Such Enthusiasm in Minnesota for Democratic Candidate—"The Republic Forever, an Empire Never."

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 1.—When Mr. Bryan returned to his train this morning from West Superior, Wis., where he had spent the night, he found the train elaborately decorated. The Minnesota State committee had placed a picture of the Democratic candidate in place of the headlight on the locomotive while bunting fluttered from almost every available spot on the train. There was a motto in large letters strung along the cars inscribed "The Republic forever; an empire, never." The words "Bryan for President, Lind for governor" were also prominently displayed. The first speech of the day was delivered from the veranda of the hotel

MEN'S AND BOYS' SHOES AS WE BUILD THEM. It's taken years of hard work to perfect these shoes for men and boys. It wasn't done in a day. Away back years ago we started to build them ourselves, but only at a time, so as to have them good. We've been trying to build them a little better as we've grown, until today we know we're building the best shoes for men or boys that are sold in this town. Best means style, leather, inside and outside. For boys, $1.35 up. For boys, $1.25 up.

and sub-money. "It was all right with them to expand the volume of bank circulation, but not to coin silver. Mr. Bryan discussed the questions of military and expansion. He incidentally referred to the Beer question, and noticing the presence in the crowd of a number of Canadians, he told them that if the English doctrine was right for the Philippines, it was also right for Canada. If they wanted to protect their own rights, they should be in sympathy with every people struggling for liberty. Mr. Bryan referred to a recent speech by Senator Davis, and said: "Speaking of the Declaration of Independence, it is rather interesting to read that when a distinguished Republican made a speech in this city not long ago and mentioned the declaration of Independence, the Republican papers said 'Laughter.' committees will be sent to Governor Roosevelt before December 1, with the approval of the commission, the minority agreeing to sign the report. The main proposal is to give each borough local self-government in the management of street cleaning, police, fire, water supply, parks, highways and street lighting. Involved in this is the suggestion that the heads of these departments shall be appointed by the presidents of the several boroughs, thus giving local home rule in a broad sense to the voters of each sub-division of the city. Under this management the tax payers would be able to hold their local officials and mayor responsible, but the change also would have far reaching effects in a political issue. There is a unanimity on the proposition to abolish the municipal assembly and to have no more councilmen. There is to be a board of aldermen composed of two men from each assembly district in Greater New York, or in all 120 aldermen. The revision commission will bring in a plan to subdivide the assembly districts in the election of aldermen and so bring the men to be chosen as near to the people as possible. The voters will be responsibly responsive to public sentiment in nearly all districts of the city. The aldermen will be elected every two years and the question of salary is not yet settled. They will have a large measure of legislative power. It is estimated that the heads of 1,000 office-holders will be looped off and nearly $2,000,000 a year will be saved in salaries should all the proposed amendments to the charter prevail. The plan for borough home rule and the creation of 120 aldermen are the really radical changes proposed.

in West Superior. Mr. Bryan spoke for half an hour to a large audience. His speech dealt largely with the trust question and he made special reference to a combination of the four interests. Mr. Bryan quoted the following remark from a speech made by President McKinley in 1894 in which he attacked the Democratic party: "They were the enemies of the trust when they wanted the votes of the people in 1892, and when they got the power to deal a blow at trusts, according to the testimony of their own members, they became the willing tools of the most gigantic trust of the country."

by a searching party but no other portion of the body was found. Sheriff Lawrence, of Crown Point, Ind., says: "Although we are completely at sea regarding the identity of the unfortunate whose head was found in Cedar Lake, yet we have two points worked out which may enable us to eventually clear up the mystery. The head is that of a woman and she was a resident of or had visited a large city. The mouth plate and two false teeth attached to it tell the story. We have had several dentists examine the plate. They all say that it is from the mouth of a medium sized woman—that it is too small to have been from the mouth of a man."

GREAT NEW YORK CHARTER. Commission on Revision Will Recommend Local Control of Streets.

New York, Oct. 2.—Should the charter of New York City be amended in line with the views of the revision committee appointed by Governor Roosevelt, there will be a radical change in the local government of Greater New York. The commission will meet today to discuss and pass upon the work of the several sub-committees. It is said on good authority that the members of the commission, with two exceptions, are unit upon all questions and that the radical changes suggested by the subcommittee will be sent to Governor Roosevelt before December 1, with the approval of the commission, the minority agreeing to sign the report.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS CONVENTION. Several Hundred Delegates Leave New York for Indianapolis.

New York, Oct. 2.—Several hundred delegates left New York, Jersey City, and other nearby towns last night for Indianapolis to attend the convention of the National Association of Democratic clubs. More will go today. Reports from up-state and Connecticut show that nearly all of the clubs have sent delegates and that the east will do its part in helping to create a fine demonstration at the Hoosier capital. Among the prominent men who went as delegates at large or as representatives or original bodies were Henry George, Congressman George E. McClellan, Norman E. Mack, George Rains, Col. William Astor Chanler, Congressman William Sulzer, W. Burke Cockran who is to be one of the speakers to address the convention, Col. Jacob Ruppert and Seymour Van Santvoord of Troy. The special reaches Indianapolis at 8 p. m. today.

