I feel it my duty to send you my sin-cere thanks. C. ENGBLORN. Neither mental nor physical labor can be accomplished satisfactorily unless the system is in order. When you feel tired, languid, wearled without exertion, the mind slow to act, and requiring great mental effort, you can rest assured that your liver is not acting properly, and that nature requires assistance to help throw off impurities. There is no remedy that will accomplish this so mildly and yet effectually as "Prickly Ash Bitters." A trial will satisly you of its merits.
