L. D. S. COLLEGE DAY.

Anniversary Exercises Held at the Assembly Hall Last Evening.

A Discourse by President George Q. Cannon, Following Upon the Anniversary of the Foundation of the Latter-day Saints' College.

Sunday, Nov. 15, 1896, being the anniversary of the organization of the Latter-day Saints' College, exercises were held in the Assembly Hall last evening, the building being crowded to its utmost capacity.

The singing was conducted by a German choir under the leadership of Prof. J. J. McMillan and the exercises commenced with the reading of the hymn, "Captain of Israel's Hosts." Invocation was offered by Elder Karl G. Maeser, after which the choir sang a German hymn entitled "Our Own Stories."

President Willard Dime of the College, then introduced President George Q. Cannon as the speaker at the evening, whom, he said, would deliver the anniversary sermon.

President Cannon began by referring to the history of the college, which he was pleased to note, he stated that the college was an exceedingly important institution in the history of the Latter-day Saints' College, which he said had been the first of its kind in the world.

The report and progress of the college was given by the Rev. J. J. McMillan, who stated that the college was an exceedingly important institution in the history of the Latter-day Saints' College, which he said had been the first of its kind in the world.
