AMERICAN.

Wired From Washington.

WASHINGTON, 15.—The Corean Embassy arrived from Chicago this morning. They were met at the station by Mr. John Davis, First Assistant Secretary of State, and Lieutenant Mason and Ensign Foulk of the Navy. The latter two were assigned by the President to extend civilities to the visitors, and were in full dress naval uniform. The Embassadors were at once driven to the Arlington Hotel. Nothing has been determined as to their future movements, but they will probably remain here only a few days, and will then go to New York and probably to Boston, returning here when the President is in the city.

The report of the Commissioner of Immigration of the State of New York shows that 383740 immigrants landed at the port of New York from August 3d, 1882, to June 30th, 1883, inclusive. The largest number landed in any month (99,59?) was in May, 1883, and the smallest (8,348) in January of the same year. The duty imposed on the board of returning paupers and persons unable to take care of themselves to the ports whence they came, has been carefully exercised, and a large number of undesirable persons have been sent back.

Commodore English, Acting Secretary of the Navy, received the following dispatch:

St. Johns, Sept. 15th.

Commodore English, Acting Secretary of the Navy:

To charter another foreign ship with a foreign crew for this duty, to go north at this late season, would be simply to invite a fresh disaster. The Proteus was handled very unskilfully, and the crew behaved shamefully at the wreck. The ship must be American manned and officered by the navy, and thoroughly equipped. Unless winter quarters can be reached north of Cape Athol, the attempt would be useless. This cannot be done. Melville Bay will be impassable by October 1st at latest. The ship cannot winter at Upernavik, and cannot sledge north of there.

(Signed) F. WILDER,
Commander U. S. Yantic.

The following dispatch from Lieut. Garlington was received at the Signal Office to-day:

St. John's, N. F., 15.

Chief Signal Officer, United States Army:

The stores were not left at Littleton Island, because it was not in my programme to do so. It was my intention to establish a depot at or near Cape Prescott, and to the northward, as recommended by Lieut. Greeley, to fill the gaps caused by the Neptune's failure to get above Cape Sabine. See Greeley letter, Beebe report, and my instructions. Five hundred and fifty-five rations were left at Upernavik by the Yantic for my party. Part of these met me at a point forty miles north of Tessuak; all since returned to the Yantic. The ultimate result of any undertaking to go north at this time is extremely problematical, with the chances against its success, owing to the dark nights now beginning in those regions, making ice navigation extremely critical work. There is no safe winter anchorage on the west shore of Greenland between Disco and Pandora Harbor, except perhaps North Star Bay, the winter quarters of Saunders.

However, there is a bare chance of success, and if my recommendations are approved I am ready and anxious to make the effort. My plan is to buy a suitable sealer, take a crew of volunteers from the crews of the Yantic and Powhatan, now in this harbor, paying them a compensation; Lieut. J. C. Cowell to command the ship, two ensigns and one engineer to be taken from those who may volunteer from the same ship; also employ a competent ice pilot here. The ship must be under U. S. staffs, and subject to military discipline. I believe nothing can be done with foreign officers and crew. In the event of not enough seamen volunteering, the remainder to be enlisted from here. Commander Wilder will communicate with the Navy Department. If anything is to be done it must be done at once.

(Signed) E. A. GARLINGTON.

It appears from the above that if supplemental instructions were sent to Garlington he never received them, but Garlington has been advised that the Secretary of War will not authorize the proposed expedition this fall, but will order one next year.

The Postoffice Department to-day began the distribution of the new 2-cent stamps, and the requisition upon the contractors was the largest in numbers, pieces and value ever issued in one day. The order was for 37,879,830 postage stamps, 7,131,950 stamped envelops, the most of these being of the 2 cent denomination, and 5,983,000 postal cards. Aggregate value of articles ordered $950,000.

Secretary Teller resumed his duties to-day.

Westover, of this city, counsel for Judge Robertson of Louisiana, to-day filed with John K. Knox, Comptroller of the Currency, a formal complaint setting forth the alleged violation of the law by the new Orleans National Bank, in substituting its name for that of the manager of the Lottery Company in advertisements which have appeared in various journals throughout the country. Westover says it is the intention of his client to test the question whether or not a National Bank can lawfully go into the lottery business.

Fires, Frauds and Fatalities.

DENVER, 15.—Henry Mosier, alias Moore, who murdered Jas. Knight and J. H. Wessel on the prarie three miles from Cheyenne, last Tuesday night, his object being to secure $58 in the possession of Wessel, was to-day arrested at Louisville in this State. He made no resistance. He was told he had to die, and he at once predicted that he would not live five minutes after reaching Cheyenne, expecting to be lynched. The greatest indignation is manifested, and his prophecy will probably be fulfilled.

