THEATRE.—This evening, the last of the season, an attractive programme will be given, on the occasion of the benefit of Mlle. Josephine and Carrie Armstrong. In addition to Montague and Gerretta in new gymnastic acts, Larkin and Armstrong in new specialities, Josephine and Larkin in a challenge jig for a cup, Wood, Perry Bro's, Lewis Parker, etc., Messrs. J. C. Graham and W. T. Harris will appear.

ELECTION OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES.—A meeting of the residents and tax payers of the Seventh Ward was held on the 4th inst., to elect new school trustees. The retiring trustees having published the notice calling the meeting. Without their signatures, however, it was considered that the informality would invalidate any action that might be taken at that meeting. Accordingly the meeting was adjourned and another called for last Saturday night, when there was a fair attendance of interested parties, comprising persons of various religious and secular sentiments. The names proposed as trustees were D. McKenzie, J. R. Walker, Geo. C. Lambert, B. G. Raybould, Wm McLachlan and F. D. Clift. After some discussion about the manner of electing the proposed officers, it was decided to do so by ballot.

The result showed as follows:

D. McKenzie, 59 votes; W. McLachlin, 55 votes; George C. Lambert 58 votes; J. R. Walker, 17; J. R. Walker 17; F. D. Clift, 16.

J. R. Walker as shown by the above, was voted for twice to the exclusion of B. G. Raybould.

We understand the present policy of the trustees to be that a tax shall not be levied for the purpose of completing the partially finished school house, but to accomplish this work by means of free donations, and the school will be conducted as heretofore, at least until some better system can be decided upon.

POCKET BOOK FOUND—The pocket book which was found, by Judge P. H. Emerson, on the Utah Southern R. R. cars a short time since, containing a small sum of money, a marriage certificate and a note, addressed to Kate Calder, Salt Lake City, has not been claimed yet. It can be obtained by the owner from Mr. R. W. McAllister, Deputy Territorial Marshal.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—D. T. Le Baron writes from Mt. Hope Pinery, Summit Kanyon, Utah County, April 22nd:

"A painful, though I trust not fatal, accident occurred here, yesterday, to a young man by the name of James Peirce, son of Mr. James M. Peirce, of Springville. He was engaged in felling a tree, against which another tree was lodged, the butt end standing upon the ground, and being hid by snow, had the appearance of a standing tree, and the young man, when the trees fell, only watching the one he had cut, was struck by the other, upon the side of his head, just below the right temple, knocking him senseless.

"All that can be done, in this out-of-the-way place, is gladly contributed, and prospects are favorable for his recovery.

"The accident, which occurred about noon caused quite a sensation and all work was suspended at the mill during the remainder of the day, in consequence."

AN ALARM.—A great deal of alarm was created on Friday night, a little after 11 o'clock, by sudden and unexpected reports of the firing of cannon, Chinese bombs, rockets, etc. The impressions created in the minds of the citizens at that untimely hour of the night by these sounds, which were heard for miles beyond the city, were varied, the most general idea, however, being that there was an outbreak of some kind, and that blood was being spilt. Under this impression numbers of citizens, in various parts of the city, immediately dressed and armed themselves and proceeded towards the locality whence the sounds proceeded, in hopes of rendering aid in quelling the disturbance which they reasonably imagined existed.

Those who thus bestired themselves discovered that the noise was made by a party of citizens who took this demonstrative and unbecoming method of celebrating the recent marriage of a young lady and gentleman in this city, at the place where the latter reside, in the 9th Ward. Others who did not obtain this information till next day, had to remain in suspense until that time.

We are informed that the reports were heard at Camp Douglas, and that General Morrow arose from his bed, dressed himself and went around Camp and personally examined the picket.

We refrained from commenting upon this matter, rather preferring to see what course would be taken respecting it by the municipal authorities, and we understand the parties have been summoned to appear before the Justice of the Peace to answer for their conduct. There is a deep seated feeling existing among the citizens regarding the affair, they generally considering it as a disturbance that should not be overlooked. If it be true that the parties who were engaged in the matter are citizens of intelligence and position, their conduct is all the more reprehensible, as the example is a bad one, and we need not say proceedings to be sanctioned by men of position. The parties who engaged in this proceeding may have been innocent of all intention to make any disturbance. We are altogether of the opinion that this was the case. But a disturbance was made, great alarm was created, a city ordinance was violated, and the innocence of the motives of those engaged in the charivari is not sufficient extenuation of itself for the outrageous character of the proceeding. We refrain from speaking of this as strongly as we would from the fact that we understand the case is to come before the Aldermen's court this afternoon.

REMOVAL.—Mr. T. F. H. Morton, dealer in Wines, Liquors, etc., has removed from his late premises, and now occupies a position on the other side of the street, on the corner opposite and west of Groesbeck's block. He has a very large stock.

THE MEMBERS of the High Council are requested to meet at the City Hall tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

HURT.—Fred. Williams, a brakeman on the Union Pacific road, while coupling the cars of the train last night, had his hand caught between the buffers, and two fingers of the right hand were broken.—Ogden Junction, April 26.

HOT FOR COBBLE-STONES.—For quite a distance, the lower portion of East Temple Street is sprinkled over with boulders or cobble-stones, from those of the size of a child's head downwards, so that it must be very difficult to drive any vehicle without experiencing a constant succession of very unpleasant jolts. The rocks are so thoroughly scattered over the road and in such quantities that it looks as if it had been done on purpose. They certainly ought to be promptly cleared away.

