REPUBLICAN SENATORS COMMENT IT.

General Disappointment: Because No New State Regarding the Future of the Philippine Islands.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Many senators expressed themselves from expression of opinion at length upon the message, and the ground that they had not been able to give careful attention to all the details. Republican senators were, however, willing to express commendation in a few general words of commendation. Senator Chalmers regarded it as a "provisional, extraordinary and accurate historical review."

Senator Platt of New York commended the statement of the determination of the president to stand army and to maintain order in the islands, but he said that the president had not been able to give a full and complete account of the situation.

Senator Lodge said it was "able and accurate."

Senator Foraker—A good presentation of facts generally, but a little inadequate on the question of Cuban independence.

Senator Tamm—A good American point.

Senator Sherman—A fine account of the situation and facts leading up to the war.

Senator Chandler—The president's message was a good one, but it was not a complete account of the situation.

Senator Jones—The president's message was a good one, but it was not a complete account of the situation.
