

CROWDS RUSH TO SEE THE BIG MILL

Sporting Men Hurrying to San Francisco on Special Trains.

JEFF TWO TO ONE FAVORITE

Corbett Continues His Work and is in Bare Form for the Great Battle Tomorrow Night.

San Francisco, Aug. 12.—Sporting men from all parts of the country are dropping into town to see the big mill between Corbett and Jeffries, which comes off on Friday night. From the south the news comes that a special train of nine Pullmans will leave Los Angeles filled with men who want to see the representative of the southland match his skill against the scientist San Francisco man. Corbett has not eased off in his training as rapidly as it was expected he would do, and he still keeps up vigorous exercise in the ring, the gymnasium and the baseball field. In the early morning he has some lively turns with his sparring partners, Sam Berger and Yank Kenny to keep himself in form and those who have seen him recently say that he shows up in point of physical condition and endurance, as well as never did. Jeffries, who has now practically ended his training, is looking quieter in condition. He is in fine condition and will do just enough work from now on until the day of the fight to keep himself in condition. Jeffries will continue unchanged with Jeffries the favorite at two to one, and the betting companies are taking bets accordingly. More interest is being taken in the contest than in any other event of the kind which ever took place here. Everything is now arranged for the fight and it is estimated that fully $50,000 will be taken in at the gate.

CORBETT'S AMBITION.

Jeffries, accompanied by his brother Jack, Billy Delaney and Joe Kennedy are now quartered at the rooms of the Reliance (124 in Oakland, where they will remain until Friday evening. Jeffries signified his last day at the springs by showing a two-year-old buck. This he considered an omen of good luck. Last night he was in the gymnasium until 10 o'clock. His work consisted of boxing in rounds with his brother Jack and Joe Kennedy, skipping the rope 120 times and finishing with a close dance. Then he had a run down and retired, sleeping nine solid hours. When he awoke today he felt as well that he went on the road. Tomorrow he will have a "warm up" and on Friday he will rest the entire day.

"I'd rather beat Jeffries than be the czar of Russia," said Corbett today when told that Billy Delaney said that the czar of Russia had not money enough to make Jeffries the czar. Then Corbett added: "It's the sole ambition of my life to regain the championship, and if it's in my bones then I am going to win. If I lose then it's not in me, that is all there is about it."

All the hard work is now over at the Corbett camp. The ex-champion punched the light bag for a few rounds this morning and then did some sparring with Sam Berger and Yank Kenny. His exercise this afternoon consisted of walking and running.

The advance sale of seats for the contest indicates a "hot" house. An important side issue of the big fight will be the contest between Harry Forbes and Frank Neil for the lariat weight championship Thursday night. Both men claim they will enter the ring at 115 pounds. The betting is 6 to 10 in favor of Forbes.

SALT LAKE LOSS.

Dowling of Butte Had but Little Trouble to Win.

The locals had another off day in the contest with the miners at Walker's yesterday afternoon. Of course only a few local amateurs are rash enough to expect the home to win two games in succession, but none of them expected to see Dowling win as they did yesterday. Dowling, the Butte twister, had everything his own way from beginning to end. He had the locals at his mercy all the time and furthermore, he was given the kind of support that wins big games. The crowd was in the box for Salt Lake, but neither was effective. That the home crowd was not shut out is little short of remarkable. The result was a 12 to 10 win for Dowling, but even that did not compensate for the ragged feeling of the crowd and the fact that Dowling had won 13 safe hits, netting Butte 11 tallies. The same teams play again this afternoon. The summary of the doings follows:

CHAMPION JEFFRIES.

Who Says He will Still be Champion After Friday Night.

His ability to stand terrible punishment and to strike a crushing blow has unquestionably made Jim Jeffries champion of the world. There are any number of fighters who can make him look like a novice so far as speed and science are concerned, when it comes to the fighting end of the business, the real work, he is in a class all by himself. Both Fitzsimmons and Corbett were able to hit him, where and how they pleased, but the blows never placed him in danger of losing his title. It is announced that he will enter the ring weighing 220 pounds, but those on the inside have admitted that he will be inside have admitted that he will be 10 or 12 pounds heavier. Jeffries was

EX-CHAMPION CORBETT.

Who Declares He will Regain Title He Wrested from Sullivan.

Above is the latest picture of Jim Corbett, the man who has been training systematically for the past 19 months to get himself in proper condition to fight the great giant Jeffries for the championship of the world, and regain the title he wrested from Sullivan and which he surrendered to Fitzsimmons. Those who are personally acquainted with Corbett will readily see by the picture that he is larger and better muscled than ever before. He claims to have increased in weight and hitting powers and declares he is tougher than he ever was in his ring career. Corbett is decidedly enthusiastic over the coming battle and will not admit of a possible chance of defeat. He has repeatedly declared he would knock Jeffries out. Corbett was born Sept. 1, 1865, at San Francisco.

WHAT EXPERTS SAY.

The following opinions of the experts on the Jeffries-Corbett fight are given by the leading sportsmen of the city. As to who will be the winner in the coming heavyweight championship battle between Jim Jeffries and James Corbett, the experts are divided. The majority of those who gave their opinion on the subject are for Jeffries. Eddie Burke—I think Jeffries will surely beat Corbett. I look for him to win the fight in 12 rounds. George Condit—Although Corbett is in better shape than ever, I cannot see how he is going to beat such a rugged fighter as Jeffries. Parson Davies—I am comparing both men to a great fight. I refuse to pick a winner, as both men are my friends. Jim Kennedy—With both men in such great shape, I am of the opinion they will furnish one of the best fights between big men ever fought. Pat Powers—I agree with Kennedy when he says the fight will be a great one. As Corbett is 35, he will mean a hard-fought battle. Charley White—I refuse to give an opinion as to who will win. I think Corbett will give Jeffries as good a fight as he did at Coney Island. Dan O'Rourke—Jeffries will beat Corbett as sure as I am going to eat my dinner. Sam Bernard—"Jeff" is my selection. He is too strong for Corbett. Sam Harris—Jeffries should beat Corbett in spite of the latter's great physical condition and cleverness. Paddy Sullivan—There is nothing to it. Jeffries will win like Waterloo did. Joe Vandig—Jeffries will carry my money. I think he will win in a canter.

