Said appointees to hold the said offices for the term required by law, and they are hereby requested and directed to take the oaths of office and to discharge the duties of their offices with fidelity to the laws of the Territory.

Witness my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory to be hereunto set at Salt Lake City, Utah, the twenty-seventh day of September, A. D. 1882.

ELI H. MURRAY, Governor.

ARTHUR L. THOMAS, Secretary of the Territory.

ILLEGITIMATE COMPETITION.

HOW SOME EASTERN FIRMS SEEK TO HEAD OFF HOME MANUFACTURE BY TRICKS OF TRADE.

Honorable competition in trade is never shunned or resented by fair dealing persons, but when competitors adopt illegitimate methods of attracting custom, it becomes our duty to assist in protecting the public from such dishonorable practices.

A flagrant instance of business deception, using the mildest applicable term, has recently been brought to our notice, and as it affects the interests of one of the most prominent manufacturing enterprises in this Territory, it is therefore, in our opinion, a matter that should be made generally known.

We allude to the fact that several eastern boot and shoe firms have representatives traveling through the Territory carrying samples that are imitations of the styles made at Z. C. M. I. Shoe Factory. These parties make it a point to offer these imitation goods to our country merchants at a few cents a pair less than the genuine article can be bought for, and claim that customers cannot discern the difference, that in other words, the imported can readily be sold as home-made.

The attempt to justify the fraud, by asserting that those boots and shoes are as good, or better than the home-made, is a flimsy subterfuge. We unhesitatingly deny that the imported articles are as well made as those of which they are imitations; but admitting, for argument, that the quality is equal, we contend that the deception sought to be practised upon the public is unjustifiable and dishonorable. It may be regarded as a high compliment to Mr. Rowe, the efficient manager of Z. C. M. I. Shoe Factory, that the styles of boots and shoes he has introduced and made popular, are copied by mammoth eastern firms; it certainly should be considered a strong argument favoring the superiority of the goods made here.

Anything conflicting with the success of home industries should be uncompromisingly opposed. We counsel all to be on their guard against such trickery as that alluded to, it is a direct blow at the common welfare, and we hope that no merchant can be found in Utah who will countenance it.

The Nautical Lay.—"Old Shipmates" was rendered again in splendid style last evening. This drama has an exceedingly interesting plot and some very exciting situations, and it is placed upon the stage in an unexceptionable manner. The last scene is a novelty and must be seen to be appreciated. Mr. Mordant is a fine actor and is well supported, every member of the company being above the average. The characters are all rather highly colored, but on that account are bound to be popular. Those who have not seen this attractive piece should not fail to attend to-night, this being positively the last presentation—one more than was engaged for, the repetition being by particular request.

THE LAST COMPANY.—The first and last company of this season's emigration from Europe will sail from Liverpool, on the S. S. Adriatic, on the 31st of October.

Grand Jury.—The work of empanelling the grand jury was commenced this afternoon. Several were excused on the ground that they believed in the plural marriage system of the Latter-day Saints being a revelation from God.

Served.—The alternative writs of mandamus obtained by Dr. Douglas and Mr. Arthur Pratt have been served respectively upon Territorial Auditor Nephew W. Clayton and Sheriff Theodore McKean, citing them to appear before the court and show cause why a peremptory mandamus should not issue.

Burglaries.—At a late hour last night Newton Mead and Harry Fielding were arrested on a charge of stealing about $150 worth of office and household goods from the office of Mr. H. J. Powers, book agent, who is now in the East. The thieves sold the property to John Atkins, second-hand storekeeper, near the Goldie corner.

Eagle House Stock.—Last night, Mr. W. F. Neelen, who has been East for several weeks, purchasing goods for Mr. S. P. Teasdel's Eagle House, returned. His purchases, which have been quite extensive, as well as varied and excellent, are constantly arriving, making the Eagle House stock most replete in every department.

Legal Proceedings Opened.—Yesterday George C. Douglas, "applicant" of the Governor to the office of Territorial Auditor of Public Accounts, and Arthur Pratt, "appellee" of the same authority to the office of Sheriff of Salt Lake County, applied for an alternative writ of mandamus, to compel the incumbents of the two offices to show cause why they should not yield possession to the applicants. The court granted the writ and the hearing of arguments was set for October 10th.

 Dr. E. J. Kendall & Co., Gentls:—I have a very fine mare that has had a bone spavin for a long time. I tried every thing man could devise to cure it, but all in vain, and was about to give it up when a friend of mine in this city came to me and recommended Kendall's Spavin Cure, which I tried with great results, removing that bone clear and clean. Then I sent 25 cents to you for one of your illustrated horse books, and I think there is no better book printed on the horse and his diseases. I have taken great interest in it, and have since sold eighteen copies for you to my neighbors, and will try and do what good I can by getting them for others. Yours truly, G. W. MILLER.

CASE OF DIPHTHERIA.
 GRANGER, Aug. 30th, 1882.
 To Dr. M. Don:
 Dear Sir.—It is with much pleasure I write to you, knowing it is my duty to do so, after the kind service you have rendered to my wife and children, and I can say that there is not one in twenty who would have had the patience to watch over them night and day as you did, until you saw a chance for the better. I do believe if I had called you in time my other two children would have been here now, and if I can do you any good I certainly shall do so in recommending you to my friends. If you feel disposed to make use of this you can do so. Accept of my best wishes.
 Yours truly,
