Attend the Meeting.—The members of the Priesthood of this Stake will please remember their meeting to-morrow forenoon, at 11 o'clock, in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. Full and punctual attendance desired.

Mend the Bridges.—The footbridges in several quarters of the city furnish good subjects for the attention of the city supervisor. Some of them are in such a state of decay that they are a danger to pedestrians and sidewalk vehicles, but are displaced and otherwise out of repair.

Information Wanted.—Mrs. Harriet Smith, formerly of England, would like to know the whereabouts of Samuel Smith, who emigrated from Bolton, Derbyshire, to Utah, about 25 years ago. Address her care of Edward Burton.

Runaway.—Last night, about 8:30 o'clock, a speaking team, attached to a wagon, with a man driving, took flight at some object just as they were turning east around Godde's corner, and in a moment were going along at a fearful rate up the street. At the first two or three bumps, the driver tumbled backward off the seat, and continued to bounce and bounce about in the bottom of the bed until the horse and wagon vanished from view in the dusky distance. Nothing further has been learned of the affair.

"Emery Must Go!"—So the "Liberals" say. It is currently rumored that a petition is being circulated among the "Liberals" and their dupes, for signatures against his Excellency's nomination. Governor Emery has a good chance to see the "Liberals" of the hypocrites who would lick the dust at his feet, as long as he remains in office, but as soon as his star shows any signs of waning, turn around and stab him in the back.

The Ordan Dispatch, of last evening has the following:
General George R. Maxwell was in the city this morning on his way east. During a conversation with the gentleman a Dispatch reporter learned that a petition is in circulation in Salt Lake City, asking that all Gentiles work to defeat the re-appointment of Governor Emery, whose term of office is soon to expire. He thought quite likely that a copy of the petition would be put in circulation in this city for the benefit of those who are in sympathy with the movement.

During Governor Emery's administration, as chief executive of this Territory, he has deported himself with far more credit to himself, honor to the Government, and satisfaction to the people, than the great majority of his imported predecessors. And this is the very reason that the dozen or two rabid "Mormon" eaters, who infect our otherwise peaceable and respectable community, now desire his removal from office.

Trouble and strife are what they live on, and what they are continually doing all in their power to provoke. To become their enemy, a man has but to be honest, and his own business, and act squarely and fairly towards all classes of citizens. To gain their good will, which is already recognized as a stigma and disgrace, one must pander to their narrow views, warp all his honorable instincts, and descend to their level of roguery and hypocrisy.

Prosecuting a Prostitute.—A woman named Mary Taylor, a resident of Brigham, was arrested before Justice Pyper this afternoon on a charge of endeavoring to induce two young girls, Agnes Roper and Emma Dummer, from this city to Brigham, to become inmates of a house of prostitution. The affidavit was signed by Mr. John G. Wright, who made the complaint on information given him by his wife, to whom the woman Taylor had confided certain facts in the matter. A jury was empaneled and the two girls were turned over to the witness stand, both of whom testified that yesterday forenoon Miss Taylor met them on the street and tried to get them to go to Brigham with her. They stated that she said she had two rooms there, which they might have for $10 per month, and that she would furnish them with nice clothes and money until they could earn money for themselves. The defendant denied the charges of the girls to go out there to work for some respectable people, and that she made no other proposition to them, but the girls assert that Miss Taylor told them she wanted them for a house of prostitution. Also, that she gave them until 4 o'clock that day to decide. The girls, it appears, did not go back to answer her. Mrs. Wright, the wife of the gentleman who made the complaint, testified that the woman Taylor came to her and endeavored to persuade her also to go, as one of the other girls had promised to go if she (Mrs. Wright) would do so. The evidence adduced by this witness refuted strongly to the prejudice of the defendant, and bore out the evidence offered by the girls themselves. The matter was examined, and the prosecution rested. The introduction of testimony for the defense then began. The case was still in progress when we went to press.

