

The work has been a busy one with the social affairs, including wedding, teas, luncheons and dinners with a large number of theater parties and smaller affairs. Perhaps the largest affair was the tea given at the studio of Mr. Will. Claxson on Tuesday, at which Mrs. H. M. Wells was hostess with a half dozen friends assisting. The room was brought with roses, chrysanthemums and dahlias, but the chief attraction was the exhibit of Mr. Claxson's paintings, which include female nudes, scenes, portraits of well known Salt Lake. About 100 guests enjoyed the treat provided them in the delightful affair.

Mrs. Arthur Bird was hostess at an elaborate dinner on Tuesday in honor of her sister, Miss Genevieve McCornick and Walker Samsbury, the decorations being in pink chrysanthemums and covers laid for 24 guests.

The Regimental Bridge club held its first meeting of the season at the post hall on Tuesday night, eight tables being played. The decorations were in chrysanthemums and autumn leaves and those in charge were Maj. and Mrs. A. H. Samsbury, Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin Samsbury, Lieut. and Mrs. E. Adams and Lieut. G. O. Ellis.

Mrs. C. A. Wherry entertained at a Halloween party on Wednesday, the room being decorated in the most elaborate and artistic manner, the decorations being in yellow and white chrysanthemums and covers laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. F. E. Marcy Miss Anna Timman have been hostesses at two delightful bridge teas on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday respectively, the rooms being beautifully decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums and other pretty details, and about eight tables played at each party. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mrs. George Putnam, Miss O'Meara, Mrs. Hosmer, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. Ralph Hill and Mrs. C. M. Bell. Mrs. John Delano, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. John Delano, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. Ralph Hill and Mrs. C. M. Bell.

Miss Daisy Raybould was hostess on Wednesday and Thursday at delightful bridge teas, the decorations being in chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, and about seven tables being played at each party. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mrs. George Putnam, Miss O'Meara, Mrs. Hosmer, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. Ralph Hill and Mrs. C. M. Bell.

Mrs. S. H. Black entertained her club on Thursday, the decorations being in yellow chrysanthemums, nasturtiums and Halloween emblems. The prizes were won by Mrs. H. W. Hill and Mrs. George R. Raybould.

Committees are busy arranging for the St. Mark's annual charity ball to be given on Dec. 3, 10, 11 and 12, in charge being Executive committee—Mrs. W. C. Jennings, Mrs. William McGrath, Mrs. M. M. Johnson, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. F. E. Basson, Mrs. W. V. Rice and Miss Howard. The supper committee—Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Mrs. Samuel Paul, Mrs. J. E. Gallagher, Mrs. Alice Hall, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. C. R. Paulsen and Miss Howard. Decorations committee—Mrs. E. M. Allison, Jr., Mrs. B. G. Schuler, Mrs. W. P. Kiser and Miss Minnie Hueb. Punch committee—Mrs. M. M. West, Program committee—Mrs. H. L. Tracy and Mrs. T. B. Beatty. Publishing committee—Mrs. Don R. Gray and Mrs. A. J. Gordon. Tickets—Mrs. J. A. Reeves and Mrs. Warren Bonar. Miss Lora Hague will have charge of selling the tickets for the ball. There will be a meeting of the association Wednesday, Nov. 2.

Mrs. W. P. Kiser will entertain at a Halloween party this evening in honor of her son, Miss Isabel Carpenter, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. and Mrs. E. T. Harvey entertained on Tuesday evening in celebration of Mr. Harvey's birthday, the room being decorated in autumn leaves and flowers and four tables played.

Mrs. W. C. Alexander entertained at a bridge tea on Monday, at the Country Club, the decorations being in chrysanthemums and autumn leaves and Miss Mayne Noble and Miss Ethel Mount assisting.

