil. No arrests. Purdy & O'Neil, one of the largest lumber firms in the city, to-day received an anonymous letter from Chicago, warning them that their stock would be in ashes before Monday morning. The machine works received a similar warning, and both firms have taken precautions accordingly. The excitement is general, and hardly a resident in Cleveland but feels apprehensive for the safety of his property.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., 27.—An average of 15 icebergs pass St. Johns going south in the track of the ocean steamers. A craft arriving here reports passing large quantities of wreckage on the coast of Labrador on Thursday. Fierce hurricanes were experienced on the same date.

NEW YORK, 27.—To-day an unknown man stole a bar of gold worth $5,000, from the broker office of Martin Runyon, in the basement of No. 12 Broadway, in the presence of the clerks. He dashed out of the door, hotly pursued and ran up the steps leading to the offices in the building. Through an office on the fifth floor he reached a fire escape and descended to the roof of an adjoining building and got down through the scuttles to Pine Street, where he escaped. It appears that the thief visited the law office of Mr. Comstock, through which he escaped, both yesterday morning and to-day. He pretended to be a workman and asked permission to examine the fire escape and some wires. Leave being given, he descended the fire escape this morning, and took the opportunity to open the scuttles in the flat roof to which the escape leads.

DALLAS, TEXAS, 27.—In the woods, just beyond the corporation limits, the dead bodies of a man and woman were discovered this afternoon side by side and still warm. She was about 18 years old, and wore a diamond brooch, and was dressed in exquisite taste. He was a few years her senior. Between them lay a revolver, with two chambers empty. Near by was a note, in a clear bold hand: "As we cannot be united in life, we will be in death. George Faustick and Annie Manier." There was no further clue to their identity.

CLEVELAND, 27.—At about 10.30 Mr. Blaine went from Mrs. Garfield's house to the Venard, where he remained in his parlor receiving callers until he went to the depot to take the special train to Elyria at one o'clock. When the train arrived at Elyria the pretty little town was crowded with its own citizens and people from the surrounding country. The jam at the depot was so great that it was difficult to get to the carriages. The crowd at the Court House square was about to be addressed by Secretary Windom. When Blaine got up on the stand the people cheered him repeatedly. He spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman:—This is not my first visit to your beautiful county. I recall with great pleasure a previous visit when I was met cordially as to-day, and I knew of your county years before I had the pleasure of seeing it, for who does not know of the advanced stand and great leadership which the county of Loraine took in the prolonged anti-slavery struggle? Cheers.] It was your sturdy citizens and the great institution at Oberlin that disseminated those principles of freedom which made this northwestern county the vanguard in the contest with slavery. [Renewed cheering.] That contest ended in victory, and another is now committed to your charge, and to-day in an emphatic sense, to the leadership of Ohio; that is, all other questions laid aside, shall American labor be protected? [Great cheering.]

During the pendency of the anti-slavery struggle, there was no side issue that could possibly divert the anti-slavery men of the western reserve from the one great absorbing question, and I believe the same discipline of mind prevails now, and that no side issue will be permitted to divert you from the controlling question of this campaign. I thank you, gentlemen, for your reception, and I consider that I have only indicated the subject upon which others will address you when I bid you a very cordial farewell. [Prolonged cheering.]

