PANGUITCH.

DEATH OF HON. W. P. SARGENT.
Closes Brilliant Career in 63rd Year—Teachers Institute.

Special Correspondence.
Panguitch, Garfield Co., Dec. 8.—Last Friday, Dec. 6, a much respected citizen of this place departed this life, Hon. William P. Sargent. The deceased was born Nov. 11, 1845, at Canton, Cherokee county, Georgia. His parents were Henry Sargent and Polly Ann Williams. When but a lad of 15 years he left school and joined the Confederate army during the Civil war, was captured and taken to Chicago as a prisoner, where he was finally released through an exchange of prisoners. After the war Mr. Sargent continued his military life and was sent west by the government to fight Indians. He came direct to Utah, being quartered at Fort Douglas. He received his discharge at Fort Bridger and returned to Utah, where he taught school at Lodi where also he joined the Church. While at Lodi the deceased married Mark L. Snow, and shortly after they moved to Pine valley, where he was again engaged in school teaching, and also acted as tithing clerk for Bishop Snow of that place for many years. The family moved to Panguitch in 1879, where he and his family have resided ever since.

Mr. Sargent has been active in public affairs, and had considerable practice in law. He served in the legislature two terms during territorial days as representative from this county.

He was the father of 11 children and has 13 grand children. Eight of his children are still living, all of whom were at his bedside, save one son, Leonard C., who is now laboring as a missionary in the Northwestern States mission. Mr. Sargent himself also filled a mission in the Southern States, where he performed a good work.

Funeral services were held today in the tabernacle, the speakers were M. W. Steele, Ira W. Hatch, Ralph Deane, Samuel Henrie and A. H. Riding.

TELEPHONE EXTENSION.

Many a Salt Lake City Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Salt Lake City. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

A. Reynolds, living at 379 west First North street, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "Before I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the P. J. Hill Drug Co., I had been troubled for a long time from kidney complaint and backache. I was restless at night and as a consequence would arise in the morning feeling tired and worn out. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me in every way and I have not had any trouble since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBirn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

valuable instructions pertaining to their work, and at 2 p. m., where a general session was held in the ward meetinghouse, Prof. C. D. Caste of the Onelda Stake academy, William Howell, superintendent of the Onelda stake; H. M. Rawlins, Jr., superintendent of the Benson stake; John Evans of the general board, were the speakers. Parents were urged very strongly to support the Religion classes movement as it deals directly with the practical operations of the gospel. The officers of the Richmond ward provided a lunch at the school building.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.
The Garfield county school teachers have been in session in this city for the past two days. Prof. Hall of the U. of U. has been in attendance as an instructor.

The state surveys are busy running the land survey for the proposed canal on the bench each of here preparatory to moving of dirt.

Threshing is nearing completion, a good yield of grain is reported.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds and lung troubles. This is because the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Guard your health by refusing any but the genuine. For sale by P. J. Hill Drug Co., "The never substitutes."

Suits and overcoats at half price, Daniels, 27 West Second South.

HEBER.

Welcome Home Party Tendered Mr. and Mrs. Robert Price.

Special Correspondence.
Heber City, Dec. 11.—Last night a "welcome home" party was given the Mr. and Mrs. Robert Price, who just returned from England, where Mr. Price has been laboring as a missionary for the past two years. An excellent time was had. Program consisted of music, speeches and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Hatch have gone to Salt Lake to spend the winter, where their children are attending school. Work on the Wasatch power plant has been discontinued for the present. The grading for the pipe line has been completed and negotiations are now under way for the purchase of pipe. As soon as this can be delivered work will be resumed. All the stock in the company has now been sold.

The basement in the bank building is being repaired and fitted up for a barber shop. Mr. Epperson and Mr. Lund are to move into the building on the first of the year.

Christmas trade is quite brisk in the city.

About six inches of snow fell last night and indications point to more.

The winter range for sheep on the reserve is reported to be the best that it has been for many years and sheep men are jubilant over the fact.

Quite a number of cases of measles are reported in the city.

CIRCLEVILLE.

Fire Causes Considerable Excitement; Loss is Slight.

Special Correspondence.
Circleville, Platte Co., Dec. 10.—The straw stack of Mr. M. C. Dalton, was set on fire by one of his small boys, this afternoon, which caused a great excitement. Men and boys came to assist in putting out the fire as soon as the news was received through the phone. Otherwise, water was unavailable for some time except from the neighboring wells. Men and boys, women and girls worked faithfully until a stream of water was turned on about three-fourths of a mile away. The school boys also did a good work in fighting the fire, and moving the straw. Finally the fire was extinguished and no great damage was done, aside from the loss of a number of loads of straw. There was no wind to spread the fire, or the hay stables, house, etc., would have been in great danger.

COWLEY, WYOMING.

