Sixty Years Old and generally played out, as I thought he would be, he has broken through to see by David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, writes S. L.
Young, of Fresno, Cal., in the Kenyon. The doctor's name is not with information of the bladder and kidney, and have gradually grown worse and worse, until, last evening,
I was unable to get any sleep, and I have had to get up every two or three hours, and have had to get up every two or three hours, and have had to get up every two or three hours...

Prospectus For Volume XVII, THE CONTRIBUTOR, 1895-6.

We are pleased to announce the following as some of the leading features of Volume Seventeen of THE CONTRIBUTOR. It is the determination to make this magazine occupy the front rank in our home literature, and we trust this effort will find encouragement in the liberal patronage of the public.

Early Days in the Valley. Which will contain reminiscence of his "rainbow through oftentimes trying experiences as a boy and man in Utah.

My First Mission. Will be the title of some articles from the pen of APOSTLE FRANCIS M. LYMAN, wherein he will give an account of his interesting experience of traveling "without purse or scrip," and many marvelous incidents connected with his ministry abroad.

Visit to the Moquis. Made by himself and Arcadio BISHOP YORGA. These papers will portray in a remarkable manner the nature and power of God which accompanied these Elders. The customs of this Indian tribe will also receive attention.

Salem Witchcraft. A succinct historical account of this remarkable feature of New England colonial history; theories and explanations of its phenomena, offered by leading writers; treatment of the subject from the standpoint of a Latter-day Saint, by H. F. CUMMINGS, JR.

The Sandwich Islands Country and Mission. These articles will give a brief historical account of this group of islands, review some of the customs of the people and describe the past labors of our missionaries and the present condition of the latter-day work.

The Consistencies of Mormonism. These will be most ably written, and are designed to furnish arguments in favor of the truth for our missionaries and those who are called to defend our religion.

My School Days at Ann Arbor. Will receive treatment by ELDER RICHARD R. LYMAN, who recently graduated as a civil engineer from this noted Michigan school with high honors. These articles will be illustrated.

John Stevens' Courtship, a Tale of the Bohemian War. Is the title of a deeply interesting serial story which will be continued through the whole volume; its author is our versatile and talented friend MESA YOUNG GATES (HOMER), whose already published narratives have been of so much interest.

Ideal Manhood: Some Suggestions About It. This will be the title of some articles containing valuable suggestions to our young men who have an ambition to do or be something in the world. The author is a long resident of Utah, but desires his identity concealed and will consequently write under the name de plume of SIMPLEX.

College Department. The latter-day Saints' College in Salt Lake City will be represented by a department which will be supplied with essays and other articles from students and teachers. These productions will represent, as far as possible, the actual work of the college, and will pass through the hands of the Principal, who will see that everything used is of a high order.

The Musical Department. Will be in charge of Professors JOHN J. McCLELLAN and WILLARD DONE. A graded series of musical compositions, original and selected, will be published including solos, duets, quartets and choruses chosen with special reference to their adaptability to M. I. A. work. Home compositions are earnestly invited to send their productions to the editors of the department.

The Eisteddfod Prize Male Quartette. For which THE CONTRIBUTOR gave a $25.00 cash prize, will appear in this volume of the magazine.

Association Intelligence. In this department will appear all instructive or interesting matter pertaining to M. I. A. work, including answers to questions, reports, suggestions, etc. We particularly invite all active workers in the Associations to assist by their literary contributions in making this department of prime importance.

M. I. Manual, Part III. By MILTON H. HARDY and GEORGE H. BRIMHALL, committee on compilation.

M. I. Work. A series of articles on practical work in the Associations, by MILTON H. HARDY and GEORGE H. BRIMHALL.

The Study of Self. A series of articles by GEORGE H. BRIMHALL and MILTON H. HARDY.

Sermons and Writings from the Prophets. By MILTON H. HARDY and GEORGE H. BRIMHALL. Volume Seventeen will be beautifully illustrated with.

Choice Original Engravings. Representing scenes and incidents of great value to the progressive student.

Subscription Price, $2.00 Year, Postpaid.
