DESERET EVENING NEWS | PRES. CANNON IN SANDWICH ISLANDS

PEOPLE SURELEY DECAYING

The Native "Mormons" the Only Natives Whose Births Exceed Their Deaths-Elder S. Taylor's Report.

The Tabernacle services yesterday afternoon were presided over by President Angus M. Cannon, and were opened by the chair singing the hymn commencing: "All Hall the Glorious Day

The opening prayer was offered by Elder Arcet Hale, and the services were continued by the choir singing the anthem: "Light and Truth.

The first speaker was Elder Samuel L. Taylor, recently returned from a mission to Great Britain. He jeft his home in October, 1898, and arrived in his field in the Sheffield conference the following month. His labors have been a great pleasure to him. The Lord has greatly blessed him. Many of the promises that had been made upon his head on departing for the missionary field, have been filled to the very letter. He has en the power of God made manifest many cases such as healing the rick. He knew that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God, and that the true re-ligion of Jesus Christ was revealed through him. His first field of labor was in the Grimsby district, where the work is growing. The hall there that has been used by the Elders, which would hold 60 or 70 people, had to be abandoned and a larger hall procured. about 75 members of the Church in the Grimsby district, and they are meeting in a hall that will hold 250 people, and it is crowded all the time. The speaker said that the Grimsby district formed the nucleus for a new conference, which been recently organized, and there are a great many genuine investigators there. The last year and a half of his mission the speaker labored in the neighborhood of Sheffield, There is a great deal of prejudice in that neighborhood. There have been many people there who have felt it their duty to defame the people of God, and for that reason the headway that is being made is not as fast as it might be. Missionary work in Great Britain is not what it used to be. There are not the numbers of people willing to accept the truth as formerly. Today is a day of gleaning, and the results that used to follow do not follow the labors of the Elders at the present time. Nevertheless the Elders are working diligently and faithfully to the full satisfaction of the president of the mission. Notwithstanding that this is a day of gleaning, the speaker felt that there are yet many honest hearted people there who have not heard the testimony of the Elders, who will yet hear and obey, The speaker said that the teachings of the Elders in England is having its effect upon the ministry there, notwithstanding that the ministers are very much exercised over the progress of the Church. One minister, Church of England, has adopted many of the teachings of the Elders and is preaching them to his congregation. This is in strict accord with the words of the Prophet Joseph Smith, who said, "If alone we will revolutionize the vorld, if disturbed we will do it the

The speaker related an incident that ders in England. When they had finished speaking a man in the audience arose and began to denounce the Saints bitterly, but suddenly a change came over him, and he ended up by confirm-ing every word that the Elders had

Elder Taylor, in closing, testified that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of the liv-ing God, and though the world calls and time will prove that he was indeed a prophet, and those who would seek bonestly and sincerely will find out for themselves that what he had spoken

The choir sang the anthem "Jesus I my Cross have Taken," after which the dent George Q. Cannon.

President Cannon began by saying that he had listened with much pleasure to the remarks of Elder Taylor. One remark he had made which struck him with a great deal of force, and one which is considered one of the strong points of the Gospel, and that is, that no man need depend upon another man or his knowledge of the Gospel, but the can go to God and obtain the knowledge edge for himself.

As some were aware the speaker had seen absent for several weeks in the Hawalian islands to attend a jubilee of celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the landing of the first "Mormon' Elders in Hawali. It was at first de signed that the first presidency would attend the celebration, but President Snow had serious illness in his family, and President Smith was absent, so it fell to the speaker's lot to go. There were two obstacles in the way with him, and that was that he was a poor sallor, he suffered from sea sickness and he herefore dreaded the long voy-The other obstacle was that he once enjoyed the distinction being as nearly perfect the native language as any white man, and he was afraid that he would disappoint the people, not having spoken the language for over forty years. But the Lord blessed him, with health, and also brought back to him the native tongue. The people received him as though he were an angel of God, they fell at his feet, and made every manifestation of love. There are more "Mormons" on the islands than any other denomination, and the change that has been wrought in them by the influence of the Gospel is wonderful. The "Mormon" natives are the only natives on the island whose births exceed their deaths. It is a dying nation, and unless the decay is arrested the nation will be lest. It was a sad spectacle to the speaker, because he had great love for the people. The fact that they have received the Gospe of that it has produced for them so much happiness and prosperity, fills them with joy. The speaker met more whom he had baptized than he had expected to meet. Out of the 4,000 who bined the Church when President Canon was on the islands many of them are still living.

"I cannot express to you the pleasure that I had. I think it was unique. Such meetings as I had there could not be had elsewhere outside of Zion, because most of the people have not emigrated. The scenes of our early landing came back to me very vividly. We were sent a preach to the whites, and when we alled to gain access to the whites the differed with them. I held that the Gospel was to be preached to all the world. I felt very clear on this and I Lyon, sa determined to remain if I had to do it alone, and travel from island to island until I had warned all of the people."