RESERVATION ON THE MUDDY.—The Gold Hill News and the Piocho Record protest against the proposal of setting apart Muddy Valley as a Reservation for the Piutes, objecting first that the valley was originally settled by the "Mormons," then abandoned by them, then settled by others and paid for by them (to the government we presume), and these latter preferred to pay the Piutes whatever they demanded, rather than have them hostile; second, that it is too near to Piocho for an Indian reservation. It is also urged that the Piutes will not work; that the Muddy Valley as a reservation would be simply given up to weeds, and general uselessness, while the Indians would be begging and stealing their food in the town adjoining; that it is the best policy, in locating reservations for Indian tribes, to select places as isolated from white settlers as may be; and that it is an actual injustice to some upon improved property for the use of the Indians.

COURT PROCEEDINGS AT PROVO.—While Judge Emerson was at Provo, last week, a man named Thomas, who had been arrested and fined for a breach of the Provo City liquor ordinance, in selling liquor on Sunday, was brought before him on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Emerson discharged the prisoner on the ground of an informality in the papers, and not on account of any defect in the ordinance under which they were issued. After his discharge new papers were made out and the prisoner was re-arrested, fined, and in default of payment was locked up.

A term of the District Court for the Second Judicial District will open at Provo May 22nd, at 10 a.m. The petit jury has been summoned to serve during that term.

SUICIDE YESTERDAY.—Yesterday morning, soon after daylight, a resident of the 9th Ward of this city, named John Fawkes, a stone-cutter by trade, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. An inquest was held about midday, by George J. Taylor, Esq., coroner, and a jury, when the following facts in relation to the affair were elicited:

Mr. William Kingsbury, the only witness examined, a neighbor of the deceased, deposed, in substance, as follows:

"This morning, at about 10 minutes past 8 o'clock, Mrs. Fawkes came in and told me that John (meaning her husband) had made away with himself. I went into their house and saw him lying in his blood dead. Last evening I was conversing with him; he seemed rational, and talked of going to work and finishing the stone that he had commenced to cut. I advised him to leave off drinking, and he said he would endeavor to do so. He had been drinking and talking wild of late. On Saturday afternoon he said to his wife that he should be buried on Sunday, and he wanted to sell part of his lot to pay his funeral expenses. He also told her that he wanted the masons to attend his funeral? His wife took no particular notice of him, as he had for some time past occasionally talked incoherently. Witness knew that the deceased was John Fawkes, and that he was about fifty years of age."

The jury inspected the body, which was lying in a room adjoining the bed-room of deceased and his wife. The scene was of a sickening character. The body lay in a large pool of blood, which was smeared and splashed about a great part of the room. On a mantel-piece in the room was a razor covered with blood, and another lying on the floor also with blood on it. It appeared as if the deceased had inflicted the fatal wound while standing, and, having placed the razor on the mantel-piece, fallen to the floor, where he had evidently struggled considerably before death closed the scene. The jury rendered the following verdict:

"TERRITORY OF UTAH,

Salt Lake County, April 27, 1873.

"An Inquisition holden in Salt Lake City, First Precinct, 12 m., 27th day of April, A. D., 1873, at the house of, a d on the body of John Fawkes, there lying dead, before George J. Taylor, Coroner of said County, by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed, said jurors on their oath do say, that he died from the effects of a cut with a razor, held in his own hand, said act being the result of temporary insanity caused by intemperance.

"In testimony whereof, said jurors have set their hands, the day and year aforesaid.

"J. MORGAN,
JOHN TAYLOR,
JOSHUA MIDGLEY,
GEORGE J. TAYLOR, Coroner."

From the wife of the unfortunate man the following additional particulars were obtained: Her husband got out of bed shortly after daylight in the morning, and left the room, as she supposed, with the intention of lighting the fire in the kitchen. She fell asleep, and on awakening again she noticed that he was absent from the room, and his clothing on a chair near the bed. She got up and went to the kitchen in search of him, but not finding him there, she proceeded to the room in which the fatal deed was perpetrated, and there found her husband dead.

The deceased had been a resident of this Territory the last ten or twelve years. He had the reputation of being an inoffensive and industrious man, but once in a while he would have a spell of drinking, and for a few months past had indulged so often and so freely that his mind appeared to be affected. About six months since, while in a state of intoxication, he stopped the writer on the street, and said he was falling into bad ways, he thought he should leave this world in a hurry one of these days, and he wished very much to make a will and dispose of his property. He has continued his inebriate course, more or less from that time until the past week, when it is believed he terminated his existence while laboring under delirium tremens. The deceased was born on the 13th of October, 1823, at Brampton, Cumberland, England. He leaves no children.

The funeral of the deceased took place this afternoon.

DIED.

On Sunday, April 27, of cerebro-spinal meningitis, FRANK, aged nine months and twenty-five days, only son of Frank and Annie W. Fuller, of this city.

OUR FATHER'S HOUSE—THE UNWRITTEN WORD.

BY DANIEL MARCH, D. D.—Author of Night Scenes in the Bible.

THIS Earth is one of the Mansions of OUR FATHER'S HOUSE and all the forms and forces of the physical universe are revelations of God's UNWRITTEN WORD. The author, in this new volume, goes from room to room in the great house that God has built, showing us the riches and splendors of each in every department, making the whole journey of life a happy walk of children with their Father—going out into open fields, listening to the singing birds, the whispering winds and murmuring forests; looking with ceaseless delight on green landscapes and grazing flocks, on beautiful flowers and springing grass, gazing with awe at the wonders of the mighty deep, walking beneath the shade of ancient mountains and climbing sacred heights. Wondering at the great Earth wheel turning beneath our feet, watching the storm with cloud on cloud, billowy darkness rolled, lightnings answered in thundering voices, and again the beautiful bows hung out on the retiring cloud.