A delightful reception was held at the Ladies' Library club on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Philip N. Moore, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

eration of Women's clubs, the decorations being in the national flag and chrysanthemums and a number of prominent club women assisting at the tea table. A delightful musical program preceded the social affair, given under the direction of the music society of the club, the numbers being given by Mrs. Charles Dalley, Mrs. C. Snyder, Mrs. Jack Keith, Mrs. W. A. Wetzel, Mrs. W. Adams, Mrs. W. G. Tuttle, Mrs. David Arnold, Mrs. P. N. Cook and Miss Miller.

Mrs. Fred W. Meakin was among the women's business, entertaining her card club at a Halloween party, with all details done in the prevailing idea. The dining room was especially attractive, the table having a Jack-o'-lantern centerpiece from which extended yellow streamers to the place of each guest, and fastened with flowers. Four tables were played and prizes won by H. H. Samsbury and Mrs. J. A. Spiker. Pink and white decorations were used with the yellow and a musical program was given by Mrs. Margaret Davall and Miss Lucille Hill.

Invitations have been issued for a Halloween party tonight at the home of Miss Etta O'Quinn in north Second West street, with Miss Mabel Spencer and Miss Gundry as hostesses.

An old fashioned ball will be given at Social hall on the evening of Friday, Nov. 5, in honor of the Nautilus club, the evening to be given under the auspices of the historical section of the Geographical society. The musical committee with George D. Pyper as chairman is preparing a program which promises many interesting features.

A delightful children's party was given at the post on Wednesday by Mrs. Walter Scott and Mrs. Willis Utine, in honor of the birthday anniversary of their little daughter. All were in rhinoceros and pillow cases, and dancing was enjoyed followed by Halloween games, and a dinner at which emblems of Halloween were everywhere.

Mrs. George Hancock was hostess at a delightful luncheon on Wednesday given in honor of her guest Mrs. Philip N. Moore, the table being decorated in which chrysanthemums and covers laid for about a dozen prominent club women besides the guest of honor.

Miss Louisa Claxson entertained at a party on Wednesday at the studio of her father, Mr. Will Claxson, which was bright with autumn flowers, the guest of honor being Miss Veda Beebe, and a half dozen girl friends assisting. Many delightful features were enjoyed throughout the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard entertained at a dinner on Thursday night in honor of their niece Miss Joy De Camp, the dining room being decorated in white and yellow, and the parlor in yellow and white chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for a dozen.

Mrs. Preston G. Hampton entertained at a party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of sister and niece, Mrs. Hamlin and Miss Plant, both of California, the prizes going to Mrs. A. C. Ewing and Mrs. Gordon Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Arnold entertained at a dinner at their home on Wednesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mewer, the room being decorated with a profusion of asters, chrysanthemums and carnations and covers laid for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hamberger entertained at a dinner at the Alta club on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Genevieve McCornick and Walker Samsbury, the table having a handsome floral centerpiece and the guests numbering about a dozen.

Mrs. L. C. Miller entertained at a tea on Monday, the room being beautifully decorated with autumn flowers, and an orchestra furnishing delightful music during the afternoon. About 100 guests called during the hours, and a half dozen prizes were won in the drawing.

Mrs. Clark Elliott was hostess at dinner at the Wilton on Monday in honor of Mrs. Harriet L. Leavenworth Ramsdell, the decorations being in yellow chrysanthemums and covers laid for a half dozen.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer, Jr., entertained in honor of Miss Veda Beebe on Monday, the parlor being in red room and ferns, and the dining room in yellow chrysanthemums. About 40 were present.

Chauncey P. Overfield entertained at a dinner at the Alta club on Monday, the table being handsomely decorated and covers laid for Mr. Spry, Capt. G. I. Hittelman, James Hogle, Leonard Wilson, H. W. Shearman, J. A. McCaskell, P. B. Stephens, D. G. Jackson, J. H. Penabaz, G. A. Keyser and R. G. Schuler.

A delightful affair of the week was the reception held by the Daughters of Utah Pioneers at the residence of Mrs. M. L. Duggan on Monday, the room being bright with national flag, and a large number of guests were present to enjoy the pleasant event.