WHAT FIGHTERS SAY.

Below will be found the opinions of the prominent fighters on the result of the Jeffries-Corbett fight. Gus Rubin—Jeffries will win. I expect Corbett to give him a hard fight. "Kid" McCoy—Corbett will be beaten again by Jeffries. The latter is too strong and also too stiff a punch for him. Tom Slarkie—Corbett is liable to beat Jeffries this time. Corbett is in such great shape that his condition will help him greatly. Peter Maher—Corbett has no chance of defeating Jeffries. Jeffries beat him before and he will do so again. George Gardner—Corbett's condition and his wonderful science will probably assist him in securing the decision on the fight. Jack Root—Jeffries will beat Corbett. I don't think Corbett is the greatest fighter he was several years ago. "Young Corbett"—I don't care about picking winners, as both men are my friends. It ought to be a slashing fight. Terry McGovern—Jeffries will win in a walk. Corbett will not be able to stand many of Jeffries' body punches. Mory Jones—I look for Corbett to secure the decision over Jeffries on points. Murrey—Jeffries ought to win, as he hits too hard for Corbett.

TRY TO HOLD UP FREIGHT TRAIN.

Result is Two Men Are Dead, One Fatally Wounded.

WERE KILLED BY ROBBERS.

Men Were Laborers—Made a Gallant But Useless Fight—It Was Rocks Against Guns.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 12.—A miner and a laborer were killed and another fatally wounded today when they attempted to hold up a freight train bound east out of here early this morning, as a result of which two men are dead and another seriously, if not fatally wounded.

An attempted hold-up occurred on an extra freight train bound east out of here early this morning, as a result of which two men are dead and another seriously, if not fatally wounded.

The train pulled out and when about four miles out three men entered the door of the car, having handkerchiefs over their faces. Two of them carried guns, one a club and a lighted candle in his hand. They began shooting as soon as they entered the car. The laborers, instead of giving up, commenced pelting them with rocks and the fight became general. McGowan and Menching, after being shot, opened the side door of the car and jumped out, followed by the other laborers. Menching later flagged the North Coast limited and gave the alarm.

The officers have captured two of the robbers.

HEAVY RAINS IN NEW MEXICO.

Silver City, N. M., Aug. 12.—Heavy rains during the past two days caused much damage to the crops. A wall of water seven feet high rushed through the residence portion of the town, flooding homes and stores and ruining their contents. In the streets debris is piled to a depth of several feet. The new dam is partially wrecked. Dozens of families are homeless and destitute. It is conservatively estimated that the loss will reach $100,000.

A CASE OF IT.

Many More Like It In Salt Lake City.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Salt Lake City. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such a conclusive evidence.

E. Mader, plumber employed at the Salt Lake Hardware Co., residence 254 West Fourth St., South, says: "Twenty-four years ago I was run over by a team and since then my back has been weak and my kidneys caused me no end of annoyance. In the following of my occupation fitting furnaces, heaters, etc., I have to stoop a great deal and most of the work necessitates strain on the muscles of the back. The doctor aggravates the cause and when in the acute stage I frequently suffer. Knowing from the irregular action of the kidney secretions that the kidneys were responsible for the annoyances led me to try remedies when the attacks were very pronounced. None of them ever brought such lasting relief as Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the P. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store. Satisfied that one box did its work thoroughly and well I purchased a second, and when I had completed it the last attack, I am sure, was over."

RETURNS OF BIG FIGHT.

Kelley Arranges Program for Friday Evening at the Grand.

Manager S. J. Kelley of the Shamrock Athletic club has completed all arrangements for the entertainment of athletic sports at the Grand theater tomorrow night, and he says he expects to have a large crowd of fight fans on hand. The principal feature of the program will be the return of the big fight at San Francisco, which will be staged by Kelley. While this is going on there will be exhibitions of wrestling and also several musical specialties. Kelley says the man who defeated McLaughlin in a hard fought match several months ago, will give an exhibition with a wrestler named J. A. Jackson. There will be a "closed match" between Leitch and Charles Huber. The latter is a new comer and has been tried out by Eugene Thompson. Thompson says he is exceptionally fast and clever, and is a comer in the wrestling game. Both men are accredited with considerable ability at the game, and those who have seen the men work say the match ought to prove a most interesting one. Mr. Kelley has secured "Toughy," a newboy who is touted as a scoundrel of considerable ability, and he will enter several selections. But the chief interest will no doubt be centered in the return of the big championship battle which will come direct from the inside.

Boost for McNichols.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer has the following boost for Frank McNichols, formerly of Salt Lake, who is playing third for Seattle: "McNichols divided the batting honors with the rest of the team, and he was taking a couple of singles and a double. The work of McNichols around third was little short of the marvelous. Three times he came in on these hits, bounding him like a jackrabbit, retiring the runners by inches with his great snap throw. While still riding at full speed, he cut Nagle off in the ninth on what would have been a hit with most third basemen, and he followed him up by stretching about 11 feet to take the throw."
