LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 80° in the shade at one o'clock to-day.

THEATRE.—Another full house assembled last night to witness the plays of "Single Life" and "Solon Shingle," which were well rendered by the artists and well received by the audience.

This evening there is a magnificent bill announced, consisting of "Ireland as it is," and "That Blessed Baby." Between the plays, Locke's beautiful Macbeth music will be given by the orchestra, assisted by Mrs. E. F. Thomas, Misses Triplet, Pascoe, Miner, Messrs. Teasdale and Owen, and the great Tabernacle choir. In this musical interlude 30 pieces are on the programme, including symphonies, recitatives, airs and choruses.

This will be a splendid entertainment.

LOST.—Yesterday a person lost, from his wagon, between the U. C. depot and this Office, a U. S. Yauger gun. The finder will oblige by leaving it at this Office for the owner.

INFORMATION WANTED of James and Thomas Gribble, sons of John Gribble. When last heard from, about fourteen years ago, Thomas was living near Monterey, Cals., and James near Marsyville, Cals. Any information of their whereabouts will be thankfully received by their father. Address, Parsgoonah, Iron Co., Utah.

Cals. papers, please copy.

A HEARTY OCTOGENARIAN.—Bro. J. Gribble, of Parsgoonah, Iron County, 250 miles South, called to see us this morning. He has come up to Conference, is hearty, smart, and jolly. He was in the persecutions from Kirtland times, and says that he had charge of the Temple during the latter part of his residence in Nauvoo. He has a mine of interesting reminiscences at command.

OGDEN ITEMS.—From the Junction of Oct. 7—

The Utah Central is putting down another switch of 1,000 feet on Fifth Street to hold the passenger train, so that there will be a clear passage for the freight train. John Fife is foreman and John Stubbs superintendent. A coal switch is also to be put down for a coal yard.

Messrs J. W. Cogeswell and J. W. Carter and Carrie Carter were playing in Ogden.

FIRE AT GRANTSVILLE. — Bro. Ara Sabin, of Grantsville, had the misfortune to see his stables, corrals, chicken coops, a horse, 60 chickens, harness, &c., burned a little over a week ago. Origin of the fire unknown.

GONE, TO RETURN.—A circular from the "Presidential Head Quarters, Omaha," informs us that the illustrious Geo. Francis sailed to Europe, for his family, Sept. 7, expecting to return to America and commence another lecture tour by October 15.

A BEE MEETING was held at the City Hall, Oct. 8th, 7 p.m.

There was a full attendance of ladies and gentlemen from various parts of the Territory, nine counties being represented.

After prayer by Elder W. Woodruff, Mr. George Bailey, of Mill Creek, reported extracting 1,760 pounds of splendid honey during the months of July and August, from 30 stands of Italian Bees, and had doubled the number of his swarms during the season. His bees were still gathering honey, and he was confident that he would not be under the necessity of feeding them in the Spring.

Samuel Bateman, of West Jordan, had but one swarm of Italian Bees last Spring. He extracted 200 pounds of honey and divided his during the season several times, and has now five strong swarms. His bees work almost entirely on rabbit bush.

Mr. Whiting, of Spanish Fork, raised the enormous amount of 1,900 pounds from 24 swarms. He thought that catnip, mignionette, sainfoin, and what is commonly called stinkweed, cannot be beaten for feeding.

Interesting remarks were made by the various speakers, many of whom differed as to the best mode of wintering bees. Some were in favor of leaving their bees on summer stands and protecting them from the severe winter storms by throwing carpeting or gunny sacks around the hives. Others preferred to put them in dark cellars and that they should be kept in a semi-dormant state.

Mr. Thurston remarked that Bro. Murphy of Mill Creek, from swarms added eight more, and extracted 500 lbs. of good honey. In his observation and experience he discovered that there was a great difference in places of even close proximity in regard to successful bee culture.

Elder Wilford Woodruff remarked, in relation to the different kinds of bees, that his experience, although limited, taught him that the Italian Bees are the most profitable to keep and much easier to handle than the Black ones, which should be ialianized as soon as possible throughout the Territory. He did not think the Italians were half as rebellious as the Blacks. His little children played among his bees (Italian kind) and they never got stung.

