SHOCKING DEATH OF RAILROADER

W. M. Blunt Run Into by Passenger Engine at Granger and Instantly Killed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SONG SERVICE

Words, Music and Theme of Hymn to Be Learned in Weber Stake Schools—News Notes.

Ogden, Sept. 10.—Word was brought to Ogden yesterday by the train crew of Union Pacific passenger train No. 6 that at Granger yesterday the train struck and killed W. M. Blunt, a member of the railroad company's signal corps. Mr. Blunt was on the track at Granger walking along the siding when a freight train approached. As it passed him he stepped on to the main line on which passenger No. 6 was pulling into the station, but he did not see or hear the passenger train until the noise of the freight and was struck a terrific blow, causing almost instant death. He was picked up by the fellow employes and sent to Evansville where the body was prepared and shipped to Peeltoga, Cal., to his parents. The unfortunate affair was purely an accident for which no one can be blamed.

As the stake academy building where the meetings are usually held is undergoing repairs preparatory to opening school, it was necessary to divide the meeting, some of the departments assembling at the Third ward and others at the Second ward meetinghouses. A short talk was given by Asst. Supt. C. J. Ross on "The Duties of Sunday School Officers and Teachers."

The principal matter which came up for consideration and was decided upon, was that in the future one song or hymn will be selected for each month to be thoroughly learned. The first Sunday in the month seven minutes will be devoted to the developing of the thought or theme of the hymn and the circumstances under which it was composed, the remaining Sunday in the month will be devoted to memorizing the hymn and to singing it. In this way Supt. Evans says they hope to be able to give the pupils a better knowledge of the hymns, their themes, etc. Each Sunday 15 minutes will also be devoted to singing practice, thus 22 minutes of the two hours devoted to Sunday school every Sunday will be occupied in musical work. "Music is the language of the emotion," and by that much time being devoted to it every week, it is believed a wonderful work can be accomplished. The hymn selected for the ensuing month is "For the strength of the hills we bless thee." Divisions one and two, the chorists, organists and those who are to develop the song during this month, met with Prof. Ballantyne and Mrs. C. J. Ross and devoted an hour to the new work.

RICHFIELD.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT.

Republicans Elect Delegates—After Millard County Land and Water.

Special Correspondence. Richfield, Sept. 9.—The case of Mary A. Fowler vs Isaac Cubby occupied all day and also the evening in the justice's court on the 6th inst., and today a decision was rendered. The plaintiff, who is a widow, sued on four causes of action, the first and second being for the value of a horse and minor, the third being for the value of a horse which the boy traded to the defendant for a gun, and the fourth for damages to certain household goods of the plaintiff caused by the defendant's act in removing the building in which they were, the total amount claimed by plaintiff being $278.97. The defendant set up a counterclaim for rent and for the destruction of some of his property by the plaintiff, the amount asked for being $65. The case was tried without a jury and the court found the plaintiff entitled to damages in the sum of $25 and gave the defendant judgment on his counterclaim for $5. Both parties appear to be dissatisfied with the judgment, and the case will likely be appealed.

The Richfield Republicans met this evening at the court house and elected John G. Jorgensen and C. D. Heesch as delegates to the state convention to be held on the 20th.

A number of Richfield people are becoming interested in the new town of Abraham, in Millard county. The place has been settled for some time and there are a number of families residing there now. Six thousand acres of land with primary water right are being offered for sale, the land ranging in price from $2.50 to $5 per acre, on easy payments. The water right is being sold at $10 per acre, half down and the balance in one year at 6 per cent. A company, consisting of J. M. Lauritzen, Angus J. Filstrom, Ephraim Day, E. A. Bagley, John B. McMullan and Ole Dustrup will leave here Monday morning for Millard county to inspect the property.

Special Correspondence. Morgan, Sept. 9.—The Republican county committee met yesterday in Judge Heine's office and transacted the following business: Saturday, Sept. 9, was set for the county convention to elect five delegates to the state convention, and Monday, Oct. 15, was the date fixed upon to hold the regular Republican county convention to nominate county officers. Primaries will be held in the different precincts Friday evening, Oct. 12, to elect delegates to the county convention. The following is the allotment of delegates: Morgan, 9; Canyon Creek, 5; Milton, 3; Peterson, 2; and Croyle, 2, making 20 in all. The committee also passed a resolution asking the county commissioners to name the officers of clerk and recorder. The committee is of the opinion that by uniting the two offices the salary will be doubled and thus the county will be able to get a man to accept the position who is thoroughly competent to fill it.

KNIGHT INVESTMENT COMPANY

Incorporates for $100,000 With Valuable Assets—Garden City Notes.

Provo, Sept. 10.—Jesse Knight, Mrs. Amanda Knight, W. Lester Mangum, J. William Knight, Iona Knight, Inez Allen and Jacob Evans are the incorporators of the Knight Investment company, incorporated for $100,000, in shares of the par value of $1 each. Provo is named as the place of the principal office of the company.