Judge West made a brief speech and was followed by ex-Secretary Windom and Mr. Tenney. Blaine and party returned to Cleveland.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., 27.—Gen. Butler addressed an audience of 2,000 persons, which filled the city hall this evening. Butler first addressed himself to the Republican party, confessing that their first principles were grand and good, for he helped to make them. He said the party had to borrow money at a high rate of interest early in their career, and that capitalists in self-defense had flocked into the party. Once in they stay in, and the party has thus fostered monopolies and trampled on the workingman. The General passed on to enliven American industry and National prosperity, and to commiserate the forlorn condition of the laborer. He rehearsed the familiar statistics of the cotton and grain crops, which he picked up on his travels westward, and then launched his famous argument: "I am turning out at my mills tons and tones of woollens, yet here comes a laborer with a hole in the seat of his trousers." In speaking of his scheme of controlling stock gambling and dealing in futures by law, the General said: "You remember when I took my seat of office, to which I was elected by your votes, in my inaugural address I talked about gambling in futures, and so did the republican party, always prattling about God and morality and all such things to take some action on this matter. They took no notice of it. How does this affect you? It affects you in this, in that it destroys your young men. A young man goes into a banking office; he sees those above him speculating and gambling and is drawn into it himself. Why, only a few days ago Armour & Co., of Chicago, made $2,500,000 on the rise in the price of pork. They made it and boasted of it. They stole it. If a miserable creature should steal a pig we would put him in the house of correction. What shall we do with people who steal $2,500,000 worth of pigs all at once? The General closed with a slap at the democrats of Massachusetts, who cannot hold a convention, State or district, without having the ballots outnumber the delegates. "If they tell you," said the speaker, "that you will throw away your vote by casting it with the People's party, tell the democrats they have been throwing away their votes for 20 years."

HELENA, MONTANA, 27.—The Republican Convention convened at 12 a. m. W. F. Sanders was elected temporary chairman. A permanent organization was affected with G. W. W. Alderson, W. F. Sanders, H. F. Knowles. At the session in the evening H. M. Blake was nominated for district attorney. After the convention a ratification meeting was held, in which speeches were made by Spear of Butte, A. F. Burleigh of Miles City, W. W. Alderson of Bozeman, G. W. Irving of Butte, C. H. Gould of Miles City, C. D. Whitcomb of Deer Lodge, A. C. Botkin and W. T. Sanders of Helena.

DALLAS, TEXAS, 28.—Later developments reveal the fact that Foulstreich, a young officer in the German army, was visiting America on a year's leave of absence. Foulstreich and Miss Manny had been stopping at an obscure hotel for several weeks. His parents in Germany refused their marriage, and as his leave of absence was about expiring they concluded to die rather than be separated.

In that case the Powers will support the restoration of Khedive Ismail Pasha to the head of the Egyptian government.

LONDON, 26.—The contingent guards who are going to Egypt to form the fort camel corps, left for Portsmouth to-day. Thousands of persons witnessed their departure and cheered them heartily. The rest of the volunteers for the camel corps, to the number of 800, left Aldershot to-day.

LONDON, 26.—Gladstone, on leaving Midlothian, thanked his constituents with much warmth of expression for the encouraging reception accorded him throughout his tour. The many honors which they had shown him were due, he believed, to the great cause which he represented. Gladstone spoke in Carlisle to-day. Among other things of a like tenor he said: "In the present crisis, the Lords ought to study the best means to provide that the House of Lords shall not fail. This end can best be secured by their acting with moderation and prudence."

The authorities have ordered increased precautions at Dover to prevent the landing of dynamiters endeavoring to reach London from the continent. English detectives accompany each steamer crossing the channel and are narrowly scrutinizing each passenger, and subject all baggage to the closest examination.

PARIS, 26.—Le Paris urges the powers to inform England she has gone too far in prompting the Egyptian government to break the international law in regard to the Egyptian finances, England, the same paper says, cannot be allowed to dispose of Egypt as she likes.

The National expresses the belief that in consequence of the protest of the powers, England has already resolved to modify the financial measures which she expected to enforce in Egypt.

being a soldier. In the kingdom of Italy during the last 24 hours there have been reported 498 new cases and 222 deaths, including 116 cases and 74 deaths at Naples, and 39 new cases and 25 deaths at Genoa. Since the outbreak of the disease in Italy, 13,225 persons have been attacked.

LONDON, 28.—An attempt was made to-day to blow up the Council House at Salisbury. A number of windows were smashed by the explosion otherwise no damage was done. No arrests.