Charles R. Lyman Tipped from Lead of Hay and Breaks His Leg.

Special Correspondence.
Cowley, Big Horn Co., Wyo., Dec. 7.—A painful accident happened to one of Cowley's foremost citizens today, when Charles R. Lyman had his leg broken just below the knee. Both bones were broken. He was hauling hay and the load tipped over. He struck the ground on his feet but the force of the fall fractured the leg as above stated.

The cases of sickness are all improving. A mass convention was called the other evening and a city ticket nominated, Jesse W. Crosby was nominated for mayor.

The state presidency met with the stake officers of all the auxiliary organizations of the stake yesterday at which meeting valuable instruction was given.

A number of fine residences are nearing completion which adds much to the appearance of the town.

The weather is very fine. It has been a most beautiful fall.

EXPOSURE.

To cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of the temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds.

Ballard's Horsebalm Syrup is the best cure. Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Tex., writes, Jan. 31, 1907: "One bottle of Ballard's Horsebalm Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take. Sold by Z. C. M. Drug Dept. B"

PIANOS GO FAST.

Doors Close Jan. 1st, 1908.

It's hard to sacrifice such splendid high grade pianos as Chickering & Sons, Davenport & Tracy, Haddorf, Clarendon and Bishop, but the work must go on. Only two cars of the original four remain unsold. If you ever want a bargain in a piano, don't hesitate to come and see for yourself or write us. Terms cash or easy payments if desired. What more practical gift than to select one of these fine instruments for Christmas delivery. Remember the genuine going out of business sale of pianos is only at the Utah-Idaho Music company, 220 State Street, directly opposite the Knutsford Hotel.

Edward Carey, for Many Long Years, Thought His Sister Was Dead.

Mrs. Mamie Brand Meets Brother at Sick Bed and is Providing For Him.

A story touching with heart interest and pathos is told about Utah people in the Denver Post of Sunday, Dec. 8. The article follows in full:

Just when death and despair seemed bound to overtake him, friendless and alone, a ray from the good sun of hope wandered down to Edward Carey, 25 years old, and now he lies on a bed in Mrs. M. W. Lane's sanitarium, 4633 Vallejo street, with a happy smile on his bloodless lips. Until a few days ago he believed he was penniless and without kith or kin in the world, but since then he has found his sister, whom he thought dead long ago, and she is furnishing him with medical attention and proper care. And therein is the story of a reunion after 17 years' separation.

SISTER MARRIED UTAH.

Carey and his sister lost their parents when they were but children and thereafter they lived with their mother's sister, who could not find a home for them.

"Sweetly Thine."

STARTUP CANDY CO., Provo, Utah.

years old she married Joseph Brand of Eureka, Utah, and came west to live, leaving her brother, then a lad of 16, with an uncle. Within a year the uncle died and young Carey was left to his own resources. He followed a natural inclination and set out for the west to make his fortune.

With a firm intention of not applying to his sister for aid, he made his own living with varying success. His life was uneventful and his only sorrow was the news that his sister was dead. The years went by and in the course of time he became ill of consumption, and this he treated as well as he could.

NEAR DEATH'S DOOR.

At length his funds gave out and he was forced to exist on the little that he could make in his weakened condition. The climax came, but a few days ago.

He was seated in a fifteenth street rooming house, pondering on the fact that his landlord had that day told him to vacate his room, in view of the large bill that was standing against him. His reflections were interrupted by the conversation of two men who were seated near him, one of them speaking the name of Joseph Brand.

Carey introduced himself and asked for more information about Mr. Brand and was told that he still lived in Eureka. His informant told him that Mrs. Brand was also alive, but Carey had no idea that it could be his sister, in addition to consumption, he was suffering at the time with a well-developed case of pneumonia, and these misfortunes were the factors in his determination to write his brother-in-law.

Carey wrote to Eureka, telling Brand of his condition. Then he gave up his room and looked about for some place that would take him in. In the course of his search he arrived at Mrs. Lane's place and told her that he had written a letter which would probably be answered by aid, so Mrs. Lane took him in and cared for him.

At the time Carey was in destitute circumstances, ill-fed and scantily clad. Mrs. Lane nursed him night and day for a week, but his progress was hampered by the fear that he could not pay for the attention he was receiving.

One morning, several days ago, a finely-dressed woman stepped from a carriage in front of the sanitarium and spoke to Mrs. Lane. "I think my brother, whom I have not seen since he was 16 years old, is here," she said. Then she introduced herself as Mrs. Mamie Brand of Eureka, Utah. She had left her home the day of the receipt of her brother's letter and had hurried to his side.

The meeting between brother and sister was affecting. Everything was done for the sick man, and Mrs. Brand returned to her home in Utah. Now the physicians hold out hope for Carey's recovery, though he is still very low.