Miss Veda Beebe was guest of honor yesterday afternoon at a Kensington given by Miss Berta Young, the room being decorated in autumn leaves and ferns and about 40 being entertained. A feature of the afternoon was a guess.

ing contest with prizes awarded the winners.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

Mrs. J. C. Cutler, Jr., was hostess yesterday afternoon at a card party, the decorations, tables and nearly all details carrying out the Halloween idea. The room was darkened, and it with Jack-o'-lanterns, the table cards being also in this design. The ice cream was served in pumpkin shells and the salad in orange, with other details of the Halloween theme. The idea of mingling with the Halloween emblems were autumn leaves and cosmos, the dining room being especially pretty with its centerpiece of cosmos. Assisting the hostess were the Misses Jennie Ottlinger, Mabel Lambourn, Virginia Shannon and Daphne Bateman and about 50 were present.

Mrs. Charles Gillette entertained yesterday afternoon at a luncheon at the University club, the table being beautifully decorated in Chateau roses with a large basket of them for a centerpiece. The guests were Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, Mrs. F. E. McQuinn, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Willis Utine, Mrs. R. A. Keres, Mrs. D. R. Gray, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. A. Bay and Miss Marge Miller.

Mrs. Philip N. Moore president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. R. Hancock during her short stay.

ranged here and older and daughters served. About 60 were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caine and Miss Pearl Van Coot entertained at a reception last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Chapin, who were married recently in Los Angeles at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunbar. The room was beautifully decorated in pink and white cosmos and American Beauty roses, and about 100 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left today for their home in Boston.

The Women's Republican club will meet next Monday, Nov. 1 at the home of Mrs. J. N. Melton, 947 Seventh East street. Mrs. Melton will be assisted by Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Eshen as hostesses and the program will have the topic "Our Greatest President," with an open parliament led by Mrs. J. H. Davis. A full attendance is desired.

A jolly Halloween party was that given by Mr. Richardson in honor of the members of the Chateau club and their young lady friends. Among those present were the Misses Kate White, Laura Loveland, Evans, Cummings, Clawson, Smith, King, Woodruff, Clark and Short and Messrs. Tomlinson, Gilchrist, Santschi, Evans, Kimball, Williams, Cannon, Jennings, Earl and Richardson. A pumpkin carving game was one of the many unique features of the evening.

Mr. Gibbs left Sunday for Middleton, Vt., after spending a few days here with S. D. Evans.

Mrs. J. W. Delano has returned from an extended trip in the Pacific northwest.

Mrs. S. D. Evans and Miss Evans will be home the last of the week after a month spent in Los Angeles, Cal.

Miss Winifred Brice returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit with her aunt in Los Angeles.

Miss Edith Shearman returned Wednesday from a visit of several weeks in Portland and other coast points.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Midgley, who have been visiting in Ocean Park, Cal., for the last six months, are again at home and Mrs. Midgley is much improved in health.

Mrs. W. D. Leonard of Garfield, left yesterday for Shreveport, La., where she will visit until after the holidays. She was accompanied by Miss Jessie Shreve of Shreveport, who has been her guest for several weeks.

Mrs. Glochier of Los Angeles is the guest of Mrs. H. Peale of the Bradford apartment.

Among the weddings to take place in November are those of Miss Veda Beebe and Edward Eyer, Miss Emily L. Barnes and T. E. Beard, Miss Bertha Edwards and Walter J. Slater, Miss Zella E. Gurley and Carl N. Stevenson.

An elaborate wedding of the week was that of Miss Lora Morrison and Chauncey P. Overfield, the ceremony being performed at St. Mark's cathedral by Bishop Brewster. Mrs. Russell J. Schuler, Mrs. Jasper McCaskell and Dr. George D. Keyser acting as matrons of honor and the Misses Carrie Sappington and Edna Dunn as bridesmaids. Mr. Gordon Hutchins was best man and the following acted as ushers: H. W. Shearman, Leonard Wilson, Warner Morrison and James Hogle. Mr. and Mrs. Overfield have gone on a European trip to last several months.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Nellie Winard and V. A. Bettlyon which took place on Wednesday at 10 a. m. with Stake President R. W. Young officiating, and a wedding breakfast following. The room was bright with chrysanthemums and cosmos and the family and intimate friends were present. The bride wore a gown of white lace with face trimmings and carried white roses. Her going away gown was of olive green broadcloth and her hat and gloves were in the same shade. Mr. and Mrs. Bettlyon have gone to Denver for a short stay, and on their return will be at home at the Covey flats. The groom is manager of the Halloran-Judge Agency.

