LIKE TO OBTAIN.—No doubt the public would like to obtain what it requires at as cheap a rate as possible, and many times are induced to purchase the cheapest articles they can procure, overlooking the fact that although professedly the cheapest they are in reality the dearest in the end. Take Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and his True Flavoring Extracts, and they may cost a few cents more than the common kinds, yet they are the cheapest, for they require one-third less in quantity, and when used in cakes, pies, puddings, &c., make them splendid and also wholesome. We have yet to see the housewife that was not satisfied with these articles. As there are powders sold in bulk for Dr. Price's, which are not his—be sure to get the genuine, put up in cans securely labeled, and made only by Steele & Rice.

CHAMBER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA.—Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, announce that, by a recent purchase, they have become the sole proprietors of the American Revised Edition of "Chamber's Encyclopedia," and are thereby enabled to offer the work at much lower rates than hitherto. In the course of its recent thorough revision, the American edition was edited with the special view of supplying the wants of American readers. It also possesses a special attraction in containing a series of over seventy-five full-page engravings not contained in any other edition.

IMPORTANT TO THE READER.—It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the shortest route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as the trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kaakakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago.

Local and Other Matters.

Indians in Grass Valley.—A letter published this morning in a city contemporary, makes the somewhat startling announcement, that application was made, three or four days ago, by General Smith, at Camp Douglas, for troops to protect the settlers of Grass Valley, in this Territory, against the violence of the Indians. Serious trouble with the aborigines in Utah has been of comparatively rare occurrence, owing to the policy generally pursued by the people of feeling rather than fighting them; and as rumors of Indian troubles always cause considerable uneasiness in the public mind, the sooner their truth or falsity is ascertained and made known the better.

An old, well known and reliable resident of Sanpete, in the vicinity of Grass Valley, who is a lover of fair play and square dealing, whether for white man or red, called at this office this morning; and being extensively acquainted with both whites and Indians in that vicinity, as well as with the circumstances out of which the alleged difficulty has grown, he gave the following information, which, we think, most likely to be published to once dispel all anxiety in regard to Indian difficulties in the locality in question.

Some years ago Bishops Seeley and Tucker, the former of Mount Pleasant, the latter of Fairview, fenced in and partly cultivated a farm in Thistle Valley for the special benefit of such Indians in that part of the Territory as desired to forsake their nomadic life, settle on a farm and learn to cultivate it. Indian Joe and his band snatched themselves of the opportunity and settled on the farm, and from that time until the present it has been known among the peoples the Indian Farm. For some time back "Joe" and his band have not been on the farm, having left it, probably, for a trip or visit among their friends in other localities. After the departure of the Indians two or three other parties took possession of the farm, claiming to hold it under the pre-emption law; but very recently Joe and his band returned and, naturally enough, wished to take possession of their old quarters. One of the parties in possession, recognizing the justice of their claim, at once resigned in their favor, being willing, in common with the bishops, and the people generally, that the Indians should again come to live on the farm. But two other individuals, who had made a pretended pre-emption of land fenced and partially improved by the labor of others, refused to leave, and threatened to kill any Indians who came to the farm with the intention of staying there. On this account the Indians got mad and, as almost any white man would do, gave the jumpers a very plain intimation that they intended to have their rights, if they had to resort to force to obtain them.

This, we are assured, is the only foundation for the present outcry of trouble with the Indians in this locality, and for the application to the General commanding at Camp Douglas for troops. If this statement is true, we have no reason to doubt, and we expect in a few days to be able to present to our readers a verification of it, it is the Indians who have a right to demand protection from the injustice and chicanery of bad white men, rather than white men who need protection from the incursions of bad Indians.

Our informant also added that Indian Joe and his band have generally been friendly and, in case of real trouble between the settlers and any of the aborigines, they have almost invariably assumed a friendly rather than a hostile part.

We trust that the foregoing will have a tendency to allay any pathetic anxiety that might otherwise be felt in relation to this matter. We have the best of reasons for believing that our readers of the affair is substantially full and correct; and if so, it will be seen that it does not call for the intervention of the military, and is not a matter in which the interests of the public generally are at all jeopardized.

In two or three days at furthest

we expect to be able to publish an account of the matter from the authorities in Grass Valley, through whose wise counsel we hope that the difficulty will be settled, and full justice done to all concerned, white men as well as red.

Just as we were going to press we received the following telegram, which furnishes the explanation promised above, of the alleged Indian difficulty in Grass Valley:

"FAIRVIEW, April 21st, 1875.

"AC Mouser." "DEAR BRO.—The trouble with the Indians amounts to Joe's band, sixteen Indians, trying to regain possession of the farm that they had improved herebefore, and some ill feeling was manifested because it was refused them. All is amicably settled now."

"Lieutenant Buchanan, of Camp Douglas, being apprised of all the facts, being present at the interview, expressed his surprise that such a small affair could raise such an excitement, especially as the Indians are particularly anxious to go to farming like white folks. A great deal of the talk in relation to this affair has been caused apparently by a morbid desire for excitement, and I would say to all such parties that they can quiet their nerves, for their apparent anticipations will not be realized if a shadow of honorable treatment is observed towards said Indians."

The parties that were living upon their farm have been removed, and there is no doubt that the conduct of the Indians hereafter will show that there was no ground to justify any person to publish inflammatory letters on this subject.

