BURST OF ELOQUENCE .- It is pleasing to meet, in these degenerate times, anything breathing the pure spirit of patriotism, and to listen sometimes to the lofty tone of the cultivated statesman. Hear one of them in the Missouri Legislature, who, in a recent speech-it matters not upon what-said:

"What do gentlemen want? Is corn so dear and hoecakes so sweet as to be purchased only at the price of having the State garrisoned by our enemies?-Forbid it, Jeremiah! Do you want the institutions of your State reduced to the conditions of affairs away down in Georgia, where a plantation consists of two overseers and one U G. S. L. City. nigger? As the poet says, 'I'd rather be a long, mangy, strange, yellow dog with a bob tail, and bay at the moon, than not to say, this is meown, me native State.' And I will defend the institutions so long rs gress grows and water runs.27
