FRAGMENTS.

This is bright, beautiful weather, but a trifle raw and cold.

The bail of Rudger Clawson was this morning increased from $3,000 to $6,000.

Milton Nobles is the next attraction at the Theatre. He appears November 10th.

"Parry's Literary Journal" for November is out. A fine number of this intellectual magazine.

The Second Quorum of Seventies will meet in the 15th Ward school house this evening at 7 o'clock.

No more criminal business in the District Court until Wednesday. The People against Hewlett, for murder, will then come up.

C. H. Bliss has written and published a little book entitled "Happiness and its fundamental principles." The miserable should all read it, and it won't hurt those who are happy already.

Some idea of the amount of work done by the stone-cutters on the Temple Block, can be gathered from the fact that during the one month of September, the Church blacksmith shop sharpened 39,800 chisels for their use.

Mr. John M. Larsen has just opened a furniture store in the Eleventh Ward, where he keeps a full line of new and improved furniture. He cordially invites the public to give him a call. See his advertisement.

The agony's o'er,
The trial's no more,
Oh what will the local do now, poor thing?
He'll skip through the streets,
And quizz all he meets,
Then hide his head under his wing, poor thing.

LOCAL NEWS.

PRIESTHOOD MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Priesthood of this Stake will convene in the Assembly Hall, at 11 o'clock a.m., next Saturday, November 1st. Reports are expected from all the Wards of the Stake.

By order of the Stake Presidency.
J. D. Stirling,
Stake Clerk pro tem.

Home Missionaries. — The regular monthly meeting of the Home Missionaries will be held in the Social Hall, at 7 p.m., next Wednesday.

James D. Stirling
Clerk pro tem.

Opened.—It will be seen by advertisement to be found in another column, that Messrs. Fox & Symons have opened their new photographic parlors. Connected with this fine establishment are all the latest and best facilities and improvements for doing work of every description associated with the photographic art. Besides the portrait business they have a landscape department, and take orders for photographing residences, mills, mines, farms, horses, stock, etc.

Play-Ground Wanted.—A petition has been made to the City Council to set apart a portion of the Tenth Ward Square as a play-ground, so that the boys in the southeast part of the city may not be compelled to resort to the streets for their sports, to the inconvenience of travelers. The Eighth Ward Square is largely devoted to this purpose, for apart from the enclosure specially used for base-ball, cricket, bicycle riding and other matches, an open space remains, which the boys are not slow to utilize. But this is some distance from the First and adjacent Wards, and it is thought that the Tenth Ward Square is admirably adapted for a pleasure ground. Only a portion of it would be required at present for the purpose. The Council will no doubt take the matter under advisement and do what they can consistently for the boys.

Change of Venue.—Two men were brought before Justice Spiers this morning, charged with creating a disturbance in Coffee John's Oyster rooms. Their attorney, James McKnight, moved for a change of venue on the ground that the Justice was prejudiced against his clients. As Judge Spiers had never seen either of them before, his blank astonishment at hearing the affidavit can be imagined. He however willingly handed the case over to Justice George D. Pyper, who will hear it to-morrow.

Judge Spiers relates that a few years ago a case came before the late Judge A. C. Pyper on motion for a change of venue on the ground that the Justice was prejudiced against the defendant's attorney. Judge Pyper readily assented, as his successor did, and the latter slyly intimated to our reporter that the reasons in both cases were identical.

Lecture on the Mountain Meadows Tragedy. — Last night the Twelfth ward Assembly Rooms was not only packed in every part, but hundreds were unable to gain admittance to the Hall, showing the intense public interest in the subject—"The Mountain Meadow Massacre," upon which it had been announced that Elder C. W. Penrose would treat. That gentleman entered upon the task before him precisely at 15 minutes past seven and concluded at 20 minutes to ten. He spent no time in preliminaries but at once plunged into the subject before him. He began by giving an account of the horrible tragedy, and described the detestation with which it was viewed by the entire "Mormon" people as a body. He then proceeded to state who the guilty parties were; that Brigham Young was not only entirely free from being accessory to the crime before or after the fact, but took the only steps within his power to prevent its commission; that none of the authorities of the Church had anything to do with it in any shape whatever; and that the Church as a body was as clear of that deed as any community on the most distant part of the globe. The lecturer's own remarks were limited compared with the overwhelming mass of incontrovertible testimony he adduced to sustain the several positions he assumed. It consisted of a wide variety of documents and a number of published works, the whole comprising a chain of evidence probably as strong, convincing and complete as was ever presented on any subject. He not only sustained his points in the ordinary sense of the term, but absolutely proved them. One of the chief peculiarities of the evidence used was that a large amount of it proceeded from decidedly anti-"Mormon" sources, and from productions intended to militate against the Church.

