The case of the state vs Oliver Cedarstrom, charged with taking 10 tons of hay, of the value of $15, from land near Pelican Point, alleged to be the property of Gus Slade, was heard before Justice Foote and a jury yesterday. Defendant admitted taking the hay, but claimed he had a right to take it, having leased the land from a Mr. Pierce, who also claims to be the owner of the land. There was a question of the validity of the lease, but the state claimed that Cedarstrom knew the land belonged to Slade. The jury, however, acquitted him.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Bitters never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and purify matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Care biliousness, torpid liver and prevents fever. In order to maintain a case of the stomach and bowels, a physician must prove that they entered the place with burlap and felonious intent.

LOSS BY FIRE.

At the Junction on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Longreen suffered a serious loss, which destroyed the stable, burned 12 tons of hay, corn, two pigs and a cow. The loss was estimated at $150. The cause of the fire is unknown. As the lady is a widow, and has to earn the necessities of life by hard work, the loss will work her a great hardship.

SAD MISFORTUNES.

While working on the O. S. L. western Joseph Wolston had a fall from his right foot mashing his toes badly. He was taken to his father-in-law, Mr. John Worthington, to St. Mark's hospital. After examination it was found necessary to have his toes taken off, and he will be laid up for some time. This is a case for substantial aid and sympathy, as Mr. Wolston had the misfortune to lose his 11-month-old baby last Tuesday, adding to the woes of the family.

Special Correspondence.

Parowan, Iron Co., Sept. 24.—Court met pursuant to adjournment and the case John S. Mitchell vs Heber Jensen and Andrew (Vibster) died yesterday under adjournment. Court then adjourned subject to call. Most of the cases were continued until the January term.

The weather is beautiful, having cleared off after the rain with no frost, which is unusual here at this time of year.

Socials are being given in honor of a number of our citizens, who depart the last of the week for Oregon.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Little Early Bitters cures quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. SCHOOLS OVERCROWDED.

Contractor John Anderson Laid Up With Serious Injury.

Special Correspondence.

Springville, Utah Co., Sept. 25.—Springville schools are running at full force, not near enough room to accommodate all the pupils. The new school house which has been under construction this season will soon be finished and will furnish room for 100 more teachers. The carpenters are rushing the finishing but are being put back waiting for a car of flooring and also by an accident which happened to contractor John Anderson who has been laid up and confined to his bed most of the time for five weeks, due to stepping upon a nail and running it through his foot.

The best sugar mill here is running, driving its juice to Lehi. It commenced work Monday. The crop is good. There are a number of serious cases of fever in town.

Prof. Hickman of the B. Y. A. Provo, gave an interesting talk on the "Divine Evidence of the Book of Mormon," last Sunday evening.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

PRICE.

YOUTHFUL TRAVELER.

Heaviest Rain of Years—Politics—Horses in Demand.

Special Correspondence.

Price, Carbon Co., Sept. 25.—Little Opheelia Christensen, aged 11 years, has arrived here from Norway, having been sent to Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Rhodes, old settlers of this county, and who are childless, by a missionary from Richfield, now laboring in that country. She is a remarkably bright child. Her mother is dead, but the father is still living and will later come to this country. It is said.

HEAVIEST RAIN OF YEARS.

The heaviest rains for years have fallen during the past ten days all over the desert country between Price and Fort Duchesne and Vernal, delaying freight of all kinds and putting the stages considerably to the bad in the matter of getting over the road. Snow has fallen in the mountains to the east, north and west of Price, all of which insures good grazing for sheep and more feed for the cattle next year.

Grace, the five-month-old girl baby of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Thomas, died yesterday morning of pneumonia, preceded by summer complaint. The funeral is being held this afternoon from the family residence.

POLITICS.

The biggest row of the season will be in Price tomorrow, and tomorrow evening, the occasion being a county nominating convention of the Republicans, followed by a free dance in the evening.

The Democrats hold their county convention at Price next Tuesday. Hon. William Howard is a candidate for representative before the Democratic county convention of Emery county, while John C. Lemon of Ferron aspires to the Republican nomination.

Henry G. Mathis, for three years doing missionary work in Germany, will soon be at home in Price. His friends are talking him up for representative on the Republican ticket.

George C. Franzen and Frank McInyre of Price have been called to take a course at Provo academy, preparatory to going on missions.

HORSES IN DEMAND.

Matt Warner and Len McCarty have gone to the Vernal country to try to pick up a thousand head of horses. They will take anything that is sound, from a good sized colt on the range to well broken draft animals. They are buying under contract for Colorado and will receive delivery at some railroad station in eastern Utah.

Bishop Horsley of Price is putting the finishing touches upon his new and handsome residence in the east part of town.

Albert Bryner has gone east with two cars of cattle of his own and several loads of sheep for R. G. Miller.

Eastern Utah owners are shipping out their weathers as fast as cars in which to move the stock can be had. The range here is getting to be very poor, worse each year. Numerous Carbon county sheep owners are going to move their flocks on to the Utah reservation in the spring, where they have arranged for the blow landing on the range.

The flouring mills in Emery county are running at full capacity. It is thought flour will not have to be brought in there next year at all.

Numerous Price people are thinking of going to the blow landing and taking up land for fruit and melon raising.

Month growers have supplied most of the fruit to this section this present year.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

KICKED OFF SCHOOL GROUNDS.

Sudden Death of Young Girl—F. C. Jensen Injured.

Special Correspondence.

Mount Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Sept. 24.—A small sensation occurred on the school grounds on Tuesday last when John L. Jensen, a young man, was kicked and cuffed off the grounds by the principal. The miscreant had been hanging around for two days insulting little girls and got less than he deserved.

The 12-year-old daughter of Andrew Anderson (Vibster) died yesterday under adjournment. She had been in school the week before and was fairly well until taken with a coughing spell which lasted about half an hour, at the end of which time she passed away.

Fred C. Jensen received a bad kick from a horse yesterday. He was riding one animal and driving a number of others when one of those in front kicked him in the blow landing on the leg between the ankle and knee.

Dustin, quietly passed away Saturday night, Sept. 20, after an illness of about 10 days. Sister Dustin was a kind mother, a faithful wife and a good neighbor. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn her departure, the youngest being 12 years of age. The people of our little village extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

The crops are generally good here this season.

Quite a number of our young people are going away from home to take advantage of the benefits derived from the high schools of the larger cities.