San Francisco, 15.—This morning Henry Marks, laborer, stabbed to death John Connelly, the victim living in the house with Marks and wife, and being caught in the act of adultery with Mrs. Marks. Connelly was stabbed eight times, and died within a few minutes. Marks was arrested.

Philadelphia, 15.—Anthony, better known as "Tony" Hale, and John W. Edmunds were to-day taken into the custody of the government. It is alleged that Hale and his accomplice have been engaged for weeks past, in issuing notes and bonds, some of which they allege have been disposed of to brokers. They were held for further hearing. A lot of mechanical apparatus used in the manufacture of spurious notes is said to have been found in Hale's house.

Duluth, 15.—Detective Hall and U. S. Marshal Brackett visited the grocery store of Chambers & McGovern, arrested last night for passing counterfeit money, and in a barrel of Java coffee found press, plates and all auxiliaries necessary for counterfeiting, and which had seen hard use. The firm made an assignment yesterday for the benefit of their creditors; their principal ones being in Chicago.

Galveston, 15.—News' Henrietta special: The corpse of a man named Butler, ringleader among the fence cutters, was found this morning perforated by bullets. Two companions of his are known to be badly wounded. The body was lying near the railroad fence on the Sherwood ranch; the fence had been cut for several miles. A large number of prominent stockmen, heavily armed, left for Sherwood's place, where a lively time to-night is anticipated.

New York, 15.—At a meeting between Mitchell and Slade's backers this afternoon, they declared the fight off. Mitchell's backers immediately covered a deposit of $1,000 recently made by William Sheriff, the Prussian who lately challenged Sullivan. Arrangements are being made for a private glove fight to take place within two weeks from the date of signing the articles. The men are to fight according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules until one of them is beaten.

Boston, 15.—Al. Smith, Sullivan's backer, states that there will be no match between the champion and Sheriff, "the Prussian," at present. All the latter's backers desire is to advertise their man. Sullivan is shortly to start on an extended tour throughout the country, and does not propose to postpone it to go into training to fight a man whom he considers his inferior in every respect. When he returns he will fight "the Prussian" privately for $6,000 a side, ten persons to witness the encounter.

St. Louis, 15.—A fire at Casey, Ill., last night, destroyed 11 buildings (business houses), and several offices, causing a loss of $80,000.

Pittsburg, 15.—A fire at Delphos, Ohio, early this morning, entirely consumed the extensive works of the Pittsburg Hoop and Barrell Company. The night watchman was burned to death. Loss, $70,000; insurance, $30,000.

Norfolk, Va., 15.—Judge Mayo, who committed suicide aboard the Baltimore steamer this morning, related his trouble to an Episcopal Clergyman in Norfolk, who came from Baltimore with him. He said when elected Judge, he did not agree politically with his sons, prominent readjusters. He was told that politics would not interfere with his duties on the bench. Recently he had been urged to make a removal and appointment which afterwards appeared in his opinion a violation of law. His political situation irritated him, and he said he felt like ending his troubles by blowing out his brains. He is widely connected, and an uncle of Commodore Mayo, U. S. N.

Havana, 15.—Eighteen deaths from yellow fever occurred here the week just ending.

Chicago, 15.—The Times will, to-morrow, publish the following: Wm. W. Derby, real estate dealer, has begun a suit against Gen. Patrick E Connor, of Eureka, Nev., for the foreclosure of a mortgage on his property in the west division of this city for $150,000. Gen. Connor claims to have been the victim of a sharp transaction in which H. H. Honore and Derby were combined against him.

Mexican Melange.

MEXICO, 15.—The birthday of Porfirio Diaz was celebrated with great enthusiasm. The streets are gay with bunting and flags floating from public buildings and private residences. There was a procession of national schools and societies last night. Thousands of people of the best class took part in a serenade to Diaz. The approach to his house was crowded until midnight.

Alta, republican, Dr. Ramon Fernandez's organ, nominates Diaz for President. This indicates that the powerful following of Fernandez will support Diaz for the next term.

At 11 o'clock to-night the celebration of the anniversary of Mexican independence commences, to be continued throughout to-morrow. The city is crowded with strangers.