PARIS, 25.—In the Cabinet council yesterday Tirad expressed the hope that the budget would be balanced without resort to a loan. It is reported that from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 will be required for expenses of the Tonquin expedition, and Admiral Peyron, Minister of Marine, asks for 65,000,000 to arm the navy. The ironclads are now making complete coast defenses of the French colonies. A French paper represents that Bismarck is leading in the movement against the English policy in Egypt.

LONDON, 28.—A Times Hong Kong dispatch says: The French stopped and searched the English regular trading steamers at Frehkien and Hai Loeng in the channel of Formosa. There is great irritation in consequence at this high handed proceeding. Neutral steamers conveying soldiers and munitions to various quarters of this Section of the world are all alarmed at their position, if this shall not be re-sented, and it is regarded as likely to be a source of possible complication with foreign powers.

LONDON, 29.—The Times' Khartoum advices, dated April 28th, report Gordon laying mines in all directions. Food was difficult to obtain and commanded very high prices. Gordon had issued paper currency, his treasury department being established at Beerba, and the soldiers were paid in that currency. Reports state that the town was quiet: half the population had, however, joined the rebels previous to the siege. There had been no news from the British government.

Later reports up to July 30th say: Gordon has been five months severely besieged, and will only be able to hold out two months longer.

The following is a copy of the diary of Mr. Poer, English consul at Khartoum:

"March 23 last—San and Seyred were executed for treachery in the battle of the 16th inst., when we lost 350 killed and wounded.

April 16th to 20th.—The rebels have attacked us between the above dates, but lost heavily from the effects of Gordon's mines.

May 1.—A painful accident occurred to-day. One of our officers trod upon a mined piece of ground, causing a terrific explosion by which six men were killed.

May 3.—Report has reached us that the English army will be at Berber about the end of May. The rebels have made several attacks, but have been repulsed owing to the destructive qualities of our mines. During June there were daily expeditions made under Saati Bey. The losses of the Egyptians have, however, been slight. Many cattle have been captured.

June 25.—McCuzzi, English Consul, has informed us of the loss of Berber. McCuzzi will be sent to Kordofan on the 30th to take care of the government interests there.

July 10.—Saati Bey has burned Kallakia, with three villages.

Later.—In attacking Galarub he was defeated. Saati and his officers were killed. Colonel Stewart had a narrow escape.

July 29.—Mehemet Ali's action yesterday was very successful. Five armored steamers after clearing thirteen forts and being engaged for eight hours under a terrific fire, disabled five forts. Their guns were dismounted and the enemy were driven out. Our loss was only three killed and thirteen wounded.

July 31.—The siege has been very close. Arab bullets are falling into the palace from all sides. Food is approaching a price at which it cannot be available. Since our last dispatches all hope of relief from the English government is gone. We can only depend upon our steamers. It is impossible to cut through with the number of women and children. One Arab cavalryman is sufficient to frighten and put hors de combat 200 of our men. The day Saati was killed, 8 rebels charged 200 of our men armed with rifles, and dispersed them. The only men we are able to depend upon are negroes.

Gordon will soon send two steamers toward Sennar. They will try to recapture the steamers taken from Saleh Bey. Gordon is well."

ALEXANDRIA, 28.—M. Barrere has summoned all French officials in the Egyptian service to return here immediately.

PARIS, 29.—Ministerial papers express satisfaction at the agreement between France and Germany relative to Egyptian affairs. A bill for the organization of the colonial army will be presented in chambers as soon as convened. The chief feature of the bill will be the transfer of marines to the control of the Minister of War.

LONDON, 29.—A special to the Times from Vienna asserts that the Cabinet of Great Britain has informed the powers that in its opinion the suspension of the sinking fund by the Egyptian Government is justifiable in present condition of its finances.

Gladstone's attention being called to the statements published in an anonymous pamphlet which accuse him of supporting the Roman Catholic Church, he pronounced them grossly untrue and demanded the name of the author.
