

HOT ELECTION IN PITTSBURG.

It Was Bitterly Fought, Combined
Parties Defeating the Republicans.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS MADE.

Many Fights at Polling Places, Judges
Being Haled Into Court.

Pittsburg, Feb. 20.—After one of the most bitterly fought municipal campaigns, with the greatest vote ever cast in this city, George W. Guthrie, mayorally candidate of the Citizens' party, the Democratic party and the Civic league, defeated his opponent, Alexander M. Jenkinson, by a majority of about 8,000.

In 1903 Mayor Hayes, the present Republican incumbent, received a majority of 7,371. Since that time three new wards have been added to the city.

The campaign throughout has been one of vituperation and recrimination, and charges of crookedness emanated from both sides almost hourly.

Wholesale arrests were made during the last days of the campaign for repeating, colonizing lodging-houses were raided and men carrying illegal tax receipts were hustled to the police station.

The day was characterized by many fights at polling places, and in two districts the election boards were haled into court, charged with refusing to allow negroes to vote.

George B. Logan, the candidate for mayor of the Good Government party in Allegheny, was defeated by Charles F. Kirschner, Republican. Kirschner's majority was 5,683.

The feature of the campaign in Allegheny was the election of a negro, Mr. J. H. Johnson, to the office of alderman. Throughout the entire day they held meetings of prayer for the election of Logan, and carried sandwiches and coffee to the workers at the polls, while brass bands played patriotic and popular airs in the neighborhood of the polling places.

SURPRISES IN PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—Philadelphia elected two magistrates, 17 select and 32 common councilmen, 12 school directors in each of the 43 wards, constables and division election officers.

Outside of seven small disturbances in wards where there were spirited contests, there was little disorder reported. There were, however, numerous arrests for illegal voting.

Party lines were wiped out in many instances. In some of the wards the city party and Lincoln organization party, which swept the city last November, were split and were fighting each other, with the help of factions from the old Republican organizations or the Democrats.

In the second ward Harry C. Ransley, president of the select council, who was opposed to Mayor Weaver in the gas lease fight, was a candidate for reelection on the Republican and Democratic tickets and was defeated by a small majority by P. J. Devitt, the city party and Lincoln party candidate.

In the fifteenth ward Alexander Grow, Jr., a member of the select council, who was one of the mayor's strongest supporters in the recent political war, went down to defeat before W. S. McInnes, who was a candidate of the Democratic, Lincoln and Liberty parties.

A feature of the election was the candidacy of 50 women in various wards for the position of district alderman. Nearly all the women were on the reform tickets, and a large percentage of them were elected.

DISCUSSION ON THE PURE FOOD BILL.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The senate listened for three or four hours today to a discussion of the details of the pure food bill. A number of minor amendments were suggested, but under the agreement to vote on all amendments tomorrow none of them could be acted on today.

Mr. Raynor presented, by request, a reply from the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company to the charges of discrimination again it by the Red Rock Fuel company of West Virginia. The communication was signed by Vice President Bond, who declared that there had been no discrimination; that the Red Rock company was treated as were all others, and that to meet its requirements was impossible for lack of equipment.

Mr. Gallinger presented four petitions from residents of Oklahoma, praying for prohibition in the proposed state of Oklahoma. The most voluminous contained the names of 8,000 voters, and Mr. Gallinger said that it was 24 feet long. One of the others contained the names of 6,000 women and another that of 6,000 children. The fourth was signed by Indians.

A long discussion of amendments to the pure food bill was participated in by Messrs. Lodge, Piles, Hemenway, Gallinger, Spooner, Heyburn, McCumber and others. Mr. Hemenway and Mr. Piles appearing for the first time in debate in the senate.

At the last he apologized for speaking of a "senator as a gentleman." Mr. Heyburn replied, with a smile, that the apology was worse than the offense. Mr. Spooner expressed the opinion that if the bill should become a law as it stands, the addition of a thousand chemists to the force in the agricultural

A NIGHTMARE

Gives pain to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmares or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and lost sleep, tired and worn out continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 103 N. Yakubak Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressive feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months."