Miss Mary T. Homer and H. E. McLain were among the week's bridal couples, the ceremony being performed on Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hamilton, with Rev. P. A. Simpson officiating in the presence of the near relatives and friends. The bride wore a handsome traveling gown of gray broadcloth and carried white roses. The room was brightly decorated in white and red. Mr. and Mrs. McLain have gone for a trip to the coast, and will later be at home to their friends at Backhorn City, Nev.

Miss Ethel Ogden of Spokane, Wash., who is visiting Miss Edna Parneworth, will leave Sunday for the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Best and children left this week for New York from which place they will sail early in November for Berlin.

Mrs. F. W. Hanson and daughter, the Misses Gertrude and Irene, will leave next week for Oakland, Cal., where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Hanson's sons will join them there later.

Mrs. S. C. Baldwin has returned from an extended visit in California and will, it is said, Mrs. Baldwin are now at home in the Miller flats.

Mrs. Ellen Elliott, who has spent the summer in Los Angeles and at the beach in California, will be home today.

Dr. W. G. R. Terrell and his mother, Mrs. Terrell, have as their guest Mrs. Myron Westover of Los Angeles, Cal.

Dr. and Mrs. Philo E. Jones are now at home at 1244 1/2 North South street.

Miss Lorine Leary, who has been visiting in Tacoma and Seattle, Wash., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. King in Portland, Or.

Mrs. Harriet R. Lacey, who has spent the past three months in the Pacific Northwest, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hodge.

Mrs. and Mrs. Glen Miller have returned from San Francisco, where they have spent the last six months. They will be established in their home in the new flats at First avenue and T street.

Mrs. W. C. Palmer who has spent the last month in Los Angeles, will be home today.

Mrs. J. J. Stewart, left Monday for her home in Springfield, Ohio.

Mrs. Ira H. Lewis and her mother, Mrs. Smith, have returned from two months spent in Long Beach and Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Hazel Hodge has left several weeks ago to continue her school study abroad, is now studying with Jean De Rozier in Paris, France.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Porter expect to leave the last of November for Stockton, Cal.

THE TRICORNE IS PARTICULARLY FASHIONABLE.

Dozens of the dainty little tricorne—continental or Napoleonic—as they are variously called, are seen at every opening of millinery. The tricorne is becoming to almost everybody, but the higher the trim the more trying the shape, as a rule. This model is of white beaver faced with black more silk, two ostrich tufts forming the trimming. The ostrich feathers are of the sort termed "clipped ostrich"—much more fashionable now than the willow plumes which have had a long vogue. The brim is caught back with a buckle ornament made of silver cord.

left yesterday for Denver and thence to her home. Mrs. Moore was guest of honor Thursday at an informal luncheon given by Mrs. E. Allen at the University club, and in the afternoon at a reception given at the Ladies' Literary club house by the club women of the city.

Mrs. Carl G. Williams gave an Orpheum party Thursday for Miss Veda Beebe, followed by a luncheon at her home. The decorations being prettily carried out in green, with a lace spread over green satin, and green shaded candles at each end. A hanging basket of ferns hung above the table, and streamers of ribbon extended from the chandelier to the four corners. The place cards were done in chive leaf design and covers laid for Mrs. Joel Nibsey, Mrs. Joseph Nibsey, Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Miss S. B. Clawson, Miss Elsie Yates, Miss Burdette Clawson, Miss Anna Williams, Miss Sybilla Clayton, Miss Margaret Werner, Miss Margaret Cummings and the Misses Rhea and Alice Nibsey.

