

The men of the Vance family having wreaked vengeance, the crowd piled all kinds of combustible stuff around the scaffold, poured oil on it and set it afire. The negro rolled and wriggled and tossed out of the mass only to be pushed back by the people nearest him. He passed out again and was roped and pulled back. Hundreds of people turned away, but the majority of the vast crowd looked calmly on. People were here from every part of this section. Every train that came in was loaded to the utmost capacity, and there were demands at many points for special trains to bring the people here to see the unparalleled punishment of a fiend for an unparalleled crime, and when the news of the burning went over the country like wildfire and at every country town anvils boomed forth the announcement.

It is stated that

was that once when drunk and disorderly he was arrested by Officer Vance, the little girl's father, who was compelled to use a club on him. For this the negro swore vengeance, and several times assaulted Vance. The climax of his fiendishness came Thursday, when he committed the awful crime for which he has paid the penalty. Vance is prostrate with grief, and his wife lies at death's door from nervous prostration.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 1.—The Times-Democrat's Austin special says that Governor Hogg telegraphed the officials at Lamar to protect the negro, Henry Smith, from mob violence, and after hearing of Smith's fate, wired them to take the names of the parties principally concerned in the affair, for prosecution.

(Motion of Young it was decided that the committee on sites and buildings visit the Lowell school building at 2 o'clock this afternoon to inspect the heating plant and accept the same for the board if found according to the plans and specifications. The same committee will visit the Lincoln building on Tuesday next for a similar purpose.

Young moved that a committee, consisting of the president and the members of the board from the Fourth precinct, be appointed to arrange for the formal opening of the Lowell school building, with authority to arrange the program, appoint the day, and on behalf of the board to issue invitations to the United States, Territorial, county and city officials, other interested parties and the public generally, giving two days' notice thereof. Carried.

It is suggested that the return of crinoline will be a good thing for cities where the streets are like they are here—there will not be so much of the streets seen.

BUNTING.—Died at Kanab, Utah, January 26th, 1893, Harriet Dye Bunting. Deceased, the wife of James L. Bunting, was born at Wymondham, Norfolk, England, January 31st, 1843. She was baptized when eight years old, and emigrated with her parents to Salt Lake City in 1853; was married in 1859; moved south in 1870 to assist her husband in filling a mission to Kanab; was the mother of twelve children, nine of whom are now living. She was a faithful worker in the Sabbath school cause, and president of the Relief society of the Kanab Stake of Zion. A loving mother, a faithful wife, and a consistent Latter-day Saint. She was much beloved by all her associates. Had she lived five days more she would have been fifty years old. The cause of death was pneumonia, resulting from a severe cold contracted last October on her way home from conference. She fell asleep in peace, surrounded by friends and most of her family, to come forth in the morning of the first resurrection.

JAMES L. BUNTING.

DUNFORD.—At her residence in Bloomington, Idaho, on the 9th of December 1891, after a short illness, Mrs. Lena Dunford, relict of the late Isaac Dunford, leaving six sons, one daughter and numerous friends to mourn her departure.

Sister Dunford was born in Trowbridge, Wiltshire, England, September 16th, 1827, and landed in St. Louis, Missouri, with her husband in 1843. They arrived in Salt Lake City with their family October 3rd, 1841, and later in the same year located in Bloomington, Idaho, and shared in all the trials, privations and hardships incident to settling a new country, which she endured with the patience and fortitude worthy of a saint. Six sons, all Elders or Seventies, were the pallbearers.

The funeral services were held in the Bloomington meeting house, which was filled with friends and neighbors. Elders James H. Hart, John U. Smith and Peter Greenhalgh offered consolation to the family, and instructions to the congregation suitable to the congregation.—[OOD.
