State Lawmakers Will Attend Function at American Fork Tonight.

ARMORY DANCE ON MONDAY.

In Addition to That a Special Train Will Carry Party to Richfield on Saturday for Large Reception.

Tonight the lawmakers of Utah, headed by Gov. John C. Cutler and his ex-entive staff, are guests of honor at an American Fork dance and entertainment. Saturday they have an invitation to visit the town of Richfield, where the Commercial club is waiting with open arms to receive them, and on Monday evening next there is a date arranged with the national guard for an armory dance. The indications so as armory dance. The indications so far are that this session is not to lack for social features. Last session saw a total lack of them until the very end when Gov. Cutier was host of a dinner party in their honor at the Com-

Tuesday afternoon's senate session Tuesday attention's schate session was a tame affair, following the live-ly debate of Monday. A message from Gov. Cutler urging a constitutional amendment on the subject of taxation, an invitation to a national guard dance, and a debate on the house minutes were the features. The matter of the house minutes oc-

The matter of the bosts minits of cupied some time. Benner X. Smith dis-covered that the record of the signing of his bill on codifying the laws was not made according to the constitution, and if uncorrected, would invalidate the bills.

President Love promised to call the attention of Speaker Joseph to the dis-crepancy, and to have it corrected, if the speaker was willing.

Committee reports showed an unusu-al activity as eight bills came out to go on the calendar, some of them with adverse recommendations which were not adopted.

CARRIED OFF FILES.

George Harkins is Given a Lecture by Judge Armstrong.

Taking files out of the county clerk's office without permission from the clerk or the court caused the arrest of George Harkins yesterday afternoon, and he was taken before Judge Armstrong, where he was informed that he had no right to remove files from the clerk's office without permission. He told the court that he called at the clerk's office court that he called at the clerk's office and asked to see the articles of incor-poration of the Interstate Mining & Milling company, and that he supposed they were recorded the same as deeds in the county recorder's office and then returned to the incorporators. He took the files and put them in his pocket and walked out. County Clerk Eldredge made complaint against him and he was accordingly arrested. After delivmade complaint against him and he was accordingly arrested. After deliv-ering a lecture to the man, Judge Arm-strong released him from further cus-tody. COAL SITUATION.

Easier Than it Was But Delays Occur Owing to Bad Roads.

The coal situation is easier than it was; but dealers complain of delays in delivery owing to the bad condition of the roads. It freezes nights and the roads. It freezes hights and thaws days, making wheeling anything but easy, and team-sters are not looking for coal deliv-ery jobs in consequence. Dealers claim that the city has not received this win-ter over half the coal that should be properly coming to it; and express the belief that there will be no relief for several years to come or until new several years to come, or until new mining properties are opened up, with suitable railroad connections. The Morman polygamist takes upon himself the greatest of obliga-tions, the realing of more than one fam-ily and the guarding of more than one fam-ily and the guarding of more than one wife. The men who tractised polygamy were the most respected in the state." Mr. Meakin asked what should be done with those who had at one time been a party to this style of marriage. He ex-plained that these people were mostly without exception old persons now and the youngest was over 50 years of age. Mr. Meakin asked if it would be right to make these old persons who had always lived good lives, as they believed, give them up now, as it would mean a shat-tering of their household idols and a bresking up of their home life in their old age.

governmental policies obtain. Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membranes that line the air-passages. It is made to cure the dis-ease, not to fool the patient for a short, deceptive relief. There is no cocane nor merury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros. 56 Warren Street, New York. ASKS A SQUARE DEAL

John P. Meakin Speaks on Behalf of Mormons at Newark.

Under the auspices of a local band of Mormons who hold services in Fraternal Hall, at 655 Broad street, John P. Meakin. of Salt Lake City, Utah, spoke there on "A square Deal for Utah" last night. Mr. Meakin, who has lived among the Mor-mons at Salt Lake City for the past 85 years, explained that he was not a Mormon himself, but a Fraternalist, and he lectured only for the purpose of rescuing a people from slander and to obtain a square deal for them. In speaking of the reputed visions of Joseph Smith, founder of Mormonism the speaker said he was not prepared to pass upon their authenticity, and all he 'A Square Deal for Utah" last night. Mr.
