NEWS OF THE WEST.

Two Brothers Lose Their Sight Through Dynamite Caps.

A PASTOR'S HOUSE BURGLARIZED.

A Seventeen-year-old Boy Joins His Father and Elopes With a Young Miss.

A farmer named Fullerton, whose place is southwest of St. Helena, on Napa river, Cal., left a number of dead and Friday's Rock. The origin unknown, with its contents, was swept away and not a number is left there.

While Rev. J. F. Harris, pastor of the First M. E. church, was busily were attending services in Grass City, Cal., on Monday evening, thieves broke into their residence and took all the silverware and other valuable articles, assembling to several hundred dollars.

Yesterday Farrell Murphy was instantly killed at Jennings, Nevada, by a Southern Pacific freight train while attempting to cross the track in front of the engine. He had made up a Pacific express train and stepped out on the end of a crosswalk in front of the engine just as the train was passing. He slipped, fell under the train and was run to pieces. He leaves a wife and four children.

A Goldfield correspondent writes from Nevada under date January 7th, says: A young man named Ray Bernard was accidentally shot in the head by his father yesterday. They were going home hunting, when the accident struck the young man in the brain. The wound is fatal, and will prove fatal.

The effects of the anti-treaty movement in sacramento are, it is said, already being felt in San Francisco. The banks and bankers are coming to town from Sacramento and the county outside where they have been badly mauled. The people who have determined to "pay no" all mortgages characterized.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in California of the Sierra Nevada Railway company. The purpose of the organization is to purchase, build and maintain a railroad, standard or narrow gauge, not less than 100 miles, by means of a right of way, to the county of Washoe, Nevada, and in the counties of Sierra, Lassen and Plumas, California.

The Boise (Idaho) Statesman says: The newly erected county offices were installed yesterday. There was some dispute as to whether the old board of commissioners should pass upon the bonds of the members of the new board or whether the latter should act in their own behalf. When the old board adjourned yesterday nothing to new there had possession. Then settled the matter.

Daily (Idaho) News. The workers in Logan and Alturas counties are pleased at the announcement that a flouring mill is to be constructed and operated in this city. It will probably be fitted with both water and steam power, in order to run uninterruptedly, or to be enabled to be so run, summer and winter. The mill will be ready to start up the 1st of August next.

E. C. Buell, a telegraph operator, 19 years of age, attempted to commit suicide on Monday evening in San Francisco. He went into Mint avenue late at night and shot himself in the right side of the head. The bullet did not enter the brain, and the young man will recover. He could not secure work, and being penniless he thought it was better to end his life.

An unknown crab fisherman was drowned off the rocks at Fort Point, Cal., on Monday afternoon. He had been fishing but beyond the surf, and started to come back when the breakers did not and left him drifting with the tide. He then started his way in, but the tide set him back toward the ocean. Jumping out of the water in attempts to shove his boat off, but his foot slipped and he fell into the water.

Benjamin Mendoza, son of a San Francisco baker, was arrested on Tuesday, for assault against the complaint of his father. Although the lad is only seventeen years old he has led a wild life and the latest escapade cost him. A short time ago the father gave his son a set of tools to collect. The boy was put there in gathering in the money, but instead of giving it to his father he eloped with a young miss, who a week later was found in a common lodging-house.

James and Edward Lipp, brothers, aged 19 and 17 years respectively, precipitated a pitched fight when they were taken to the Home for Adult Blind in Oakland, Cal., on Monday afternoon. The brothers are residents of Mountain Hill, Calaveras county. They were prospectors and hoped for fortune. The boys were walking along the railway one day, when they came across a signal-oil can. James picked the tin up and took the lid off to examine the contents. He could not tell what it contained, and asked his brother Edward, who was pulling away on a cigarette, looked over his shoulder. A spark from the cigarette dropped into the can and the fumes that were within took fire. The explosion was an explosion and the brothers were thrown into the air. The tinsmithing tank contained dynamite caps. The brothers were rendered unconscious by the shock and both lost their sight. James also lost his left hand, which was blown to pieces. The parents of the boys are poor, and as they have no means, they are forced to apply to the state for care and shelter.

A Great Almanac.

A most elaborate and accurate almanac for 1895 has been issued by the Rock Island railroad system. The book contains a vast amount of useful information, and is a credit to the publishers. It is for sale at all ticket offices of the system, and will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in stamps. Address John Sebastian, general passenger agent, Chicago. The publication is one that should be in the hands of every business man, and will be found a valuable aid in the office or home.

An Infallible Sign.

A man does not always know when he is to be married. The prominent ones are sometimes.

"Now how am I to know when?" said the groom's sister. "It is always so with me. I never know when."—Detroit Free Press.

The Conditions Different.

Husband (with newspaper)—What do we know about Lawrence Livermore—a total stranger, to whom you propose to entrust the whole happiness of your life?

Wife—No, it wasn't. Before we were married you held my hands so I couldn't get away and kept on me so long that I couldn't help.—New York Weekly.
