

TRIBUNE STIRS UP MARE'S NEST

Lurid Story of Kidnaping Printed
This Morning is of Usual Peevish Order.

MR. F. HADLEY'S STATEMENT.

Took Children With Consent of the Father from Piteable Surroundings in San Francisco.

The Tribune stirred up another mare's nest this morning under the headlines of "Boys Are Kidnaped by Mormon Relative." It is usual the story is distorted and does not hold water. The facts could have been gathered had the organ of the crooks taken the pains to interview Mr.
Frank Hadley, 32 Marion avenue, this city.

Mr. Hadley is a baggage transfer man well known in this city. So is the mother of the boys involved, who is pictured by the Tribune as frantically calling upon the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children, who are now in Salt Lake, whom, he says, to quote the morning paper, "have been kidnaped by the Mormon brother of her Mormon husband and taken to Salt Lake City, where they have been placed in some Mormon institution."

Mr. Hadley's statement to the "News" this morning is set forth without comment and the public is at liberty to draw its own conclusions.

MR. HADLEY'S STORY.
"You might perhaps call me a Mormon," said Mr. Hadley, "but I believe that I am hardly a Latter-day Saint. I was born in the Church, so far as that goes, the Tribune is correct; the rest of the stuff printed is all rot. Mr. Christiansen, the father of the boys, is not my brother. His wife is a sister of my wife. When the family lived in Salt Lake, they resided on First South between Ninth and Tenth West until three years ago, when they went to the coast. I went on a trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles a couple of weeks ago on the excursion. Of course, I looked them up in San Francisco and found a bad state of affairs there.

ENTERTAINING AN AFFINITY.
"To cut a long story short, the memory of Mrs. Christiansen told me that she was entertaining—well, an affinity during the absence of her husband from the rooming house on Valencia and Twenty-second streets, San Francisco. I found the husband out of work and the children in awful condition. They were dirty, unkempt and covered with vermin. I took them home with me. I would take the boys home with me if he so desired, as my heart went out to the poor little tads.
We bathed the boys and bought them new complete outfits of clothing. Mr.
Christiansen came with me to the depot and put them on the train. I paid for their transportation to Los Angeles and brought them home.

STAYING WITH AUNT'S.
"We had no room at home for them and the boys are staying with their aunts, one at 48 and the other at 47 Marion avenue. I got back last Thursday and learned that it was three days before the mother discovered that her children had gone, all of which demonstrates that they needed someone to take care of them.

"Since then I have received a wire from the father to hold the children by all means.
"Before Christiansen got out of work he was earning $5 a day and his two older boys $2.50 each. He told me that regularly every week they turned over $5 to the woman and yet after he had been out of work a month they did not have a cent in the house.

"Mrs. Christiansen always had good clothes for herself and paid visits to a beauty doctor but her family was neglected horribly. What I did I do not regret. I did it simply out of pity for the children and with the consent of the father.

"As to bringing the children here to place them in a Latter-day Saint institution—that is another Tribune fabrication out of whole cloth.
"One more word about the mother: She was a member of the Church when here, but since leaving Salt Lake she joined two other denominations and just what church she belongs to since she met her affinity I cannot tell." session certain ammunition no longer of use may exchange it for an equal amount of ammunition which will be suitable for the new magazine rifle which is to be issued to the militia.

This is an important question which has already been brought up by the militia authorities of Ohio, and it opens up a big question of the extent to which a state may be reimbursed for useless ammunition purchased out of state funds or out of the allotment of federal funds made in behalf of the militia.
The war department has decided that the exchange may take place, and the general application of the decision is awaited with much interest.

AS TO GREEN GOODS.

Sale of Foods Colored With Copper Salts Is to Stop.

Salt Lake grocers and provision dealers will learn with an interest more or less deep as to feeling, that on and after Jan. 1, 1909, no foods greened with copper salts will be allowed entry to the United States according to a decision of the government board charged with the duty of enforcing the pure food act. It has been decided by the board that the act prohibits the importation of foods treated with copper salts. Inasmuch as contracts have already been made for the present year's supply until Jan. 1, next, the board has made a ruling permitting the admission until the date named of all vegetables greened with copper salts, if such vegetables bear labels showing that sulphate of copper or other copper salts have been used in coloring them.

DEPARTMENT GROWS ACTIVE.

Government Renews Efforts to Locate Soldiers' Clothing.