The President in his message, to be read to-morrow, says Mexico's foreign relations have become every day more satisfactory; that the condition of the country generally is good, though there exists some financial troubles, which will be speedily overcome. The progress of internal improvements is highly satisfactory, and visible to everybody. The Central Railway Company has constructed more than 1,500 kilometres of road; the National Construction Company more than 1,000 kilometres; total kilometres of railroad constructed in the Republic, 3,800. It was necessary to modify the agreement made by the unofficial agent of Mexico with the British bondholders. Negotiations are progressing for a loan of $20,000,000 abroad; he hopes they will soon terminate satisfactorily. Revenues of the fiscal year ending June 8th last, $33,500,000, an increase of a million and a half over the previous year. The revenues the present year bid fair to exceed the sum mentioned. Rectifications of the customs tariff are nearly completed. A new postal code will soon go into force. Overland mail communication with the United States is to be improved. Public instruction is in a flourishing condition. Every effort is being made to attract a good class of immigrants, and large contracts to this end have been made. The army is in good condition, and peace reigns throughout the Republic.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

General Connor's Contest.

CHICAGO, 16.—A summons was served on General P. E. Connor at the Palmer House rotunda to-night while Connor was talking with his friends. The amount involved would render the case of sufficient importance, but when the character of the defendant is taken into consideration it is doubly so. Patrick E. Connor is none other than General Connor, who, during the war, had the command of the entire Utah Division, comprising the territory between the Sierra Nevada Mountains and the Missouri River and under whose charge were 18,000 troops. The plaintiff is a prominent real estate dealer. A few moments after receiving the portentous summons, a reporter of the Times approached the distinguished General for an explanation of the case. After some hesitation he said:

"This is only a civil action, you see, but I am greatly annoyed at it, because it is an evidence of bad faith on the part of Mr. Derby, but I will tell you the story from the beginning." Then he proceeded as follows:

"In 1876 Mr. H. H. Honore of this city, met me in Salt Lake City, where I was then living, and I learned he was looking for a mining investment. A short distance from that city I had some land which in my absence of several years had been jumped by a syndicate of English capitalists, and who immediately located a mine under the name of the Flagstaff Mining Company of Utah, with a capital stock of $1,000,000. I returned in 1875, and finding my property thus unceremoniously pre-empted, I began suit against the company for the mine and for $1,000,000 besides, which I considered a fair estimate of the ore that had been taken out. Mr. Honore heard of this suit, and he offered to trade for it unconditionally, a lot of property in Chicago, property of William Derby, but upon which he held an option for $144,800. He showed certificates from several well known real estate dealers of this city, testifying to the value of the property and we made the trade. Mr. Honore took the suit and I came to Chicago to get my property. I went at once to Mr. Derby's office where he gave me a deed of the property, taking a mortgage upon it for $144,800. I went out to look at the lots which were located between West Madison Street and Park Avenue and 40th and 50th Streets, comprising three blocks and a fraction. I at once saw I had been swindled by Mr. Honore and that the property was worth but one-third of the amount of the mortgage, but I was into the mud and prepared to see it through. A short time afterward I met Mr. Derby, and offered to deed the property back to him if he would release me from all obligations. This he promised to do and said he would send it to me at Salt Lake for the signatures of my wife and myself. The deed never came. I have seen him several times since, and his promise was each time renewed, but for some reason, best known to himself, never filled. I determined to bring matters to a focus and came here to-day for that purpose. I have just come from West Point, where I have been visiting a son, who is a cadet there. Arriving in the city this morning, I called in Mr. Derby and insisted on a fulfillment of his oft repeated promise, but he put me off with the suggestion that we drive out and look at the property to-morrow morning. He then said he would call on me at my hotel this evening, and we could spend a pleasant time. I met an old Colonel, who had served under me during the war, and asked him to be one of the party to night. We were waiting for Mr. Derby, when to my astonishment, I could hardly believe it was true for I had entertained some little respect for Mr. Derby, and thought at least he was a gentleman, instead of calling in a social way at the appointed time, he evidently sneaked in behind this officer and pointed me out to him, for how else would he have known me; Why didn't the man tell me he wanted a service upon me and I would have accommodated him in a gentlemanly way."

"What do you intend to do about it?"

"I will fight it to the bitter end, and if necessary I will carry it to the United States Supreme Court; such contemptible sneaking conduct makes my blood boil, and I propose now to see it through. I will retain on Monday the best legal talent in the city of Chicago. I know that I can prove swindling without doubt. Honore and Derby procured these certificates of endorsement in the same way and I was the sucker, green enough to bite.

Gen. Connor stated that he was President and superintendent of the Eureka Tunnel Mining Co., located at Eureka, Nevada, and as they were engaged in opening some new mines he couldn't remain any longer. An old suit against the Flagstaff Mining Co., the present property of Honore, he stated, was still pending in the Supreme Court of Utah.

Stabbed to Death With a Stiletto.

