SAD DEATH OF RAY DOXEY.

John Penfield Awarded $5,000 Damages for Loss of Both Feet-Price of Coal Goes Up.

Ogden, June 1 .--- The public schools of Ogden closed yesterday for the summer vacation. The school year has been very successful in every respect, and good work has been accomplished in all the schools.

The high school commencement exercises were held at the Grand Opera. House last evening. They were enjoy. od by an audience that taxed the building to its capacity, and standing building to its capacity, and standing room was at a premium. A special feature of the evening was the ex-cellent music by the school orchestra of 50 pieces under the direction of Prof. Squire Coop, through whose tu-torage music has advanced so rapidly in the public schools. The orchestra plays classical music in a very ored-itable mannet. table manner.

itable manner. The commencement program was well rendered. The salutatory was delivered by George R. Whitmeyer and orations were delivered by Blanche Williams on "James Gale," and by Lew W. Beason on "Should Manual Training be Introduced in Our Schools?" he favored the new training in the schools and gave various rea-eens why it would be a great benefit to the students. the students.

Ray Doxey, 17 Years Old, Victim of Blood Poisoning. Ogden, Jume 1.—After a brief illness, Ray Doxey, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Doxey, died yester-day at the family residence on Twen-ty-seventh street. His death is ex-tremely sad. He had been working in Nevada for a short time, but his teeth became ulcerated. He suffered terrible pain and came home for treat-ment. Several of his teeth were drawn a few days ago in the hope of reliev-ing his suffering, but instead, blood poisoning set in, and although several physicians were called and did every-thing known to medical science to stop his suffering, all was of no avail and he died in great agony. Funeral ser-vices will be held Sunday afternoou at 2 o'clock at the Second ward meet-inghouse. Blood Poisoning.