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

At 4 p. m. the senate went into executive session, but the doors were opened a few minutes later in order to permit the senate to receive the official announcement of the death of Representative Cator of Pennsylvania.

After this announcement was made Messrs. Penrose, Knox, Carter and Clay were designated to attend the funeral, and the senate then adjourned as a mark of respect.

ORDER OF THE GARTER.

The Emperor of Japan is Invested With the Same.

Tokio, Feb. 20.—The impressive ceremony of the investiture of the emperor of Japan with the British Order of the Garter took place this morning in the presence of about 80 high personages, including Crown Prince Yoshihito, the imperial princes, Premier Saiton, foreign Minister Kato, the household ministers, Field Marshal Yamagata and Oyama, the entire party headed by Prince Arima, commander in chief of the army, and the British ambassador, Sir Claude M. MacDonald, and the members of the embassy. Only those personages who were specially invited were permitted to be present.

An hour after the ceremony of investiture the emperor visited Prince Arima of Connaught and expressed to him his grateful appreciation of Great Britain's friendship and grand banquet was given at the palace tonight in celebration of the occasion, at which ancient court dances over a thousand exclusive artists.

JOHN STINSON'S PROPERTY.

Portland, Maine, Feb. 21.—R. C. Foster, a local attorney, has been searching for the property of John Stinson, a mining promoter of San Francisco, whose body was supposed to have been found near that city more than seven years ago. Foster was engaged by Mrs. Sarah Connor of Portland, a sister of Stinson. When Stinson visited Maine nearly eight years ago he had $50,000 in government bonds and it was supposed that he had considerable property in the west.

There was some doubt concerning the identity of the body found near San Francisco, and relatives had made no decided attempt to locate Stinson's estate until recently. Under the laws of California, a man who has not been heard of for seven years is considered to be dead. An investigation by Atty. Foster has failed to locate any property of value in California. When the body was found, the circumstances indicated that the man was murdered.

ROBBED THE SMELTER.

Wm. Weissel Had Several Gold Bricks On Him When Arrested.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 20.—William Weissel, an employee of the Everett Smelting company of Everett, was arrested tonight on a charge of having robbed his company during the past few months of about $10,000 worth of gold and silver bullion. When arrested Weissel had in his possession a check for $59,34, which had been received from a local jewelry house, to whom he had sold some of the metal, and in one of his pockets was found a brick of the bullion weighing six pounds. It is pronounced by an assayer to be valued at $10 an ounce. He admitted that since early last spring he has been systematically robbing the smelter company, and that at this time he has 15 of the bricks hidden under the floor of his house in Everett.

PAT CROWE OUT ON BAIL.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Feb. 20.—Pat Crowe was today released on a bond of $1,000 signed by his brother, John Crowe, and the latter's wife and Joseph Nansel, a wealthy farmer of this county. Crowe's trial on a charge of holding up street cars has been put over until March.

SOMETHING OF ORCHARD'S CAREER

Was Employed as Detective by
The Cripple Creek Mine
Owners' Association.

GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST HIM.

Said to Have Dynamited Independence
Depot When Fourteen Men Were Killed.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 20.—The Times today says: "Harry Orchard, who is under arrest in Idaho, charged with assassinating former Gov. Frank Steiengger, and who has made a confession charging the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners with instigating a number of dynamite outrages and murders, was in the employ of the Cripple Creek Mine Owners' association as a detective during the great strike in the Cripple Creek district. This most important fact will be used in the defense of the accused labor leaders when they are brought to trial in the courts of Idaho."

The following facts have come to the Times from a most reliable source, and have been carefully verified: Orchard was a member of the Western Federation of Miners and employed in the Cripple Creek district when the famous strike was ordered in November, 1903. He approached a conductor named Jones, on the Florence & Cripple Creek railroad and introduced himself as a "rough miner."

"I am a member of the miners' union," said Orchard, "and last night I heard some of the members of the union planning to wreck a train on this road. I do not believe in such methods and thought I would come to you and tell of the plot. I picked you out because you are a Mason."