The woman who puts her head in the lion's mouth, seems the type of reckless woman. But she isn't. The really reckless woman is the one who braves Nature day after day, by neglect of the health of the delicate womanly organs. "Crime and punishment blossom on one stem," says Emerson. When the cycle of self-neglect is complete it includes the pains and sufferings which are the inevitable penalties inflicted by outraged Nature. The drain which today is counted an inconvenience, becomes in succeeding days a horrible and offensive stigma. The passing depression of an hour grows into a permanent melancholy.

The timely use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will save young women from suffering, as it will cure those who through neglect have become martyrs after marriage. No woman who suffers with backache, pain in the side, bearing-down pains, debilitating drains, ulceration or inflammation, should delay another day the use of "Favorite Prescription." It is used by every woman and cures ninety-eight per cent. of all who give it a fair trial. It contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

General Harrison in New York.

New York, Oct. 2.—Former President Benjamin Harrison, accompanied by Mrs. Harrison and their little daughter, came to this city last night from their summer home in the Adirondacks. They went to the Fifth Avenue hotel where they will remain for several days. Gen. Harrison is said to be secured from an interview.

At Duluth, Mr. Bryan spoke in the armory. He said he could hope to add nothing to the arguments which had been made here by the Hon. Charles A. Towne, who resides here. "If he cannot warn you sufficiently against the dangers that threaten you," he said, "you would not believe, though one rose from the dead."

Referring to the trusts, Mr. Bryan said that there could be no good monopoly in private hands. He referred to Senator Hanna's declaration that if the trusts should prove dangerous the Republican party would take care of them. "What a consolation," he exclaimed, "to know that Mr. Hanna has his arms around you and will protect you from the trusts." In this connection he referred to the closing of the flouring mills in this city, saying: "They have thrown the trusts to close mills. Whenever a mill was closed under a Democratic administration the Republicans said a low tariff did it, and appealed to the people to put up a high tariff, and yet when every trust closes five or six mills in one town there is not one Republican who has the courage to denounce the trust that does it." Speaking of the agricultural interest, he said that the Republican party had proposed no remedies for the evils encompassing that industry. It did not, for instance, take a mathematician to determine the amount of money that would be made with two metals than with one. The President's letter of acceptance would indicate that the Republican party has accepted the quantitative theory of money, but the Republican party distinguished between real money and sub-money. "It was all right with them to expand the volume of bank circulation, but not to coin silver. Mr. Bryan discussed the questions of military and expansion. Advertisement for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women. Mrs. Watson tells all suffering women how she was cured and advises them to follow her example. Here is her first letter to Mrs. Pinkham: (PUBLISHED BY PERMISSION.) "March 15, 1899. 'To MRS. PINKHAM, LYNN, MASS.: 'DEAR MADAM:—I am suffering from inflammation of the ovaries and womb, and have been for eighteen months. I have a continual pain and soreness in my back and side. I am only free from pain when lying down or sitting in an easy chair. When I stand I suffer with severe pain in my side and back. I believe my troubles were caused by over-work and lifting some years ago. 'Life is a drag to me, and I sometimes feel like giving up ever being a well woman; I have become careless and unconcerned about everything. I am in bed now. I have had several doctors, but they did me but little good. 'Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been recommended to me by a friend, and I have made up my mind to give it a fair trial. 'I write this letter with the hope of hearing from you in regard to my case'—Mrs. S. J. WATSON, Hampton, Va. Mrs. Pinkham's advice was promptly received by Mrs. Watson and a few months later she writes as follows: (PUBLISHED BY PERMISSION.) 'November 27, 1899. 'DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to acknowledge to you the benefit that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. 'I had been suffering with female troubles for some time, could walk but a short distance, had terrible bearing-down pains in lower part of my bowels, backache, and pain in ovary. I used your medicine for four months and was so much better that I could walk three times the distance that I could before. 'I am to-day in better health than I have been for more than two years, and I know it is all due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. 'I recommend your advice and medicine to all women who suffer.'—Mrs. S. J. WATSON, Hampton, Va. Mrs. Watson's letters prove that Mrs. Pinkham's free advice is always forthcoming on request and that it is a sure guide to health. These letters are but a drop in the ocean of evidence proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound CURES the ills of women. No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles or such hosts of grateful friends. Do not be persuaded that any other medicine is just as good. Any dealer who suggests something else has no interest in your case. He is seeking a larger profit. Follow the record of this medicine and remember that these thousands of cures of women whose letters are constantly printed in this paper were not brought about by "something else," but by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. $5000 REWARD. Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time questioned the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank, Lynn, Mass., $5000, which will be paid to any person who will show that the above testimonials are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission.