The officers and directors are Jesse Knight, president; Amanda M. Knight, vice president; W. Lester Mangum, secretary and treasurer; J. William Knight, Inez Allen and Jacob Evans.

The object of the incorporation is to carry on and conduct the business of mining, smelting, milling, general stocks and bonds, buying and selling stocks and bonds, and in general, engaging in and carrying on any kind of business whether above named or not which may be lawfully carried on and transacted by a person or corporation.

The capital stock is based on the valuation of the following property: 100,000 shares of the capital stock of the Beck Tunnel Consolidated Mining company, 100,000 shares of the capital stock of the Colorado Mining company, 100,000 shares of the capital stock of the Great Western Gold & Copper Mining company, and many other mining properties in this state and Nevada, owned either all or in part by the corporation, a description of which covers over a page and a half of typewritten legal cap paper, and, as if for good measure, the list closes with the valuable real estate property in this city on which Mr. Knight's new home stands.

As this is probably worth in the neighborhood of $40,000 there cannot be any reasonable ground for a charge that this corporation is over-capitalized.

DEMISE OF CHAS. O. CARD.

Pioneer Closes Brilliant and Honored Career at 67.

Special Correspondence. Logan, Cache Co., Sept. 9.—In the death of Charles O. Card, which occurred after a long illness, at 1:30 this morning, this city loses one of its most esteemed pioneers, and the founder of many of its early industries, and the Church loses a staunch supporter and indefatigable worker.

Charles O. Card was born Nov. 5, 1839, in Oslon township, Allegany county, N. Y. In 1843 his parents embraced Mormonism and on April 12, 1856, he himself joined its ranks, coming to Utah the same year. He lived a short time in Farmington, Davis county, and in 1857 went to Logan to pioneer the way for his father's family, who followed the next spring. For four years he acted as one of Col. Thomas E. Ricks' minute men, who guarded the settlers from the predations of the Indians. For 15 months he attended school in Ogden, in Cache valley he took an active part in Church affairs, being closely identified with the early Sunday school work especially. In the winter of 1871 he filled a mission in the Eastern States. He acted as counselor to President William B. Preston from 1879 to 1884, when he was made president of Cache stake, which position he filled until 1890. During this time he superintended the construction of the Logan tabernacle and temple. He was also engaged in a number of business enterprises; was one of the founders of the first saw and flour mills of Cache, also of the United Order Manufacturing & Building company. In 1887 he founded the Mormon colonies in Canada, and remained at the head of affairs there until three years ago, when, on account of failing health, he was honorably released and he came to Logan, the scene of his early activities, to close his days.

He is survived by his wife and 13 children, also six grandchildren. That opportunity may be given some of his children who are absent in Oregon and Canada to be present, the funeral will not be held till Friday at 2 o'clock, in the Logan tabernacle.

WILFORD.

Demise of Mrs. Elijah Allen, the Mother of 13 Children.

Special Correspondence. Wilford, Fremont Co., Ida., Sept. 8.—Mrs. Sarah Ann Fewks Allen, daughter of Benjamin Fewks and Anna Hucknall, and wife of Elijah Allen, died at her home here Sept. 8.

The deceased was born at Whitwick, Leicestershire, England, April 9, 1863. Her parents being members of the Church, she was baptized when 5 years old. After the death of her parents she immigrated to Utah in July, 1882, and resided at Heber City until her marriage to Mr. Allen, Aug. 15, 1882, when they made their home at Coalville, Summit county, Utah, from which place they moved to Wilford, in 1890. To them have been born 13 children, nine of whom survive her and 11 in company with their surviving father, mourn her demise, and she has two brothers, John and Timothy in England. She was a true and faithful saint.

VERNAL.

DISTRICT COURT SESSION.

Attempt to Suborn Important Witness—Success of Dry Farming.

Special Correspondence. Vernal, Uintah Co., Sept. 7.—Judge Boothe, with his legal retinue, are in this week and the court docket is a heavy one. The trial of those charged with selling whisky to the Indians promises some sensational developments. Just at the hour when the case was called for trial it was discovered that the Indian interpreter, Charlie Mack, was "dead to the world." He was found drunk with two bottles of whisky and beer mixed, partly opium. The case was postponed until tomorrow morning when some one may find himself in the toils for selling or giving whisky to an Indian, and for a purpose. This is the boldest case of the kind ever known in Uintah county.

Andrew Jensen, assistant Church historian, completed his historical research in this stake, having visited every ward and township, collecting and inspecting and labeling all records. He has a pretty fair history now of the development of this community ecclesiastically and temporally.

The farmers are busy as bees, haying, harvesting and threshing. Bounteous crops have rewarded their labors.

Never in the history of this county has so much water flowed down Ashley creek at this time of year.

Feed on the range is better than for years past.

John Rowley, who bought land upon the Diamond mountain a year ago and staked his all on a dry farm, comes out triumphant. He expects to thresh 1,600 bushels of wheat, barley and oats, thus proving the feasibility of farming.