Jones immediately took Orchard to Scott & Sterling, the detectives for the Mine Owners' association. He repeated his story and Scott & Sterling immediately employed him as a detective to work for the Mine Owners' association. He was instructed to attend the meetings of the union and report daily.

"Orchard continued in the employ of the Mine Owners' association until June, 1904. The day before the explosion which wrecked the Independence depot he collected some life insurance due him because of the death of a relative."

"Then came the explosion at the Independence depot on June 4 and Orchard was present. A mob took possession of Cripple Creek and the following attempts were made to force confessions from many suspected parties."

"A young man was suspended by his thumbs and he finally agreed to tell the name of the friend who had caused the explosion. When he was lowered to the ground he said: 'Harry Orchard did it.'"

"The pursuit of Orchard was taken up, bloodhounds being employed. The pursuing mob did not know that Orchard was in the employ of the Mine Owners' association. They knew him only as a member of the miners' union."

"Orchard and a companion named Neville, immediately after the Independence explosion, secured a rig and drove out of Cripple Creek. They went across the country in a northerly direction to Greeley, avoiding the more important towns."

"When they reached Greeley they disposed of their rig and took the train for Cheyenne. On arriving in the Wyoming capital Orchard received a considerable sum of money from friends in Colorado and disappeared."

"He returned to Denver last April and visited the headquarters of the Western Federation of Miners in this city. He said that he feared arrest because of the charges made against him in connection with the Independence explosion and had therefore changed to Hogan."

"For a time he worked for various insurance companies in this city, and last August departed from Colorado, saying he was going to New York. The next heard of him he had been arrested in Idaho, charged with the assassination of Steiengger."

"Neville, Orchard's companion during the flight from Cripple Creek, was arrested in Wyoming and taken back to Cripple Creek to answer to the charge of dynamiting the Independence depot. No serious attempt was ever made to prosecute him."

"Sheriff Bell of Cripple Creek claims that Neville confessed to him that he and Orchard dynamited the depot. It is said that Neville is now dead. This latter statement the Times has been unable to verify."

"The alleged confession of Harry Orchard contained so many sensational statements that it was deemed best to investigate them as far as possible before ordering the extradition of President Moyer. Decoy, Haywood and former Executive Committee member Pettibone, and it was only after such investigation, the Colorado authorities state, that it was decided to honor the extradition of the alleged dynamiter."

"The bomb that was intended to kill Luther M. Goddard, justice of the supreme court of Colorado, it is said, was dug up last Thursday by Adit-Glen, Bulky Wells and two detectives. It was found at the exact spot, near the front gate to the judge's residence, where Orchard said it was placed last May."

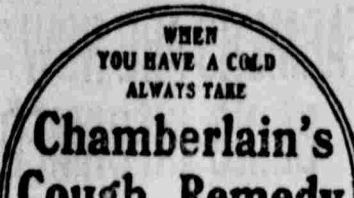

"Detective James McFarland today made the following statement regarding the alleged Orchard confession: 'Harry Orchard, the man first arrested for the murder of former Gov. Steiengger, may have or may not have made a confession. I will not say whether or not he did make such a confession as attributed to him. I was compelled in working up my case to use some of his statements, as well as the statements of others, but I did not call upon him for a confession implicating Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. Numerous efforts were made to intimidate the man into saying things against himself, but I refused to allow this.'"

FEDERATION WILL FURNISH COUNSEL.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 21.—A meeting of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners probably will be called within a week to adopt plans for the defense of the officers now under arrest in Idaho. James Kirsner, a member of the board, arrived yesterday from Terry, S. D. Vice President J. C. Williams of Grass Valley, Cal., will be here today. The members of the federation, it is said, will be asked to subscribe money to defend Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone.

"We will secure the best legal talent obtainable in the country," said Kirsner. "The rank and file of the members of the federation believe in the innocence of their officers and will see that they have justice if such a thing is procurable."

"The charges brought against our men are the same ones which have been trumped up by the mine owners so many times. Fifty-three of us were arrested after the Independence explosion, but none was ever prosecuted. Our arrest was made merely for political effect."

"It is a queer thing that every time anyone has made a confession it has been proven beyond a doubt that he was in the employ of the Mine Owners' association. Orchard is in the same boat as the other confessors."