We have not given a synopsis of the lecture, because an adequate idea of it could not be conveyed by that method. Before long, however, it will, we expect, associated with Mr. Penrose's lecture delivered two weeks previous on "Blood Atonement," be given to the public in full.

"OLE VIRGINNY."

ELDERS KIMBALL AND WOOLLEY'S ACCOUNT OF AFFAIRS IN THE OLD DOMINION.

This morning we had the pleasure of meeting and greeting Elders Newel W. Kimball and John E. Woolley, the former a son of the late President Heber C. Kimball and the latter a son of the late Bishop Edwin D. Woolley. Both returned last evening, per the D. & R. G. train, from the Southern States, from which mission they were released at the last Virginia Conference, held on the 27th and 28th of September.

Elder Kimball left here October 31st, 1884, and went direct to Chattanooga, Tennessee, where he was assigned by President Morgan to Virginia and labored in that State the whole of the time he was away. He baptized eleven souls, assisted in fourteen other baptisms, and traveled through seventeen counties, taking in the northwestern and southwestern portions of the State.

He labored first with Elder Howard Coray in Smith and Bland Counties, and was there about six months, but as it was an old, worn-out field, he saw but little results of his labors. The latter part of the time he had Elder George A. Biglow to travel with. He was then assigned to Pulaski, Wythe and Giles Counties, in company with his brother, Jonathan G., but though these were new fields they met with little success, but with considerable bad treatment. No violence resulted, but they were often threatened. He next went with Elder Joseph Smith to open a new field in Bath County, in the northwest, where they baptized eleven persons and established a branch. They met opposition here, but it resulted in good, as is generally the case.

He was then called to preside over the Virginia Conference, and went into Amherst County with his brother Hyrum, where he staid three months. Of his experience in that region our readers are already informed by extracts from his private letters published in the News. Amherst County is now the most thriving field in the State. Since February, when it was opened by Elders J. T. Heninger, J. G. Kimball and C. A. Welsh, there had been 31 baptisms up to the time our informant left. Elder Hyrum H. Kimball is now laboring there with excellent results, and with Elder Lamont Call had eight or ten baptisms to attend to at last accounts. After being called to preside, Elder Kimball's labors were general in character until he was released to return home.

Elder Woolley left here the 17th of October 1882, and was also assigned to Virginia. He labored first with Elder John E. Carlisle in Tazewell and McDowell Counties, but only a few weeks and met with no apparent success. He then went with Elder Biglow into the counties east of Bedford and Franklin, and south of the James River, a district embracing twenty-six counties. They labored there 14 months but were treated with great indifference, baptizing none, though they called upon priests and laymen, judges and citizens of prominence, but received little encouragement from them. They received permission to preach in two churches during the time. Elder Woolley next attended the Conference in September, when he was released.

He and Elder Biglow were mobbed in Isle-of-Wight County, by a band of twenty men armed with whisky bottles and pistols, both loaded. They emptied the former in sight of the meeting-house, where the brethren were about to commence preaching, and then came up to the house, but were prevented from breaking up the meeting by the presence of the prosecuting attorney, the county magistrate and a Dr. Duck, who warned them of the consequences and they reluctantly desisted.

These brethren corroborate the reports given by other returned missionaries of the flattering prospects in the State of Virginia. But the feeling of opposition is increasing correspondingly, especially among the ministers. The Saints have the spirit of gathering and there are indications for quite an emigration next Spring. Most of those who have lately joined the Church are in pretty good circumstances, considering the poverty of their surroundings.

From the North-Western States Mission.—This morning we received a call from Elder John E. Booth, Assistant President of the North-Western States Mission, who has just returned from his field of labor, in which he has been operating for a little over one year. During that time he had the personal supervision of the mission, Elder Palmer being absent at home.