GALVESTON, Texas, 16.—A News San Antonio special says: Two Mexicans, Vidal and Cantee, of wealthy and influential connections and brother's-in-law, had a family disagreement and encountered each other during the independence celebration last night. In order to avoid marring the occasion they agreed to meet and arm in a certain secluded spot and settle the differences. The programme was carried out. Vidal was the most active, disabling Cantes by a stiletto stab above the eye and two incisions in the back. The wounded man was removed to his family residence and Vidal jailed. It is thought Cantee will die.

The "Alta" Sold.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—The Alta-California, the first newspaper established in San Francisco, has been purchased by ex-Lieut. Governor Johnson, who will change it to a democratic paper. Notwithstanding this it is said the paper will work for the nomination of Judge Field for the presidency.

Junius Brutus Booth Dying

MANCHESTER-BY-THE-SEA, Mass., 16.—Junius Brutus Booth, the veteran actor and manager, who has been for some days at the Masconamo House, of which he is proprietor, is in a critical condition to night. He is so rapidly sinking that all hopes of his recovery are abandoned. Mrs. Agnes Booth is at his bedside, and Edwin Booth has been here all day.

Senator Sharon's Suit.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—Neilson, acting as attorney for Miss Aggie Hill, in the suit against Senator Sharon for adultery, produces several written statements published to-days' Chronicle setting forth the contract for marriage between Sharon and Miss Hill, dated August 25th, 1880; also a letter dated from the Senate Chamber, Washington, in which he addresses that lady as his dear wife. Miss Hill claims that the marriage contract was written in accordance with the provisions of the civil code of this State.

FOREIGN.

British Briefs

LONDON, 15.—It is probable the police will board the steamer Athenian upon her arrival off Southampton, to take O'Donnell, murderer of James Carey, ashore, and bring him directly to London, in order to avoid any public demonstration by his sympathizers.

Lord Derby, Colonial Secretary, has forwarded a dispatch to the Australian Government stating that the Imperial government deprecates the scheme for the annexation of Pacific Islands to the Australian Colonies. He calls attention specifically to the case of the islands of Samoa, where a German British and American consul have for some time exercised their influence jointly or separately, and says the Governments of Great Britain and Germany made treaties with Samoa, which therefore forms an independent state, and its annexation to Australia might lead to a violation of international law. The same he declares to be true of other islands.

General Items.

Berlin, 15.—The North German Gazette has published a threat to confiscate property belonging to Deputy Antoine. The Liberals are indignant at the threat, and will probably offer an interpellation in the Reichstag in regard to the matter.

The North German Gazette in a leading article accuses the London Times of craftily sowing dissension between France and Germany by persistent distortions of facts.

Rome, 15.—The Papal Nuncio to France arrived at the Vatican to receive from the Pope instructions in regard to the relations of the Papal See with the Government of France.

Maraberg, 15. — The Emperor William yesterday inaugurated the grand army maneuvres here by a review of the Fourth Army corps. There was much enthusiasm, and everything went off satisfactorily. The Emperor was in his saddle three hours.

Pesth, 15.—A party of Croatian laborers at work on a railway near this city engaged in a riot; sixteen are arrested.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Threatening Destruction.

CANTON, 16.—There are now seven Chinese gunboats moored alongside the English and French men-of-war opposite the foreign concession. Placards on walls threaten the destruction of all European property if the government decides that indemnity be paid for the damage done to property of Europeans during the recent riots.

Transports for Tonquin.

MARSEILLES, 16.—Two transports loaded with troops for Tonquin have been ordered to hasten their departure, as General Bauck makes urgent demands for aid.

Fatal Floods and Fighting.

London, 16.—Disastrous floods are prevailing in the district of Taranto, Italy. Many lives have been lost and a large number of cattle swept away. A conflict between the military and people took place at Kostenkezza in Crotia in which many persons were killed and wounded.

Catholic Seminarian.

Mr. John Cusack, St. Mary's Theological Sannitary, Baltimore, Md., says after having suffered months with pleuradinia (rheumatism of the chest), and having tried every thing medical talent could suggest, without relief, the pain-cure, St. Jacobs Oil was recommended and it cured him.

FIRE! FIRE!

"A High Private in the Rear Rank."

TO OUR MANY PATRONS:

ON ACCOUNT OF THE GREAT heat, the Merchandise Department of the ART BAZAR is removed to the store lately occupied by David Yearsley, in the Hooper & Eldredge block. The Photographic Department, in charge of Mr. Ralph Savage, has also been transferred to John Olson's new gallery, on Commercial street. Persons having paid for portraits in advance at the old stand can have them retaken after July 4th, free of charge. No pains will be spared to keep up the standard of excellence hitherto maintained. Rally! Rally! Rally! A new series of views will soon be taken. Nothing was saved from the upper part of the Art Bazar.
