WEBB CONFIRMS WEBBY TRANSFER

Denver, Laramie & Northwestern
Big Proposition With Former
Salt Laker in Charge.

SEATTLE IS PROPOSED END

Now Develops Line Planned Through
Wyoming Along Bottom of Yellowstone Park.

A. E. Webby has quit the Denver and Rio Grande. The report which reached this city a few days ago was not believed in railroad circles here but confirmation comes from F. C. Webb, the well known railroad supply man who is visiting the city. Mr. Webb brings the report that Mr. Webby has been made first vice-president of the Denver, Laramie & Northwestern, with a handsome salary in the transaction. The change will come as a surprise to all Salt Lake railroaders.

Mr. Webby was promoted from the general superintendent of the Rio Grande Western in this city to a similar position with the Rio Grande at Denver. His Salt Lake acquaintances and friends believe he was due for still greater things. He is regarded as the best railroad manager in the west and as good as the best in the country. Little was known of the Denver, Laramie & Northwestern and it was regarded as a branch line or extension being built by some road merely to form connections or obtain a short cut.

It is a BIG SYSTEM. When Mr. Webby's going to that road was reported it got little belief in this state. But a confirmation of the report made many sit up and ask questions about the line that has got him. It has been learned that the Denver, Laramie & Northwestern, instead of being a mere extension, has high hopes and intends to run from Denver and Salt Lake in direct connection with each other. And the new line proposes to reach the Yellowstone park on a route that is better than the fact that Denver men are officials of the company, little inside history is known of the project, but that more and more a quantity are in the concern to make the plan a go, is not doubted for an instant. The road has already taken up the line from Salt Lake to the north, on a line midway between the Colorado & Southern and Union Pacific. Laramie will be touched and the route then bends to the west and slightly to the north through Wyoming. The lower boundaries of Yellowstone carry the line to Seattle, just through what territories is not known at the present time.

Now that the well known former Salt Laker has given complete charge of the new line, its progress will be watched closely.