WRECK ON THE N. Y. CENTRAL.

New York, Feb. 21.—William Courtney, a brakeman, was instantly killed in the wreck of a freight train at Green Island last night under circumstances which cornered Baxter, of Watervliet, and the railroad men believe it to be a deliberate attempt to wreck that or some other train. The train of New York Central cars was backing when two cars suddenly jumped the track and rolled down the embankment. Courtney was crushed under a car. The coroner and railroad men found a number of fish plates planted in the ties between the rails in such a way as surely to wreck any train that passed. The coroner will investigate.

LUCERNE FOR OREGON.

San Francisco, Feb. 21.—Twenty tracts of land of five acres each in the Willamette valley section of Oregon are now being selected by Southern Pacific agents and they are to be seeded with California alfalfa. For a number of years Oregon dairymen and farmers have felt the need of a crop that would provide green feed for dairy cows during the eight or 10 weeks of dry summer weather. So they have turned to alfalfa for relief and have secured the assistance of the railroad people.

The latter state that alfalfa, when it can be successfully grown, is admittedly the best sward to meet the needs of the dairy period. It is the best of forage crops, but it is the nearest to perennial. Reports show, it is said, that the production of milk to the cow in calf exceeds that in Oregon by 150 gallons a year, and the credit is given to alfalfa which, it is claimed, is the mainstay of the California dairymen.

FIRE IN PATTERSON, N. J.

Patterson, N. J., Feb. 21.—Fire last night in the business district did damage estimated at $100,000. The firms affected are: Morris Rhodes & Co., crockery and furniture; S. Anderson, teas and coffees; M. Nienkin and Van Winkle & Co., hardware. The first three were in the Gerhart building. The firemen succeeded in confining the blaze to the building, but Van Winkle & Co. sustained considerable loss by water.

All of the firms affected were wiped out by the big fire four years ago and only recently were re-established in business.

GAMBLING WITH DEATH.

What Many of Us Are Doing Three Times A Day.

For everything we get something is taken away. Every act pulls two ways. Some men in power dole out their souls for it. They can't have soul and power at the same time. And so, in this quick-living age, most of us can't have energy and health at the same time. One or the other must be lost, and it is usually health that is sacrificed.

We know we are doing wrong and would like to reform, but we have a morbid fear of being laughed at if we allow like and eat according to conscience. Some of us break away for awhile and enslave ourselves to a diet. We read about the hardy Scotsman being fed on meat and oatmeal, making soldiers of muscle and dash, and how Caesar's army was fed on corn. But the diet doesn't last long. We quickly swing back into the great line, eating and drinking to excess like the rest, eating anything and everything, at any time, and any way we find it. We say "what is stomach for if it isn't to obey the palate?"

But there is really no one rule applicable to everybody's stomach. What one man may eat another may not. But the dyspeptic should remember that the death list has a dark shadow hovering over it with a long finger pointing to "died of heart disease." Physicians will tell us that there are few cases of heart disease that do not come from a stomach derangement.

At every meal we may be brewing for ourselves a terrible case of dyspepsia. It may come upon us after breakfast tomorrow morning, or after that over supper tomorrow night. Acute indigestion means that you have even chances for death or life. That's the gamble you are taking. That precious gastric juice decides, as a rule, whether you continue to live or not. Therefore if you feel your stomach like a "lump of lead" on your stomach, beware! Your gastric juice is weak. It can't dispose of the food in time to prevent fermentation. Take something that will do it effectively, and at once. Take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. The most powerful tablet in the world for the relief of all kinds of stomach trouble, nausea, indigestion, bloating, flatulence, sourness, heartburn and brash.

One grain of an ingredient of these tablets will digest 500 grains of food. Your stomach needs a rest at once. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will restore your stomach of more than two weeks' work in less than a day. Indigestion perfectly whatever food there is in your stomach.

You can't do your work well, or be cheerful, or have any work or vim or ambition, if your stomach is bad. Make yourself feel new after a hearty meal, feel good all over, clear your mind and make you enjoy life by taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.