Invitations have been issued by the B. F. G. club for a Halloween party on Saturday night at Whitney hall, the invitation card having a Jack-o'-lantern done in gold as an emblem.

Mrs. H. A. White was the hostess at a charming Halloween party, given at her home on Seventh South street, where she entertained 20 little guests in compliment to the eleventh birthday anniversary of her son and daughter, Morgan and Leah. Jack-o'-lanterns, which formed the chief decorations, were arranged in pretty effect throughout the room. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in Halloween festivities. Mrs. White was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Miss Ursula White and Miss Anna Elliott.

On Tuesday evening at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Louise Coulson, Miss Harriet O'Neill the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. O'Neill, gave a most delightful birthday party. The house was decorated in pink and white, cosmos and chrysanthemums, and a picture with the 23 little presents. The invitations were written in rhyme and read as follows:

Miss ———
The autumn tints are bright and sober,
My birthday comes the 10th of October,
I will be 2 years old that day,
And request your company for fun and play.
You will have a good time with goodies galore,
From the time you come, till you leave the door.
I live at 361 J street,
And wish all my little friends to meet.
From 4 to 7 o'clock.

Those present were Florence Alford, Francis Allen, Maria Butler, Margaret Butler, Lavina Butler, Lyle Richardson, Mary Higgins, David Kenner, Leone Kenner, Violet Kenner, Clara Smith, Stella Smith, Ruth O'Hagan, Rada Harris, Margaret Shannon, Ruth Harris, Leone Moore, Gladys Hilton Vera Jackson, Jessie White, Vivian Reed. Three prizes, china mugs, were given. Ruth O'Hagan being the winner of the black doll from among the 24 white dolls, hidden in the birthday cake. Hazel Kenner won the large, fine, pink and white china mug. Margaret Shannon won the third prize, finding the most beautiful hidden treasure in the house. Each one was given a little china mug as a souvenir. All left happy and delighted.

Thursday night Miss Lillian Hiler and Miss Evelyn Clark were hostesses at a Halloween party, the guests going in street and pillowcases array, and a treasure hunt trip to the Anderson tower which was with Jack-o'-lanterns and decorated with cornucopias, while a fortune-telling booth was arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wehley announce the engagement of their daughter Ethel L. to Richard George Pavia late of Walsall, England, the marriage to take place in November.

Among the weddings to take place in November are those of Miss Veda Beebe and Edward Eyer, Miss Emily L. Barnes and T. E. Beard, Miss Bertha Edwards and Walter J. Slater, Miss Zella E. Gurley and Carl N. Stevenson.

An elaborate wedding of the week was that of Miss Lora Morrison and Chauncey P. Overfield, the ceremony being performed at St. Mark's cathedral by Bishop Brewster. Mrs. Russell J. Schuler, Mrs. Jasper McCaskell and Dr. George D. Keyser acting as matrons of honor and the Misses Carrie Sappington and Edna Dunn as bridesmaids. Mr. Gordon Hutchins was best man and the following acted as ushers: H. W. Shearman, Leonard Wilson, Warner Morrison and James Hogle. Mr. and Mrs. Overfield have gone on a European trip to last several months.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Nellie Winard and V. A. Bettlyon which took place on Wednesday at 10 a. m. with Stake President R. W. Young officiating, and a wedding breakfast following. The room was bright with chrysanthemums and cosmos and the family and intimate friends were present. The bride wore a gown of white lace with face trimmings and carried white roses. Her going away gown was of olive green broadcloth and her hat and gloves were in the same shade. Mr. and Mrs. Bettlyon have gone to Denver for a short stay, and on their return will be at home at the Covey flats. The groom is manager of the Halloran-Judge Agency.

Miss Mary T. Homer and H. E. McLain were among the week's bridal couples, the ceremony being performed on Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hamilton, with Rev. P. A. Simpson officiating in the presence of the near relatives and friends. The bride wore a handsome traveling gown of gray broadcloth and carried white roses. The room was brightly decorated in white and