SALT LAKE CITY, November 21, 1871.
paying at $1.68 Sterling at $1.11.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—This evening the performances will consist of the fine domestic farce drama, founded on Charles Read's novel, "Never Too Late to Mend," concluding with the farce of "A Pleasant Neighbor." A tempting programme.

THE THIRD DANGER COURT.—This morning two persons were admitted to citizenship, after passing the usual catechism. Mr. Miner presented a complaint of one Mortan and drummer against Samuel W. Richards, but counsel not being prepared with authority to sustain certain points in the complaint, the court adjourned the cause for a few days for preparation.

Court met two days and adjourned until seven p.m., when it is expected the Grand Jury will report.

WEATHER.—A dull lowering day yesterday was followed by rain at night, and to-day everything is soaking.

ENGLAND.—The "Millionaire Star," Oct. 31, noticing the arrival at Liverpool, per steamship "Eloisa," Oct. 29, of Elder Charles Mathews, of Falmouth city, on a visit to his friends in Wincantonshire.

HONOR TO THE PRESS.—Mr. Walter, proprietor of the London Times, has been made a member of the realm. We know what we are pretty near, but we don't know what we may be!

THE MARCH OF DISSENT.—Under the lead of the New York Star pitches directly into the Ku Klux martial law banner. The Star says that Gen. Grant and his adherents, especially Andrew Gandy, Anderson, and others, are responsible for the march, and that truth that men are more easily governed by clemency than by violence, by equity than by force of arms.

THE PASTOR AND THE PURSE.—A person who paid a visit to Utah in May last, writes to an acquaintance in directly:

You know that while I am no believer in polygamy, I never understood it to be a part of my mission to misrepresent the principles of the church or to make believe in it. As my statements have differed from many accounts circulated, it has occasioned some comment. * * *

I am very sorry to read of the undignified high-handedness of the judiciary and other representatives of the Federal government.

Tell our people that polygamy is the protest and plunder the purpose of these proceedings.

NEW YORK has two notable visitors—Abraham and the small pox. A third is advancing—the cholera.

KODIAK TRAGEDY.—Tilton says some sensible things, for instance, "Love should be like religion, free from mandate by the civil law." And again—"There is a higher law than the civil statute—spiritual intercession between man and wife."

By Special Telegraph.

PROVO-COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Provo, Nov. 21, 1871.

DETROIT NEWS.—First District Court sat at 10 a.m., and spent the morning in trying to ascertain the history of the English Mining Co. W. C. Woodruff and eleven others were accepted out of twenty summoned, and the Court adjourned for the summoning of witnesses.

J. B. MILNER.

UNION POINT.—Man Dead.—Improvements at Alta—Weather.

ALTA CREEK, Little Cottonwood, 8 p.m., 21st. A man named McElroy, who has been working at Parson's furnace, was found dead this morning in Central Park on Main street. He died from pneumonia. He has been sick only a very short time. It is said to have a family at Union Park, to which place he will be sent tomorrow.

Owing to the stormy weather during the past two weeks, mining has been discontinued to a great extent.

PARSON'S.—The miners have just completed a large and commodious library stable, which is a credit to the proprietors. Mr. Parson and B. Reed's new store in this city has commenced ahead very rapidly, days ago, and before the notification of the miners, who will be sent to Wauhalla mill and dredge snow about three feet deep.

HOW IT IS.—A number of our contemporaries appear to think much of the fact that the London Times has espoused the crusade against Utah, and expressed the hope that President Grant will "push things" to the bitter end. The London Times is a perfectly unprincipled paper, but certainly likes the New York Herald, and some other times-are-a-changing paper, which grows with the stream, keeps an eye on the main channel, and advocates what it approves as the prevailing side of any public question. The great plenty of wives shall become popular, but no man need be afraid, or when it shall be generally prevalent and respected, the Times and the Herald and similar papers, if then extant, will be among the most strenuous advocates of polygamy. The views of the Times, however, as presented, have no great weight with people who have judgment of their own.

WAUHALLA.—Information in Eastern papers for President, upon the representation of Nebraska Congressmen, has agreed to order the removal of the department of the State, interior, and post office, and other offices, with headquarters at Omaha, from that state, probably to be placed in command.

DISCUSSION ON SHAMANS.—Six days, amounting to forty-five hours, were to-day assessed against discharged soldiers for intoxication and for breaking their passes. Pay them with no hard words, and their earnings better. Winter is upon us, and they will need what they have.

A WISE POLICY.—Wendell Phillips says Clark has four great points in his favor—

The Fifteenth Amendment, the Ku Klux, reduction of the national debt, and the abolition of the child of Mormonism. Let him, if I fail, stand to the cordiality and his position will be impregnable. Whoever carries the next election will be the next President. Let your opinion rise, and, with his past popularity you, especially retained, his nomination and re-election would be reduced to certainty.

Perhaps so, but is there no danger in carrying too much sail? If Grant makes solid political capital by an assault upon "Mormonism," he will be the first man who ever did.

PERIODICALS.—From Dwyer's book store come the following—

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper; Health and Home; Harper's Weekly; and Scribner's Monthly for December.

EXAMINE YOUR FOUNDATIONS.—At 12 m., while the rain gently descended, a two story building on Commercial Street, belonging to W. H. Hooper and John Hawkins, fell. The building was erected with adobe walls one foot thick and the roof so long, completed as to be ready to receive the timber. It is believed that a young man was buried beneath the earth, as one was seen to pass in front of it. Mr. Walker, getting into the cellar yesterday is supposed to have concealed the fall.

TWO COLORADO GENTLEMEN IN TROYER.—Nelson Okroy, who conducted a laundry near Commercial Street, has violated the city ordinances in relation to water as to feed the street and a man's establishment, and William Clagbourne who became intoxicated, waxed wrathful and exhibited such a disposition, accompanied with profanity, as to endanger the peace of brought before Alderman Clinton and fined, the former in the sum of five and the latter of fifteen dollars.

WHY WONDERFUL?—George Alfred Townsend writes:

"It is wonderful that a Mormon with half a dozen wives can be jealous or suspicious about each of them, and yet I have heard people here fly into a passion because their wives were spoken to on the street by strangers or stared at."

No gentleman addresses, in the street, women to whom he has not been introduced, nor stares at them anywhere. We have heard of a number of instances where persons who no doubt assumed these seven gentlemen, addressed familiarly girls "the gentlemen" is very low.

GAMBLING.—C. B. Summers, who has been keeping a gambling house, was fined $100.

TOOK TOOK A RECORD until two p.m., but our record was broken and our record until seven p.m., when it is expected the Grand jury will report.

WEATHER.—A dull lowering day yesterday was followed by rain at night, and to-day everything is soaking.

ENGLAND.—The "Millionaire Star," Oct. 31, noticing the arrival at Liverpool, per steamship "Eloisa," Oct. 29, of Elder Charles Mathews, of Falmouth city, on a visit to his friends in Wincantonshire.

OREGON.

JACKSONVILLE, 21.—This morning two young women, named Fanny and Hannah Ross, walked into the dining room of the U. S. Hotel, armed with cowhides, and administered an unusual chastisement upon a man, who had committed upon a woman a most unmerciful act.

The weather continues hotter and drier than ever before known at this season at San Francisco. At noon yesterday the barometer was higher than at any time previous in five years, but commenced to fall a little in the afternoon.
