

swearing, obtaining liquor and oysters and refusing to pay for them. assaulting and striking a citizen and resisting the officers. He was arrested and was to have a hearing before Justice Pyper to-day.

Scribner's Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys for February, is a beautiful specimen of this favorite juvenile journal, with thirty or forty illustrations. Among the various articles are "The Black Douglas," "The Boy Emigrants," "Tobagans and their use," "How Much for a Penny?" "The Castaways," "Sally Watson's Ride," "Jon of Iceland," "How to Make and Stock an Aquarium," "Jack in the Pulpit," "Mother Goose," etc.

Sudden Death.—Last evening about half past five o'clock Brother Bernard McAdams, when walking from the house of his father-in-law, Bro. Jones, in the 11th Ward, to his own residence in the 20th Ward, while near the house of W. J. Moss, fell and died instantly, without uttering a word or moving a limb. Geo. Hedger and T. Manning, who were approaching from the opposite direction, saw him fall and ran to pick him up, but life was already extinct. He was taken into the house of Wm. Steers and Dr. Smith of the 11th Ward was sent for, but of course the young man was past human aid. Deceased was twenty-seven years old.

An inquest was held over the body to-day, by Coroner Taylor and a jury, the verdict being that deceased came to his death by apoplexy.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 31.

District Court.—The Third District Court opened this morning, Alex. White, C. J., presiding.

Coming Home.—John Sharp, Esq., President and Superintendent of the Utah Southern Railroad, who has been on a business trip to the Eastern States, started for home on Saturday.

Scarlet Fever.—This malady has been unusually prevalent in the city this winter, but has abated somewhat within the last few weeks. There is still, however, a large number of cases. On the 26th Brother and Sister Meakin, a young couple residing in the 3d Ward, had a child die of that disease, and another of their little ones departed this life, from the same cause, this morning.

A Veteran Gone.—At ten o'clock last night Father James Turnbull, of the 11th Ward of this city, departed this life. This respected veteran is known to many people of this community, by whom he was much respected as a humble, contented, unassuming man, whose integrity to the cause of the gospel never wavered, almost the last hours of his life being mainly devoted to conversation relating to the work of the Lord. Father Turnbull was a native of England, and was in the 55th year of his age. He crossed the plains in Captain Roley's handcart company, in the Fall of 1859, arriving in Salt Lake City on the fourth day of September in that year.

A Good Picture.—On Saturday afternoon we saw, in Mr. Savage's art gallery, an excellent picture, by Mr. Geo. M. Ottinger, representing the discovery of the Emma mine, Little Cottonwood, in 1865, by Messrs. D. C. Nichols and Silas Brain. The picture was painted expressly for Mr. Nichols, by his order, and the scene has been finely and truthfully delineated by the artist, the particular locality of Little Cottonwood being well portrayed, as it was in 1865, before being broken up and changed by the development of mines.

Mr. Nichols is a gentleman of means, who has been a resident of the Territory for a goodly number of years, and we take pleasure in noting his commendable encouragement of the fine arts at home.

Beneath Contempt.—One of the painters at work on the new Z. C. M. I. building sends us a communication, with his name attached, from which we publish a short extract, although contrary to our custom to notice anything emanating from the iniquitously defamatory source to which the correspondent alludes—

"One of the — libellers, being, as usual, short of authentic matter, on Saturday informed his readers that the painters at work on the new Z. C. M. I. building were paid $8 a week, when the slightest inquiry on his part would have informed him that those painters are being paid from $3 to $3.50 a day."

This correspondent expresses much surprise and disgust that men like those manipulating the paper alluded to should constantly lend themselves to the publication of downright, barefaced fabrications, when they themselves know them to be so. We advise him, however, to keep cool, and not get exercised and pay no attention whatever to such characters.

AMERICAN.

WASHINGTON, 27.—Secretary Chandler has rendered an important decision in the case of Montgomery v. Richards, contestants for tracts of land in Oregon, revising a former decision of Secretary Delano and cancelling a patent certificate heretofore issued to Richards. The case was argued by Senator Mitchell in favor of the cancellation of the patent certificate one of the principal points being the right of the Secretary to overrule a decision of his predecessor.

In the House to-day, Paddock of Neb. presented a petition of chiefs and head men of the Otoe tribe of Indians praying the passage of a law authorizing the sale of their reservation and for the removal of said Indians to Indian Territory. referred to committee on Indian Affairs.

He also presented a petition of citizens of Utah, asking an appropriation for the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia; referred to committee on appropriations.

True bills of indictment have been found by the grand jury against the following persons—Frederick A. Sawyer, W. T. Haynes, Frank W. Brooks, Phineas D. Roddy, and Wm. H. Barstow, for conspiracy to defraud, and did defraud the government of the U. S. of the following sums of money—$24,215 and $33,297 F. W. Brooks and Phineas R. Roddy presenting a false claim, F. A. Sawyer aiding as assistant secretary of the Treasury, in passing a government claim and receiving therefor $1,000 compensation; H. Barstow, a government officer, receiving $1,000 and a watch and chain; W. T. Haynes, also a government officer, received $1,000.

