Missippi has a new paper called the Eye fine south The Ouelda Indians in Wisconsin have organized a brass band to soothe the savage breast.

A York State woman sewed up a child's nostrils because it wouldn't use a bandkerchief.

Portland, Maine, has forgotten its great Fourth of July fire, and this year expends $3,060 in fireworks and other festivities. Wendell Phillips asserts that in Boston "every tenth person is a criminal, and every seventeenth a pauper." There is a tobaccontat in Washington who rejoices in the appropriate name of Plus; and in the same city a liquor seller named Bacchus.

Michael O'Brien, the little Boston 12-year old, who was sentenced to the Reform School till his majority, for stealing a newspaper, has been pardon-

A Providence undertaker has a pleasant habit of sending his card to all the sick persons he can hear of.

A Western Judge, while bathing lately, was robbed by boys of all his clothing except a silk hat and umbrella, in which attire he had to make his way home.

The Sacramenta Union is of the opinion that irrigation on a grand scale, with plans for the reglamation of the march lands, is the coming California epidemic.

A Lou-sville man, who is a graduate of an Eastern college, and has practised law and medicine, and studied for the ministry, mow drives a brick cart, and thus earns an bonest living.

Janub Onkleaf, of Waterloo, Wis., charged with abusing his family, paying no attention to the remonstrauces of the male citizens, the females united and drove the brute out of town.

A paner at Huntsville, Ala., has a half-culumu obituary notice of the death of a tom cat, who died at the age of 18 years. He was born of rich, but otherwise respectable parents and held a position in society not easily filled.

The fish-oil mills of Connecticut are an important brauch of business. It is said that 1,000 spen depend on them for their living, and that 10,000 tons of fishgusoo are furnished to the farmers, and 500,000 gailous of oil to the trade.

Etrusous Jawelry, made over 2,000 years ago, was recently worn in public by an Italian lady, and was declared by competent judges to be superior in workmanship and finish to any made at present in Paris.

An irreverent lawyer, having insult-ed Judge Pitter, of the California Becon, his Honor descended, seized a cane, and administered to the attorney a severe flogging. The Judge then resumed his seat, and bade the whipped pleader to proceed with his remarks.

Law yers there a indicrone habit of clients; by speaking in the plural num-ber. "Gentlemen of the jury," said a Western lawyer, "at the moment the policeman says he saw us in the trap. I will prove that we were looked up in the station house, in a state of intoxica-

The Devenport Gasetts gets off the following really good thing: "A new minister at Dew Molnes fook a stroll before breakfast on the Arat Sonday he was there, and after walking a dozen blocks, was accosted by a stiabby looking ourses, who had been watching him, with, 'you needn't look any fur-ther; there ain't nary taleon open.'"

At a betel breakfast in New Haven, a baptist clergyman asked his neighber the cause of the uprour of the night previous. The neighbor horrifled the clergy man by replying that he believfor water since daybreak, with which to immerse their parched throats.

Out on the frontier, in Kansas, auway of applauding actors and actresses. They give a regular ludian yell, patting their mouths with their hands all the time. A certain Eastern actress was so applauded, which frightened her so, she ran out the back way, hired a carriage, and rode twenty-five miles to the nearest ratiroad station, leaving the play to the middle. She said she was afraid they would scalp her.

The disinfecting power of water has been rec-iving considerable attention of late. With the exception of chargoal, it is said shat no other substance is so perfect an ab orbent of odors. It absorbe its own volume of some gases, and more than 600 times its volume of others. For lustance, lu ammonia gas, which is one of the largest products of decompo-sition, 670 cubic feet is absorbed by one of water. Another offensive oder, always present when animal matter is decaying, arises from sulphide of hydrogen. Water absorbs two and a half times its own volume of this. These facts are worthy of remembrance and practical attention. A quantity of water placed in an open vessel in a sick room, and changed often, makes an exceilent distufement.

When Charlette Patti was in England was told about her which has been re-She was once driving through one of the Loudon suburbs, when she observed a sparrow which seemed to have ed a sparrow which seemed to have vived since her arrival to this country. roadside. Since that hour the bird and the cantatrice have been inseparable friends. It has been with her in all her journeyings, sceepts its food from no other hands but hers, and seems to watch and wait for her as if it possessed an intelligence capable of gratitude.