"B. P. AMASA TUCKER."

No Mails.—There will be no eastern mail in this city this evening.

Theatre.—The temple of the drama will be open on Saturday night, when it is expected a highly attractive programme will be presented.

Got the Spells.—Everybody is getting the spells now, many of them bad spells, and some of them very bad spells, though not necessarily fatal; in fact there is quite a spell of spells.

Mixed Trains Discontinued.—The Utah Central announced that on and after April 22 (to-morrow) the mixed train from Ogden at 5 a. m. and that from Salt Lake City at 5.05 p. m. will be discontinued for the present.

Information Wanted of the whereabouts of William Richardson, who emigrated September 2d, 1874, from the Glasgow (Scotland) branch of the Glasgow Conference. Please address, Robert Bullock, Cedar City, Iron Co., Utah.

Not Coal.—We understand that the supposed vein of coal struck by the men who were constructing the Utah Western Railroad proves, on examination, not to be carboniferous material, but a mixture in which plumbago and a form of arsenic appear.

Another.—The store of Mr. Eardley, opposite the residence of Bishop Thomas Jenkins, was burglariously entered by thieves last night, but, with the exception of some small change, nothing of any particular value was stolen.

Still Alive.—William Geehr, the proprietor of the Antelope restaurant, who stabbed himself in the abdomen yesterday morning, was still living this afternoon, but, expected to survive past midnight. There were indications that inflammation had set in.

Amateur Theatricals.—To-morrow evening a company of amateur performers will give a theatrical entertainment, the pieces to be played being "Decoyed, or, the Robber's Doom," and "Pinkerfield." The performance will be given at the Nineteenth Ward Literary Institution.

Broken Into.—Some time during last night the store of Mr. Carrington, on the State Road, 8th Ward, was broken into by thieves, who carried away fifteen pairs of socks, a couple of woollen shirts, some canned fruit, and a box of cigars. The burglars gained ingress by breaking a panel out of the door.

The Break on the U. P.—By private telegram, we learn, that a passenger train will leave Ogden for the east this evening, and one from the east will arrive to-morrow, but it is not expected that through trains will run yet for ten days, but the company will transfer passengers, mail, baggage and express by teams.

Burglary.—Last night the saloon of Mr. Philip Margrett on Kimball Block, was broken into by burglars, who got away with $13.50 in small change, and a bottle of wine. The thieves obtained an entrance at the rear of the premises. We understand a light was seen in the saloon in the night and three men issued from the alley way near by.

Hurt His Foot.—Yesterday L. E. Stannard, of Fairview, had his foot seriously hurt on the Utah Western Railroad. He was on a hand car, running behind a train, which was also travelling, when the train stopped and the man put his foot out to one of the bump of the train. He underestimated the force, and now has a sore foot.

An Excellent Improvement.—The water ditch along the east side of the Temple wall, East Temple street, is being made semi-circular and lined in the bottom with cobble laid in mortar, with cut rock laid along the edges. When completed the length of the ditch there will be 1250 feet of rock work in it. The work is being done by the Church hands. It is a most excellent improvement and will greatly enhance the appearance of the locality.

Passing Time.—William Town, aged 75 years, who resides in Taylor's Building, South Temple Block, showed us to-day some samples of woollen and cotton stockings and socks, which he manufactures himself, with a lamb knitter. He sells them either at wholesale or retail, they are of good quality and cheap. This aged gentleman takes this method of making a honest living, and those who patronize him will not only get a good article, but will have the gratification of doing a worthy action.

Complimentary Benefit to John T. Caine, Esq.—It is intended to give a grand complimentary benefit to John T. Caine, Esq., on Saturday evening at the Theatre.

When the proposition was mooted, all persons in the city connected with the dramatic profession went forward to volunteer their services, in which able artists and musicians joined spontaneously, amateurs of the city and of Camp Douglas likewise as a tribute of respect and esteem to one who has been long intimately and affectionately connected with the Theatre in this City, both as actor and manager.

A full and varied programme is expected, in the course of which the benefactor will appear in one or more of his old and popular characters, as well as the entire theatrical company, and others.

Mr. Caine has been connected with the Theatre almost continuously from its opening until the present, either as actor, lessee, manager, or proprietor, one or more, so that his name has come to be more intimately associated with the theatrical history of Salt Lake than that of any other man. In all these relations he is regarded as having conducted himself with high sense of courtesy and honor, and to have labored with diligence, intelligence, and energy to maintain matters theatrical upon an elevated plane, and to present to the public amusements of an acceptable character in a house and with appointments that would do credit to a city containing many times the number of inhabitants and the wealth that this does.

On this appropriate and auspicious occasion, a most enjoyable entertainment and a house crowded beyond recent experience it is not too much to say may be safely considered assured.

City Council.—The regular meeting was held last night, Mayor Wells presiding.

Mrs. Saunders was granted the privilege of erecting a flower stand over the water seat, in front of her premises, First South Street.

The committee on streets and alleys reported favorably on the petition of John Spence and others, asking that Fourth South Street, between Tenth and Eleventh East Streets, be repaved; report adopted and superior instructed accordingly.

The finance committee reported that they had examined the auditor's last quarterly report and found it correct; adopted.