President Cannon said that God had possible.

prepared that people to receive the Gospei. And there were strong men among them who preached the Gospel with as much force, and logic, and eloquence, as he had ever heard from the lips of any white Elder.

Soon after the speaker had began his labors in the islands, he took refuge in Kula, having been driven out of the larger places by the Calvinistic missionaries. A large meeting house had sionaries. A large meeting house had been procured, and up to that time the speaker had suffered from fear of pub-lic speaking, but on that occasion he arose and all fear left him. The spirit of God fell upon him and carried him away. The people seemed to have turned white and he did not know what he was saying. By the following Sunday night 150 people had been baptized, having come to him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and plantize the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the day and the him at all hours of the him at all him day and night to have him baptize

In the recent meetings with the natives. President Cannon felt greatly impressed to appeal to them to stop the decadence of the nation. He pointed out to them the value of children. A most damnable practice in the world is that of destroying life, and the people of Zion are threatened with that infer-nal, devilish practice, and those who indulge in it God will curse.

dulge in it God will curse.

President Cannon said that it was the duty of the Latter-day Saints to save a remnant of the disappearing races.

Every race and tribe under the sun should furnish its contribution to Zion.

President Cannon closed by invoking the blessings of the Lord upon the peaple, "Zion is growing," said he, "and the nations of the earth will soon look to this people for the salvation which they are in need of. Here are the peo-ple who will endure all things for the principles that they have espoused. We are prepared for the worst for we know that God is with us. Seliers, Purchasers, Breeds and Prices of Fine Animals.

The first great exhibition and public sale of thoroughbred cattle and sheep ever held in Utah, came to a close Saturday night after a very successful week. The sales aggregated upwards of $50,000, and several exhibitors who made not a single sale during the show, say that simply having their cuttle and sheep here will mean thousands of dol-lars to them during the next year. Not a single complaint was heard and all the exhibitors expressed satisfaction with the show. Utah cattle and sheep men are especially well pleased, as their steek compared favorably with that bred elsewhere and they expect better prices to maintain in Utah for Utah stock. They state that the show has benefited Utah many thousands of dol-lars. Several exhibitors say that the stock sold brought prices not to be bettered in Kansas City.

Saturday only a small crowd visited the stock show and the sales amounted to less than $4,000. The advertised public sale of Shorthorn stock owned by Barclay & Sons fell flat. Ralph Barclay Jr. acted as auctioneer. He could not get a bid on the stock anywhere near valuation and would not sell at cheap prices. Barcley made one sale of a yearling bull and a heifer for $250 to C. L. Hamilton of Salt

Geo. Adams of Cresstone, Colo., sold sen of Blackfoot, for $800. His total sales of 43 head aggregate $2,900. E. E. Ellison of Layton sold one bull calf, Duke of Layton, for $175, to Clar-ence Eldridge of Idaho.

At 7:45 last evening the police received word that a man was lying in a pool of blood in front of 215 State street and was, to all appearances, lifeless. Officers Barlow and Smith immediately repaired to the spot and found a man named Luke Golightly suffering from an ugly gash in the left side of his head. Golightly was also endeavoring to bear up under a big load of liquor. The pa-trol wagon was called and he was re-moved to the police station. Dr. Bene-dlet was called in, but before he ardict was called in, but before its arrived Golightly lost a great amount of blood. Dr. Benedict found it necessary to take five stitches in the wound to close it up. Golightly said that he was assaulted by a big negro. There were three agreebly surprised gentlemen in town Saturday night at the close of the convention week. The surprise came, too, when they were expecting nothing and were simply resting with easy conscience as having done their duty to the best of their ability. It goes without saying that one of the gentlemen to be surprised was the ubiquitous and energetic "Jim" Leary, who modestly bears the honors of having made the fourth annual convention of the National Live Stock Association such an emphatic success.

About 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon Mr. Leary was steered into the Kenyon by the committee who had the Renyon by the committee who had the little surprise in store for the old-time range rider. After he had arrived on the scene Col. Matt Daugherty struck his characteristic oratorical attitude and informed Mr. Leary that the delegates at large owed him a debt which they could never repay for the masterly manner in which he, as chairman on the committee on arrangements, had the committee on arrangements, had faithfully worked day and night for weeks past in order to make the convention an unqualified success. On behalf of the stockmen the gentleman from Nebraska presented Mr. Leary from Nebraska presented Mr. Leary with a handsome silver service of 100 pieces in recognition of his able services. Mr. Leary was taken totally by surprise, and could hardly thank those gentlemen assembled on account of the emotion which he felt; however, he soon found his voice and then proceeded to indulge in a flood of oratory, garnished. indulge in a flood of oratory, garnished with the characteristic cowboy idioms. that went straight to the hearts of his auditors. The silver service is a magnificent one, costing in the neighbor-hood of $275, the subscription to the same being limited to $1 donations from the stockmen. It is understood that after the amount had been subscribed for, those who were unavoidably omit-
