A Western paper has the following: A lady writes to know if it is proper that is, if it is ladylike—to retaliate by squeezing back when a man squeezes her hand. Well you might squeeze easy-just enough to let him know that you are not disposed to be mean about it. But don't turn round and ask him: how is that for high?' or he might think you too forward."

A very valuable ointment for sprains may be made by beating together for two hours the whites of two eggs, two tablespoonsful of honey, and two of line sait.
