THE FEASTERMAKER'S WIFE.

Little Carrie Hansen Finds a Temporary Home with Child Devine.

Carrie Hansen, the 12-year-old Feasternaker waif and principal witness in the recent Tribune libel suit, has found a temporary home and place of refuge with Chief Devine and wife. The child, while unwell and ailing, says the relief is naturally hoped.

This morning she had a chat with Mrs. Devine, the sheep-herder's wife, and the child's statements, which are not new, differ from the statements that she made to the Tribune reporter that led him to the truth of the Whitmore affair. While she does not say that she has seen the ghost of Mrs. Feasternaker, she admits, that she has seen Mrs. Feasternaker, but is not to say when she saw her. The witness stand and continue her in the day to day. Now she says that Mrs. Woman has threatened to whip her until she couldn't move, and that she states that she will never go back to Heber—that she dare not.

Marsden has promised to give her a permanent home with his mother and see that all her wants are supplied and that she receive a good education. She will certainly seem unreal in this kindly office.

Golden Wedding.

Brigham City, Dec. 4, 1894.—A celebration was held at Brigham City last evening in honor of Brother William L. Watkins and his wife, Mary A. Watkins, it being the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The party was held at the residence of the aged couple whose years are respectively 72 and 70. It was also the birthday of Sister Watkins. The house is west of the Cedar Watkins block, and its interior perfect. After supper the assemblage accompanied by the Brigham City brass band, went to the Fourth ward school house where songs, recitations, speeches, etc., were rendered in good style. The grandchildren of the aged were present, six daughters and three sons of Brother and Sister Watkins, forty grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, besides friends and relatives of the aged couple, all of whom were recipients of the Church. One of the choicest features of the evening was a speech by Brother William Watkins, Refreshments were passed. During the evening presents were given to Brother and Sister Watkins by their children. Among them was a handsome gold watch each. This was one of the greatest events in the history of the Watkins family. All the posterity of the honored couple were present except one grandchild.

THE ELOPERS ESCAPE.

Fellow Here Wonder What is Wrong With the El Paso Officers.

Chief of Police Pratt has received a telegram from El Paso, Texas, informing him that the Salt Lake elopers, Charles Valentine and Mrs. Morrissey, have been released on a bond of $500. As a result Captain Donovan did not leave for the Lone Star state after the runaway couple, although he had the requisition papers all ready to issue. Chief Pratt telegraphed again asking that the parties be re-arrested on the case lowered more than $100,000. To this day it has been unable to receive a reply, and it is the opinion here that something is wrong at the other end of the line and that the guilty pair are now in Mexico.

A SALT LAKER'S DEATH.

Isadore Seligman Dies Suddenly While on a Visit to the South.

B. K. Bloch received a telegram today announcing him of the sudden and unexpected death of Isadore Seligman, a well known and highly respected Salt Laker who has been in the employ of his firm a long time.

One week ago today Mr. Seligman left this city to visit a brother residing in Alabama. He was in the best of health at that time and expected to return home soon. The telegram announcing his death to them on his brother, no particulars are given and the statement is made that they will be sent by mail. Seligman died at Nashville and was buried at Montgomery yesterday. He was about 30 years of age and unmarried.

"Trades Karaival."

The "Trades Karaival" entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational church, will be managed by the Misses M. C. and R. B. Mathews. It is something entirely new. The plan is taken from "America in a," which was played at the Lyceum last season, and consists of fancy drills, tableaux, pantomime scenes and dances, all to be shown on the stage at the Salt Lake Theater in the near future. There will be two hundred young people taking part in the performance, some hundred children will participate in the closing exercise called "America." The leading merchants of the city are taking part and the ladies say they are meeting with good success.

Honoring a Missionary.

There will be a choice entertainment in the Sugar House ward meeting house this evening, given by the members of the ward in honor of Elder S. O. Taylor, who has recently returned from a mission to the Samoan islands. Members of the ward and all friends are invited to be present. Program commences at 7:30.

Don't fail to attend the meeting in the Lyceum Theater on Saturday under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Aid society. You will help along a good cause.

Bring in boxes

In the sore, exercised or rotting, burning scalds, are caused by caloric, now exceedingly dangerous and very common disease. Use at once Dr. Hunting Ale's Ointment from eczema, Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a remarkably successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best after dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation.

For sweet breath.

The leading young ladies of Salt Lake give the operetta "A Dress Rehearsal" in the Lyceum Theater commencing Saturday matinee. Bring your wife and family along and enjoy yourselves.

Palpitation of the Heart and A General Break Down

The Good Effect of Hood's was Marked and Permanent.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen—I was taken down with hysteria, and became very weak with nervous trouble, palpitation of the heart, and a general break down. I had a good physician, but he could not give me relief. I took a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking that I felt better, but not to say when the cure was effected. I would give Hood's Sarsaparilla all the credit for my present good health, for I have used Hood's Pills, and which they are excellent." Mrs. A. E. Lanier, South Bend, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.
