EASTERN DISPATCHES.

CHICAGO, 3.—The speech of Judge

Matthews, at Cincinnati, last night, was a masterly argument against the Liberal movement and candidates. His explanation of the reasons which induced him to the conclusion that he was released from all obligation to support the ticket he had aided to put in nomination is an arraignment of the Cincinnati convention as a body of unprincipled politicians, bent on spolia rather than the accomplishment of the reform for which it ostensibly assembled. He says: "The convention below the mark of its own representative standard. It was filled with politicians of the ordinary stamp, men who wanted offices for themselves and their friends, and who, consequently, determined that no one should be nominated who was not a member of their party, and who, in the case of his election, would not acknowledge and remember the obligations he was under to reward party services, no far as his executive, personally and by agents, were soliciting the situations, men who, personally or by their spokesmen, were willing to negotiate for it. A bargain was struck, below the mark of its own representative standard. His speech was an exhaustive review of the history of the liberal party, its convention at Baltimore, and the endorsements of its candidates and platform. It discussed the record of President Grant's administration, occasionaly condemning but generally approving it, and summing up by the declaration that the general conduct of his administration, so far as his executive duties have been involved, has been personally pure, and characterized in the main by a regard for the country and the people, by wisdom, pa-trience and a conscious desire to promoote the public interest; while on the other hand, he showed that all Greeley's training had been in the school of after party politics, and that he has always approved the Jack-profit on $500,000 and, further, that Bischoffheim sold $500,000 of Erie in London before the settlement of the contract was repudiated, and that he bought back part of the stock at lower prices.

Last night a gang of river pirates forced an entrance at the wharf of the Hambro, docked, at Hoboken, and stole watches valued from $50,000 to $60,000.

It is believed that workmen on the dock aided the pirates.

The Liberals fired one hundred guns over the North Carolina election. A Raleigh special says Republican gains are reported in various counties, with Conservative losses in others. The latest returns reduce the Conservative figures. The Republicans still have hope of success.

WASHINGTON, 3.—Supervisor Perry of Raleigh, telegraphed at noon to-day to Secretary Delano: "Everything is brightening. Caldwell and the whole State ticket are elected."

WILMINGTON, 3.—The counties of Stamford, Cabarrus, Anson, Chamberlain, and Mecklenburg give Merriman 3,817 majority, a net gain of $2,000 over the 1870. Raleigh, New

Bell, and Wayne, Greene, and New Hanover, give Caldwell a majority of 2,325, a net gain of $84 over the vote of 1870.

WASHINGTON, 3.—A Baltimore special dispatch from Perry, internal revenue supervisor, to commissioner Delano, saying that North Carolina has gone Republican, but others received, it is not fully credited, and that it is believed if that State had gone Republican, Senator Pool would have so telegraphed here, but nothing has been received from him.

The latest Democratic dispatches say the State is Democratic by less majority than claimed yesterday, below

6,000.

CHICAGO, 3.—The Post's Washington special, says several Southern Democratic papers received here to-day, state that Sumner's letter has had little influence with the colored voters, and that they will not follow him into the Greeley camp, but will go solid for President Grant. This morning's dispatch is at variance with the report that Sumner's letter had been received with great favor by the colored people, and that it would induce them to support the Democratic ticket. It is not, however, inferred that Sumner's letter had been

Officials are shot at daily and a grove over the river within eight or ten miles from Brownsville. Taunts have been thrown back across the river, that they will take as many cattle as they want. State officials claiming cattle in the Camargo were refused them, the cattle rebranded and the inspectors forced to register the new brands. Corral's influence is all powerful with the Mexican population in Texas, and a war of races is inevitable. Insult and disgrace are heaped upon private parties, and there is a general feeling that the no overcoming themselves. The residents of lonely ranches are afraid to testify in open court.

NEW YORK, 4.—A concerted attempt to break jail at New York last night, was frustrated by the police outside. A confederate, two horses and a wagon were captured.

Raleigh special to the Herald, last night, says the returns from all points of North Carolina come slowly, and are confused and conflicting, and increase the general doubt. The Democrats assert that their candidate has been elec-ed by fifteen hundred to two thousand majority. The Republicans claim the same. Caldwell, Republican, gained about 2,500 over the Democratic vote of 1870. At midnight on Saturday sixty-three counties showed a Republican gain of 1,550 over the vote of 1870. A later dispatch states that seventy-one counties give Caldwell a gain of 2,737, over 1870, leaving 2,325 to the Democrats by the remaining twenty-one counties. Raleigh, 4.—Official and partial returns from 75 counties reduce the Democratic majority to some 2,000. The remaining 17 and mostly rural, and will not materially change the figures.

The Republicans concede the State by 1,500 or 2,500 majority. There is still an intense interest felt in the result.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, 3.—James Crotty, alias "short haired Jimmy," was shot in cold blood by Chas. A. Russell, alias Robinson, in Coney's saloon, last evening. The parties had met early in the evening and had a slight tussle, which resulted in Russell being thrown down, but they were quickly separated, and Russell left in company with Charles Stewart, chief engineer of the steamship Colorado, with whom he had been drinking. They visited several places in search of a pistol, and being unable to borrow one purchased one, and returning found Crotty talking with Thos. Finnelly, and deliberately shot him in the head, the ball entering near the nose, under the left eye, and ranging downwards. It has not been extracted. After the shooting Russell and Stewart coolly left the place. Russell is an old State prison convict.