In the raid in the Northampton bank, $29,000 in unsigned five dollar notes of the bank were secured by the burglars on the night of the 20th inst.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., 27.—Jonathan Earle, Treasurer of the Norfolk and New Brunswick Hosiery Co., is a defaulter in the amount of $142,000. He has turned over property and stock sufficient to cover the defalcation, but the securities are not convertible at present. It appears that his son, G. B. Earle, of N. Y., kept his bank accounts and was given blank checks, signed by Earle as Treasurer, to fill out when required to meet the bills and liabilities of the company, and that, in having the blank checks signed at command he has overdrawn the account to the amount stated. It is said young Earle speculated in Wall Street.

NEW ORLEANS, 27.—A large meeting was held to-night to encourage subscription to the New Orleans Pacific R. R. W. C. Black, President of the Cotton Exchange, presided. Resolutions were passed accordingly.

BOSTON, 27.—The robbers entered the house of the cashier, Whittlesey, bound and gagged and guarded four hours seven people. They compelled him to give the combination of the safe vault and waited until they knew the night watchman had gone home. Then getting into the vault and safe with only one of the four keys needed they took a large amount of securities. An expert had to be summoned from New York, and the lock was not opened until early this morning. Cashier Whittlesey, when asked to give three combinations to the vault for the outer, inner and chest doors, gave them wrong twice and thrice, but the burglars wrote them down and made him repeat them. Of course they caught him in the attempt to mislead them, and the exhibition of a pistol compelled him to tell the truth, though he told them the four keys were necessary to open the patent lock, three of which were at the house of the other bank officers. At 4 o'clock a. m. Whittlesey was taken to a down stairs bedroom. The whole family were gagged, and four of the burglars withdrew to operate on the bank. Three hours after, Mrs. Whittlesey succeeded in freeing herself, and giving the alarm from a window. The whole party were speedily liberated and the cashier, still wearing hand-cuffs, went to the bank. A clever workman soon after fitted a key, and all the persons hand-cuffed were released. The examination of the bank showed that cracksmen unlocked the outer door, but were apparently balked by the safe lock lacking three of the requisite four keys. They tried the metal of the door with bars, and wrenched off two dials which served as an index for working the combination. They were entirely unmolested, the watch having gone home. There is every indication that six, perhaps all of them, left on the six o'clock train. Five had tickets previously bought. One paid his fare. Many of the appliances were home-made. The gags were children's rubber balls, pierced with stiff wire. The masks were drawers legs, some with one hole, some with two for eyes. When the robbers saw that Whittlesey was watching them carefully for some marks of identification, they blindfolded him; but he observed that one of them was of very commanding stature. Two or three of the robbers left to guard the premises at the house, took their departure in season to catch the Springfield train. At the latest advice no information had been received of the robbers.

The funds taken are as follows—Missouri State bonds, $15,000; C. R. I. and Pacific shares, $5,000; Lake Shore and Michigan shares, $3,000; C. G. and Q. rights, $1,000; C. and C., $2,000; Union Pacific, $44,000; Ohio and Mississippi second mortgages, 1,650; U. S. bonds, $55,000; Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe bonds, $15,000; Fort Wayne, Jackson and Saginaw, $12,000; Ordensburg and Lake Champlain, $6,000; Missouri Pac, $30,000; registered stock bonds of U. S. and various corporations, $350,000 to $400,000; greenbacks and national bank bills, $10,000; Detroit, Lansing and Lake Michigan, $7,000; New York and Erie bonds, $7,000; Marine State bonds, $10,000; Hudson River railroad bonds, $5,000.

CHICAGO, 27.—Joint indictment found against Jacob Rehm, A. C. Hesling and I. F. Hoyt charges that in February, 1874, these three men conspired together with a large number of others to defraud the U. S. of the internal revenue tax of 70 cents then imposed upon each proof gallon of 1,000,000 gallons of distilled spirits, produced by several distilleries operated by the last named parties.

NEW YORK, 28.—A plot to rifle the safes of Adams' Express Co. has just been made public. Daniel Gaunt, a discharged employee, recently informed private detectives that Francis E. McMahon, also discharged from the service of the company, had called on him and exhibiting duplicate keys, made from wax impressions which he, McMahon, had taken of locks on the safes known as the Pittsburg and New York safes. He proposed the two should enter the building and rifle the safes. When McMahon was made aware that the company and authorities knew of this intended robbery, he entered into negotiations with John Heey, through counsellor Kintzing, offering to surrender the keys if not prosecuted. Heey would only agree if McMahon would surrender himself with the keys, and tell all he knew about the many thefts from safes of the company, furnishing names of his accomplices, including the name and address of the manufacturer of the keys and all other facts within his knowledge, he would not be very rigorously prosecuted. McMahon would not agree to this, and the negotiations were broken off and he fled the city.
