In the Third ward meeting h Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights there will be conducted a series f entertainments that will be both ters now residing in Canada.' amusing and instructive. There will e a change of program every evening and the best talent in the ward will be employed for each occasion. On Wednesday evening the principal feature will be "The Spinsters' Convention," in which thirteen of the winsome young ladies of the ward will take part. It is said this will be one of the most amusing things ever seen in a ward entertainment. After the convention there will be a series of tableaux under the caption of "Mr. and Mrs. Newly-wed's New French Cook." On Thursday evening the features will be Mrs. Jarley's far famed wax works, together with other interesting events. On Fri-day night "The Spinsters' Convention" and the tableaux will be repeated. Granite Stake Amusement company gave a concert last night in East Mill Creek meeting house to a large and ap-preciative audience. Tonight they appear in Big Cottonwood.