In view of the recent seizure by Fort Douglas officers of soldiers' clothing and saloons, it is of importance to note that the war department is renewing its effort to stop the illegal traffic in soldiers' uniforms. There have been in the last year many cases of conviction of dealers in clothing who have purchased equipment from enlisted men in the army. For a time the department encountered much difficulty in accomplishing this, for the reason that the clothing was held to be an allowance of the soldier, who was entitled to do what he pleased with something issued to him and to which he was fully entitled with all the effect of a proprietary possession. In some cases which have come to the attention of the war department the purchasers of these uniforms or equipment presented the defense of not knowing that their act was illegal.
In several instances the soldiers pawned the articles, and it was understood by those who accepted them that the goods were owned by the persons presented them. It has occurred to the military authorities that it would be well to have this situation fully known, and it has been decided to communicate with the police authorities of the leading cities and of towns situated in the neighborhood of army posts, in order that dealers in second-hand clothing and pawnbrokers who would be likely to purchase this clothing may be made fully acquainted with the situation. There is a decreasing amount of these transactions, owing to the energy and determination shown by the military authorities in prosecuting cases of this class.

HAD TO PAY TWO FARES.

Passengers Boarding Cars on Loops Find Out About Company Rules.

Yesterday's snow storm brought grief to a number of Salt Lake's in proving expensive to their books of street car tickets. While standing on the down town corners waiting for cars, many people became so wet and chilled that they boarded the cars on first sight of them, often forgetting the fact that they were on their way around the "loops," which now mark starting and terminal points for rides. Conductors promptly took up one fare and then a block farther on asked for another, the angered passengers then finding out that to board a car before it has reached a terminal point means a fare, although the ride is only half a block long.
Atty. M. M. Warner with three members of his family, boarded the West Temple car at Second South and West Temple, on the north side of the street, bound for their home at the end of the line. The car loops to First South and back to West Temple, Second South, and Mr.
Warner was assessed eight fares to get home, being told that he had ridden on an up-town ride as well as an out-going ride, the up-town ride being a block long, or to the first stop after a point to which the car returns, on making the loop. City Atty. Dinwiddie holds that the company's rule is legal.

ments will cost $35,000. Contracts will be let between June 20 and July 1. It is the purpose of the board to provide a complete equipment for the manual work.

DAVIS CANNOT DO IT.

Finds Himself Too Busy to Operate Campaign of the "Americans."

For A. J. Davis, the president of the city council under election from "American" party members, the task of managing the coming campaign for that party has proved too extensive.
He has suddenly discovered that he has mining interests and other interests, and in fact, couldn't possibly own and operate a campaign fund or a bunch of campaign workers for the coming fall and summer. Whether the merciless fire of public indignation that is now trained on the city councilmen has anything to do with the action of the council's president is not certain. His answer was given probably by a man not in any way associated in the public mind with the "persuader ring." Such a policy in recent years has been constantly employed in getting new timber to take the place of what has become too well known to be of maximum usefulness.

ENGLISH LORD FINED.

Contributor Clips Item from English Paper Interesting to Autoists.

Editor Deseret News: The following item is from the Ormskirk Advertiser, an English paper, of April 30:
"For driving a motor car through Cadby at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour, Lord Vernon, of Cheshire, was fined twenty pounds and costs at Leicester. His motor license was also suspended for twelve months." If some of the Salt Lake City motorists had English law and judges to deal with, instead of the grafting weaklings of the "American" party unfit, what a grand thing it would be for the citizens generally. Something of the kind referred to in the above item can't be established here too soon and life and property protected.

played the bridal music, including selections preceding and during the ceremony, and ending in the Mendelssohn march as the service closed. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr.
Waldemar Van Cott, preceded by the maid of honor and the two bridesmaids, and they were met at the church rail by the groom, his best man, Littleton Price, and Dean Brewster. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white tulle cloth over white satin, trimmed with rose point lace and a long veil of tulle fastened with a wreath of lilies of the valley. A handsome dia-

SURPLUS OF BY-PRODUCTS.

Smelters Find New Methods Result in Accumulation of Vast Amounts.

Local wholesale druggists are speculating on what the smelters will do with sulphur and other by-products accumulating on their hands in consequence of the successful workings of new methods for neutralizing the smoke and fumes hitherto wasted through the stacks. The sulphur precipitated can be utilized in the manufacture of sulphuric acid—a great deal of which is used in this country, as well as sulphate of copper, commonly known as bluestone. The arsenical salts can be refined into the ordinary widely used arsenic, which is commercially produced, which is used in various chemical processes. Druggists say that if the smelters make up their by-products into commercial value, there will be no trouble about their being able to find a market for the goods.