He reports having got along well, and suffered no personal violence at the hands of mobs, although threats were extensive and severe. The newspapers were very partisan, and advocated that almost any measures would be justifiable so long as the result desired could be attained—the expulsion of Elder Booth from that part of the country.

Brother Booth, personally, baptized twelve persons. Thirty-five Elders have been in the mission during the past summer, every one of whom is a zealous worker, and with but slight exception all observe the Word of Wisdom, refraining from all intoxicating beverages, tea, coffee and all hot drinks, tobacco, etc.

Mob violence against the Elders is very frequent in the Indiana Conference, but there is little or no manifestation of that kind in Minnesota. The anti-polygamy plank in the Republican platform has greatly hindered the labors of the Elders, by intensifying the popular hatred against them. No specific charges are preferred against the brethren, the allegations being of a general character. In reference to them the common law rule of holding a man innocent until proved guilty is reversed, and the Elders or "Mormons" generally are held to be guilty until they prove themselves innocent.

Elder Booth speaks in the most commendable terms of the kindness manifested to the Elders by the Shelby family and the Saints of Johnsonville.

Runaway, Tip-over and Smashup.—A one-horse buggy containing three ladies and a little five-year-old girl, figured in a runaway and smashup on South Temple Street, at about half past 11 o'clock this morning. The ladies were Mrs. Lily Freeze, Mrs. Jane Freeze and Miss Maggie Freeze, members of the family of our esteemed townsman James P. Freeze, Esq., of the 11th Ward. The little girl also was his daughter. The buggy started from the Gardo House corner to go east, but had not proceeded far when one of the shafts fell down, through some breakage near the wheel, and the horse becoming frightened ran away. The vehicle was overturned a short distance east of the Eagle Gate, and all four occupants were thrown out into the road. No bones were broken, but they were badly shaken up and bruised, and were taken home in a severely shocked condition. We shall be glad to learn if nothing serious results. The buggy was smashed to pieces; the horse was caught by some one about a block and a half from the scene of the tip-over.

JOHN T. LYNCH, Postmaster.
Salt Lake City, Utah, September 17th, 1884.

PERSONAL.

We received a friendly call to-day from Mr. John Rae, who represents Wolfe, Patton & Co. (Limited,) successors to Stewart Bros. Co., manufacturers and importers of brushes, Pittsburg, Pa. Mr. Rae has visited this Territory for several years, and has secured for the firm he represents a very satisfactory trade, owing to the goods manufactured by them being first class. He brings with him an extensive line of samples, which can be seen by calling on him at the Walked House, where he will remain several days. Read their business card on our first page.

Change of Time.—The Utah Central Railway will make the following changes in its time card, to take effect to-morrow, October 28th: The Pacific Express will leave Salt Lake City at 7.30 a.m. instead of 7.20 a.m; the Atlantic Express will arrive in Salt Lake at 7.40 p.m. instead of 7.50.

"Old Soldiers' Reunion."—A man with a peeled face and a woe-begone expression on what was left of it, and whose general appearance went to indicate that he had seen rough times in the last few hours of his career, came before Judge Spiers this morning on a charge of drunkenness. He said he had come to town with $80 in his pocket and fell in with some soldiers and got to fighting old battles over again, verbally and literally. Whisky seems to have taken a part in the campaign, and got away with the poor fellow's senses, dollars and memory of all that followed. He did not even have money to pay his fine, ($5) but Coffee John, who happened to be in court, paid it for him, recognizing the dilapidated specimen of humanity as a $14 customer of the night before.

ON THE ISLANDS OF THE SEA.

GENERAL CONFERENCE NEWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS MISSION.

MUTUAL IMPROVEMENT SOCIETIES.

On the morning of Oct. 3d, at 10 a.m. the Conference of the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. Associations convened, and the time until 12 o'clock was taken up with exercises, the programme having been previously prepared. The whole proceedings were praiseworthy, but the rendering of songs in English, also of essays and their translation, were items of very special interest. In the afternoon very good instructions were given by the Elders. As the former general President, J. B. Rhead was to be released this term, Elder Wm. G. Farrell was chosen and sustained as general President, and Elders M. E. Pack and Geo. Cluff as his Counselors. The statistical and financial reports were read, showing number of organized Societies, 8; number of members, 301; cash received this term, $24.22; disbursed this term, $35.25; amount in treasury, $23.87.

