REVISION OF THE LISTS.

THE registration of voters in all th cities, precincts and countles of the Territory was completed on Saturday last. That is, the preparation of the new voting lists made necessary by the Edmunds Tucker bill, was finishe on that date. These lists, as formu lated by the registration officers, are now and will be until the close of the first week in June, open to public inspection, and it is proper that voter should examine the each of the precinct in which list resides and see to he that his name appears thereon. If he has taken the cath, but fails to find his name on the voting list, he should report the fact to the registration officer. During the first week in June the registration lists are to be revised, and it is during this period that errors in them must be corrected, and addition made.
