OGDEN TOO FAST FOR SALT LAKE

High School Youngsters from the North Earn Well Deserved Victory.

THE LOCALS WERE TIMOROUS

A Strong Line Helped On Defense But Backs and Ends Were Not Speedy Enough With the Ball.

The time was in football when a rong line such as the Sait Lake High thool had at Cummings field Saturary afternoon, would have protected from defeat. But a timorous backed and slow end men made the line's old work inseless, under the new lies, and Sait Lake went down beheavier and more rapid team rem Ogden.

The victory, which was won with a final score of 10 to 5, was an earn-double, and was the result of superior handling of the ball on the offense, and flashes of brilliant tackling on the factors. and flashes of brilliant mediling on the defense. On recovering fumbles Ogden's men played on the atert, and once secured a touchdown through the instant taking of an opportunity made by a bad Sait Lake fumble. Many of Oxden's biggest gains were made in the same way, and it seemed rather the rule than the exception for Sait Lane to fail to gather in the long Oxden punts, leaving the ball for the rapid Oxden ends to "swarm on" after getting down the field.

PLAYERS UNCERTAIN. Perhaps it, was the uncertainty fol-lowing a first game before a large erowd, or the fact that so many Salt Lake player were meeting more ex-perienced men, which told so heavily against the local team and explains the confused and timorous attack, characteristic especially of the first half.

PLAY BALANCED AT FIRST.

PLAY BALANCED AT FIRST.

Red and Black banners on the west bleaches were flung high, and bugiers kept music in planty going as the teams lined up for the kickoff. The Migh school students have never been accused of deserting their team.

At 3:20 c'clock when the kickoff occurred, it was quickly apparent that both teams were evenly matched. Salt Lake was powerless to make gains chrough Ogden's line, or around the end. Ogden was equally powerless, and a kicking game began. Here the break developed itself through which Ogden finally won victory. Ogden could run back Salt Lake's punts and could only fumble its catches, or if a layer made a good catch, the Ogden nils were upon him ready to down him in his tracks.

In this way the ball began to work into Salt Lake was playing a desperately defensive game with Ogden in striking distance of the goal posts. But here Salt Lake's line held time after time, and saved the scoring Ogden was prepared to make through brilliantly superior open field work. Finally in 23 minutes Murphy of Oxden, who had already begun to distinguished heimself, caught a kick and ran it back 35 yards through an attack of Salt Lake's linesmen to a teuchdown. This put the local team on its mettle, but there was no power in it for a rally, and Ogden came fareer and more successfully at the Salt Lake line during the next series of plays, before the half's close.

SECOND HALF.

SECOND HALF.

After the breathing spell allowed by the call for time, Salt Lake started out more gamely, but a bad fumble near salt Lake's goal line was selzed by an Ogden player as opportunity for another touchdown. He broke through the Salt Lake line, took the ball that none of them seemed to have the presence of mind to fall on, and went over for five points. A little later Richardson of Salt Lake broke away from his team for a 36-yard run, which brought his team near the Ogden goal line, but it was powerless to go further for the two yards required to score.

The Salt Lake score was made through a fumble on Ogden's part while advancing the ball out after a long punt which landed near their goal line. Stephens, a substitute end, goal line. Stephens, a substitute end, recovered the fumble quickly and shot over for a touchdown.

Mantell is certainly a good man in his class, but he had little chance to show hie mettle here. Until he met Smith he was matched with a few fourth raters in the amaller towns and easily disposed of them. It was a fine chance for him when he secured the match with Mellody, the former weiterweight champion. Before leaving for Dayton, O., where the fight took place, he said he would surely best and sunivan at the last moment decimes to light.

Recently he was matched to fight Unholz who was beaten by Thompson. Sullivan named the terms, or most of them, and they were accepted by Rawhide Kelly, manager for Unholz. Kelly insisted on a forfeit of $200 for weight and appearance but consented to cut it down to $100. It was thought everything had ben settled, but now there is a hitch and sullivan has failed to sign up.

ELEVEN ROUNDS ENOUGH FOR BIG JIM FLYNN.

Colma Arena. San Francisco, Nov. 2—
"Tou're a clever nigger," were the last words uttered by Jim Flynn, the Colorado fireman, in his scheduled forty-five round centest with Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight, at Colma this afternoon. A straight right, flush to the Jaw, cut off further speech, and Flynn toppied to the floor completely knocked out. The finishing blow was delivered in the eleventh round, and it tock fully four minutes to resusciate the defeated puglishta.

Throughout the contest Johnson toyed with his antagonist as a terrier would with a rat. In the initial round he practically closed the Colorado's man's left eye, and thereafter made it a target for his unering left labs. Johnson landed at will on his man, and seemed to have the contest well in hand at all stages, it left the ring without a mark, and only once did he receive a telling blow from his opponent.

The begining of the end came in the eath round. Near the end of the round riynn slipped to the mat from the importany of a misdirected punch. He was in quickly, and as he rushed in Johnson lipped him in the pit of the atomach with shortarm right upereut. Flynn dropped to the floor and was carried to his corter, the clang of the gong giving him a emporary respite.

In the cleventh found Johnson taunted is man and forced him to close quarters. Then Johnson, backing away, shot wicked straight right flush to the faw, and Flynn sank to the floor utterly helpma and completely knecked out.

Billy Roche, the referee, after the constraint said:

"Johnson was the better man, and he riclassed Flynn in every department of of, and:

Jobosco was the belter man, and he foliassed Flynn in every department of a boxing game."
rangements will at once be made to ttch Johnson and Tommy Burns for a world's heavyweight championship of a world a

The receipts probably will approximate 1.00.

In the second round they mixed at close quarters, Johnson had a big lead.

In the second round they mixed at close quarters, Johnson pabed twice with left to the face, and then sent a straight right to the face, and then sent a straight right to the face, and then sent a straight right to the face, and then sent a straight right to the face, and alled to land. Johnson clearly outbeared and ourgeneralled his man.

In the third round Johnson cut loose and landed right and left swings on the head. Flynn rushed in hut as usual, failed to land. He butted the colored man unintectionally and quickly shook his adversary's hand centritiely. Johnson jarred his man with two wicked right hooks to the jaw. As the round hearet its close, Flynn look a brace and landed left and right on the face. Johnson, however, had a big lead.

The fourth round was very tame. Johnson was cool and seemed to be biding his time, whereat to land a vital punch.

Flynn rought desperately in the fifth, but the round ended with Johnson alighting the seventh.

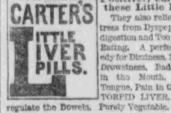

Johnson sent Flynn to the face, Johnson was colosed by a right swing in the seventh.

Johnson sent Flynn to the floor, by sheer force of his body in the eighti, and was secred by the crowd. Wrestling and clinching characterized the minth reund. Flynn was almost out when the bell rang.

In rorned ten Flyns washed in, but Johnson landed the face of the crowd. Wrestling and clinching characterized the minth reund. Flynn was almost out when the bell rang. receipts probably will approximate
