east has been abandoned for to-day.

WELLS, Nev., 31st, 3:30 p.m.

The west bound overland train, due in San Franciscisco Tuesday evening, tackled the snow blockade to-day with twelve engines and snow plow, and stuck in the first cut west of Toano. The train was then hauled back to Toano, and will lie there until the wind moderates. It is blowing a gale and snow drifting badly on the Peoquot range, where the railroad crosses.

The tea that arrived by the last Pacific steamer is lying here awaiting favorable weather to proceed.
