From South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., 29.—The only matter of importance that transpired since noon is the missing members of the republican legislature who have been discovered and brought in, which gave that body their quorum of 59. Immediately afterwards the committee on privileges and elections, appointed yesterday by speaker Mackey, submitted the report of seating the republican members, five in number, from Barnwell County. The democrats participating in the democratic House have certificates of election from the Secretary of State.

There were no contests in the Senate, which seems to be recognized.

Both Houses passed a resolution appointing Friday noon as the hour to commence canvassing the vote for Governor.

A Protest Entered.

The following protest, signed by all the democratic Senators was entered upon the records of the Senate in accordance with the notice given yesterday:

"We, the undersigned Senators of the State of South Carolina, beg leave to file a protest against the proceedings of this body, which in any degree recognize, or propose to recognize, the legality of the body calling itself the House of Representatives of South Carolina, over which E. W. Mackey claims to presides as Speaker, which met on the 28th and 29th inst. and organized in the Hall of Representatives. The constitution of South Carolina, which elects each house the judge of the election returns and the qualification of its members, has by formal judgment, decided that the members from the counties of Edgefield and Laurens who received the highest number of votes, are entitled to seats. These members have been refused admission to the Hall and all participation in the organization by armed soldiers of the State, who were ordered to bayonet the doors of the Hall of Representatives, and acted as judges of the election returns and qualification of its members. We have seen armed forces of the United States riding over the plain declaration of the constitution of the State. We have witnessed the solemn mockery of a corporate body of citizens, in judgment of the highest court.

We have seen a spectacle humiliating in the last degree to every right-minded American in the last of legislation completed at the hour of midnight and holding them against ingress of the law ing that the returns from that predict had been raised 219 votes over the poll cast. They supported their claim by affidavits, one from Mr. Flemery who swore that he stood at the door and took the name of every voter as it was called; the other 219 votes were cast, whereas only 319 votes were cast, whereas the returns sent up claimed that 588 were cast. Another from Mr.

Tucker, who swore to the same effect. Affidavits were also presented from members of the county board. One swears that he was confronted of this fraud, but felt bound to sign the return that it might go to the State board for final action. There is also the affidavit of the Circuit Judge, who swears that he saw the Archer ballot box opened by the proper officials and counted, and that only 319 votes were found therein. There were a number of other affidavits sustaining the above.

Fred. Grant Arrested for an Assault

The Journal's reporter, in attempting to get an interview with was guilty of indecent language, and was ordered out of the military

Fred. Grant was taken in at the moment and hearing the order, struck the reporter, for which the latter has caused the arrest of Grant, who was brought before the police court

A Severe Fight.

HAVANA, 29.—The present campaign was opened by a fierce fight on the plain of Manos, between Remedios and St. Esprit. The Spanish accounts say that their force consisted only of 400 infantry.

The rebels, on the other hand, had article 98 of the State constitution, which provides for legal vetoes, and claim that these persons were not within the scope of this law. They quote also from the United States laws and precedents on the subject, and respectfully ask the rejection of such votes. They invite the special attention of the board to the irregularities in certain polls of New Orleans, and ask the board to