THE RELIEF SOCIETIES.

General Conference was held on the 4th. The forenoon was taken up by the Presidents and other Sisters talking upon the providences of God and giving general instruction.

In the afternoon the financial and statistical reports were read showing: Cash received this term, $183.09; disbursed during this term, $74.95; amount in treasury at date $838.97; No. of organized societies, 13; No. of members April 6th, 1884, 341; increase, 10; decrease, 16; No. of members at date, 325; Rel of Society House as follows: Disbursed for lumber, etc., $249.28; balance in treasury, $87.17. Sister S. L. Partridge was unanimously sustained general President of the societies of the Islands with Sister B. M. Young, G. A. Wilcox and Kaahanui and Naiia as Counselors. The local Presidents were also sustained. A very good spirit prevailed throughout.

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

was held on the 5th and 6th. On the morning of the 5th the members of the Relief Societies and the Mutual Improvement and the children of the Sabbath School formed in marching order at the house of one of the head Teachers, and marched from there to the Mission House, where the Elders from Utah entered the procession and all marched to the New Meeting House.

Present on the stand: President Partridge and fifteen Utah Elders. Meeting commenced at 10 o'clock a.m. by singing. Prayer by Elder Kalawaia. Singing. The sacrament was administered by Elders J. B. Rhead and Wm. G. Farrell.

Prest. Partridge said he was pleased because of the coming of so many from the other Islands, considering, as he did, the trying circumstances under which some had come. It showed they had a portion of the Spirit of God with them. In continuing he asked why they had come, and in answering gave some, it is hoped, never-to-be-forgotten doctrinal instruction. The remainder of the forenoon was taken up by Elders F. W. Marchant and E. M. Hansen. They spoke somewhat extensively upon the first principles of the Gospel.

In the afternoon the general reports were read. Financial: Missionary fund, received this term, $85.07; amount disbursed, $129.95; amount on hand, $171.09. Band account; amount received this term, $258.76; amount on hand, $373.42. Cash received for Tithing, $188.75. Cash received for Temple, $20. Statistical: Number holding the Priesthood, 635; number of male lay members, 961; number of female members, 1,321; number of baptisms this term, 110; number of children blessed this term, 70; total number of children under 8 years of age, 529; number excommunications, 26; number deaths, 55; births, 18. Total number of souls, 3,576.

President Partridge then stated the causes for the delay in procuring band instruments. Hoped to have a band organized for or by next Conference. The remaining time was taken up by Elders J. B. Rhead, Geo. Cluff, Kealakalhounua and A. A. Brim. Meeting was adjourned until the 6th, at 10 a.m. Singing by three choirs, Laie, Kahana and Honolulu.

On the 6th; the meeting was called to order by the President. After appropriate and well rendered songs from the different choirs and prayer by Elder H. N. Kekanoha the President presented the following names for honorable release: Elder F. W. Marchant, J. B. Rhead, E. M. Hansen and B. M. Young and family. Sustained unanimously that they be released with our respect and confidence. The General and Local Authorities were then unanimously sustained. Some of the foreign Elders and native Presidents of branches occupied the remainder of the time; the former in instructing and the latter in reporting their branches. Between the discourses and the giving of reports by the brethren, songs were sung by the choirs, causing a spirit of gentleness and yet power to pervade.

In the afternoon more of the presidents of branches and other Elders reported their branches to be in a state requiring much work to keep them flourishing. The distribution of the Elders was read as follows: M. E. Pack to Kona, Hawaii. J. S. Hyde and L. B. Mainoa to Kohala, Hawaii. W. C. Partridge and Kealakaa to Maui, Molokai and Lanai. W. A. Miller and G. L. Kanekapu to Kauai. Geo. Cluff to Oahu. J. Fox, S. Allred, A. A. Brim, G. A. Wilcox and F. Tilley to oversee the interests of the plantation. Wm. G. Farrell to teach English school.

General Superintendent of Sunday Schools M. E. Pack read the general Sunday School report as follows: Number of organized schools 12; (2 not reported.) Number of officers and members of schools, 488. President Partridge made some closing remarks greatly encouraging "home industry."

Conference was then adjourned until April 6th, 1885. Singing by all the choirs. Benediction by Nihipali.
