LOCAL OPTION BILL IN SENATE

Solons of the Gem State Wrestling With Numerous Weighty Measures.

ANTI-PASS BILL IS KILLED

No New Counties Will Be Provided For During the Present Session Of the Legislature.

Special Correspondence.

BOISE, Ida., Feb. 11.—The trend in the Idaho legislature during the week thus far passed is decidedly in the direction of the fulfillment of party pledges and considerable progress is being made toward that end.

POWER COUNTY LOST

The creation of Power county out of parts of Oneida, Bannock, Blaine and Blaine counties, proposed in an introduced by Philbrick of American Falls, which looked so favorable a week ago, is now shrouded in the heavy mists of defeat.

THOMPSON MINERAL LEASE

No action has yet been taken by the state land board in regard to the proposed lease to G. W. Thompson of Lewiston, Idaho, of 8,000 acres of mineral lands in Nez Perce county for a period of 50 years.

AMENDMENTS INVALID

Both constitutional amendments understood to have been adopted by the electors of the state last November are held to be of no force or effect in an opinion handed down by the supreme court yesterday.

MACBETH LIQUOR MEASURE

The Macbeth liquor bill recommended for passage by the senate committee of the whole and passed by that body on Tuesday, prohibiting any wholesale liquor firm controlling more than one retail liquor license and having any connection in any way with more than one license, is believed to be operative.

ANTI-PASS LAW KILLED

The anti-pass bill which was introduced over two weeks ago, after floating through the house of representatives for about 19 days, without any sponsor, was killed by the same body which gave it birth, and it is believed that for it there is no awakening again as far as the present session is concerned.

COURT YESTERDAY

The court yesterday, one amendment provided for the abolition of probate courts and the redistricting of the state for judicial purposes. The other authorized the employment of clerical assistants to county assessors by boards of commissioners.