The meeting adjourned sine die, subject to the call of Prest. Musser. Benediction by Elder Rogerson.

R. V. MORRIS, Secy.

FINED.—This morning, in Justice Clinton's court, J. F. Tracey was fined $5 for profane swearing in the streets on Sunday last, and $10 for assault and battery.

THERE are telegrams at the Deseret Telegraph office for Charles Bocker, J M Wallace, George Marshall, Mrs M J Kimball, Syrus Sanford, A J Jemmeson, and E M Choubard.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

PHILADELPHIA, 9.—The total Hartranft majority in Philadelphia is 15,223, with two wards to hear from, which last year gave 1,044 Democratic majority. The third ward of this city gives Buckalew 472 majority; the twenty-fifth ward gives him 629. The totals of majority in the city foot up as follows: Hartranft, 19,289; Buckalew, 3,380; Hartranft's majority, 15,823.

NEW YORK, 9.—A Philadelphia special says as many as 35,000 persons were present at the Union League House last night, to hear the news of the elections. McClure and the Liberals gave up the fight at 8 o'clock, as they saw that the Republican majority in the city alone amounted to more than they could overcome by the total Buckalew majority in the outside counties. The crowds in the streets were very enthusiastic and cheered lustily. At about half-past 11 McClure and Forney conceded 15,000 majority to Hartranft. Special dispatches indicate a majority for Hartranft in the State at from 15,000 to 25,000.

The results are awaited in this city with great interest. Last evening crowds assembled at the political headquarters and hotel to hear the returns. The Fifth Avenue hotel was thronged with politicians, who received the telegrams until a very late hour.

The Tribune say, We have been cheated out of Pennsylvania, but have made great gains in Ohio, though not enough to carry the State, and have nothing discouraging from Indiana.

A special to the Sun says the Republicans gain Congressmen in the 6th and 21st districts, and one State Senator and two legislators in Penn'sylvania.

CINCINNATI, 9.—All the precincts in the East Ohio district are in, but one. Sayler, Democrat, has a majority over Eggleston of 3,974, for the short term. In the same district Dodds, Democrat, has a majority over Taft of 2,385. In the Second Ohio district two precincts give Banning, Liberal, a majority over Hayes of 1,490, which will be reduced to about 1,300, and Wiley, Democrat, and Liberal for secretary of State, a majority over Willock of 6,720, which will be about 5,600, when the returns are all in.

CHICAGO, 9.—Special dispatches received here add nothing to the facts already telegraphed in regard to the election yesterday.

The Tribune concedes Pennsylvania and Ohio to the Republicans, but claims Indiana doubtful.

The Times says the results of the elections yesterday may be summarized by stating that the Republicans carried Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska, and adds that Greeley's defeat is doubly assured. There was much interest exhibited here to learn the result of the elections, and considerable crowds gathered about the newspaper offices and political headquarters where the returns were bulletined.

To-day, being the anniversary of the great fire, hundreds of individuals and firms are celebrating it by moving into new quarters in the rebuilt part of the city. The board of trade will take formal possession of their new hall today. The building is complete in all its parts, and not only far excels the old one, but is considered one of the finest in the United States.

The Tribune this morning is issued from its new office in its new form on eight-page paper. Both the Times and the Tribune publish sixteen pages this morning, largely devoted to a review of the past year's work in the city.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, 9.—The State Republican committee claim Ohio by 15,000 to 18,000, and 12 Congressmen, probably two more, leaving the Democrats seven.

In Indiana the Republican central committee claim the State as certain, but incredulous Democrats still bet on Hendricks.

NEW YORK, 9.—O'Conor, in a letter to James Lyons, Richmond, Va., says he has not indicated an alteration of his resolve not to be a candidate.

The Republicans fired 100 guns over the election victories.

PHILADELPHIA, 9.—Forney's Press says, Greeley's doom is sealed, that Grant pulled the ticket through, as the fear of damage to him in November caused thousands to vote for Hartranft. Forney will support Grant's re-election. Congressional delegation will be eighteen Republicans and nine Democrats.