Canal Contracts.—The Supervisory Committee, having charge of the construction of the Salt Lake City and Jordan Canal, met at the City Hall this morning, to receive and consider applications for contracts on said canal, and to let out the work on the four remaining miles now ready for the work of excavation. The design was to give the contract to the citizens of Salt Lake and property holders along the route, and to divide it into small lots, so as to benefit a large number of laborers as possible. Accordingly the four miles were let this morning to 14 persons (nine property owners and five others), who, however, represented that number to be employed on the canal. About sixty or seventy others applied for labor but could not be accommodated. The preliminary work of cross sectioning and estimating is only completed for a distance of seven miles, three of which have been heretofore let and excavated. This leaves the four miles referred to, in readiness for further operations.

The First Earthquake.—For the first time in the history of Idaho City, an earthquake shock was felt here last Tuesday afternoon, at a few minutes after 3 o'clock. A crack was seen in the brick wall adjoining the Boise County Bank and Dr. Simpson's, but no damage was done. When the shock occurred people rushed out of their homes, and in a moment the sidewalks were covered. Mr. E. Burton informed us that the shock was quite heavy on Willow Creek, about four miles from town. It was accompanied by a low, rumbling sound, like that of a blast under ground and some distance off. It was followed by a slight shock, which occurred at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning. —Idaho World.

Personal.—Mr. Munro, editor of the Yankee Fork Herald, called in on the U.C. express this morning on business connected with his paper. He speaks in glowing terms of the richness of the new mining camp in which his little paper is published.

Judge J. G. Sutherland arrived this morning from his visit to San Francisco. He reports rain all the way.

Eight Ward Party.—On Thursday, December 11th, a select party will be given in the Eighth Ward Assembly Rooms, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Improvement Association. Dancing will commence at 7 o'clock, sharp.

Elder Clayton's Funeral.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Elder William Clayton, will be held on Sunday, the 13th inst., at 10 o'clock a.m., in the 17th Ward Assembly Rooms. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

"Across the Continent."—A panorama, announced as the most complete and entertaining exhibition of the kind in the west, will be presented in this city three times next week. Read the advertisement in another column.

DIED.
At his residence in Logan City, Utah, Nov. 11, 1898, JOSE ROWLAND, aged 62 years, 7 months and 6 days.

The deceased was baptized January 13, 1847, in Dowling, South Wales, and emigrated to the summer of 1869 to Connet River, where his aged mother died. He continued his journey and landed in Salt Lake City in October, 1869, being among the first that emigrated from Wales. He died as he had lived, a faithful follower of Christ, with full hopes in a glorious resurrection.

The foregoing notice was published in last week's Liberator, but an error was made in the name of the deceased, which instead of being John Rowland, should have been Job Rowland as printed above. —Logan Leader.

At Kayville, Davis Co., of typhoid fever, after an illness of three weeks, CHARLES TINGRY STEWART, son of William and Mary Ann Stewart, and of the firm of Stewart Brothers of Kayville.

Deceased was born in Kayville, and aged 22 years, 11 months and 13 days. He was a youth of exemplary character and sterling integrity, and esteemed as such by the community. In connection with his brother he had lately commenced a business, with bright prospects of success. He suffered much during his illness, but was sustained, and manifested great faith in the priesthood, and a desire to live, but expressed that if he had to die, he would die in the faith. This thought was a source of consolation to him and his mother, who had been so anxious to secure his life, but who had assured that by emulating his faith and virtues, they will meet again on the morn of the first resurrection with all the righteous dead, December 6, 4:30 a.m., at the Kayville Meeting House. Order funeral services please copy.

LOST.
When I was 18, from Connetville, and when last seen was entering Salt Lake City, I was wearing a dark suit, dark hair, and a dark beard. I was a youth of exemplary character and sterling integrity, and esteemed as such by the community. He suffered much during his illness, but was sustained, and manifested great faith in the priesthood, and a desire to live, but expressed that if he had to die, he would die in the faith.
