

THICK SOLED BOOTS VS. CONSUMPTION.—The Town Clerk of Newton, Mass., in his report of the vital statistics of that town, says: "The number of deaths by consumption has usually been about one-fourth of the whole; the past year but fourteen; a favorable change in the leading disease of New England. The favorable result of the change from thin to thick soles on the boots and shoes of our females is already visible. Should the recent fashion of thin soles again be attempted, it is hoped the ladies of Newton will stand firm on their thick soles."

THE SICK HEADACHE.—It is stated that two tea-spoonfuls of finely powdered charcoal, drank in a half tumbler of water, will, in less than fifteen minutes, give relief to the sick headache, when caused, as in most cases it is, by superabundance of acid on the stomach.

"THAT STANDARD SHEET."

GREAT NATIONAL BANNER OF INTELLECT, FOR AMERICAN HEARTS AND HOMES! THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

A NEW YEAR WITH AN OLD FRIEND.

ON New Year's day of 1862, that world-renowned and unrivaled gem of American journalism, the peerless NEW YORK MERCURY, will enter upon the twenty-fourth year of the most brilliant career ever achieved by a paper. During the past year it has been the teacher, story-teller, mentor, and oracle of Two Hundred Thousand American Homes, from ocean to ocean—and from Quebec, in Canada, to Pensacola, on the Gulf of Mexico.

"Familiar in their mouths as household words." The noble patriot-soldier in his tent, too, has whiled away the tedious of camp life in the absorbing review of its finding in them a fascinating mental discipline known only to those who rally to the Banner-sheet of the Grand Army of American Intellect and Genius!

In commencing a New Year, the proprietors of the NEW YORK MERCURY can only say, that it shall be their aim to make their great family journal of American literature, for 1862, more brilliant and enchanting than ever, in its concentration of all the world's grandest and most beautiful specialties in healthful Romance, graceful Poetry, elegant and quaint Gossip, refining Knowledge, sparkling Humor, and entertaining News—until, like love, it —rules the court, the camp, the bower," as it already rules the happy, domestic fireside.

The Editorial tone and National departments of the NEW YORK MERCURY will continue true to that lofty spirit of patriotism which has made it a necessity of the people since the War began, and kept it in enthusiastic demand when other sheets were dying all around it for want of popular support.

Already the largest Literary Journal in the world, and famous as the focus of a thousand brilliant literary reputations, its programme for 1862, will be magnificent beyond all precedent. The most celebrated pens of this country and Europe have been secured in its service, at an outlay equal to the expense of more than one national government in the Old World! and its novelettes, or continued stories, for 1862, will be the most splendid triumphs of elegant Fiction ever published. To these, too, the magic pencil of the greatest of American artists, MR. FELIX O. C. DARLEY, will lend the aid of pictorial art.

Our story, initiatory of the New Year, is a splendid Romance, commencing in the NEW YORK MERCURY of Saturday, January 4th, 1862, and entitled

THE BATTLESTAR;

OR THE REBEL PRIVATEER.

A TALE OF THE PRESENT TIME.

BY NED BUNTLINE.

IT IS THE GREATEST NAUTICAL NOVELETTE SINCE THE DAYS OF MARRYATT.

The NEW YORK MERCURY is sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers, it is mailed every Saturday morning, for $2 a year; three copies for $5; six copies for $9; eight copies for $12, with an extra copy, FREE, to the getter up of the club. Six months' subscriptions received. Always write plainly the name of your Post Office, County and State. We take notes of all specie paying banks at par. Payment must invariably be made in advance.

Specimen Copies sent free to all applicants. Address all letters and remittances, post paid, to CAULDWELL, SOUTHWORTH & WHITNEY, Proprietors of The New York Mercury, 27 5 46 and 48 Ann Street, New York City.
