

call which does not recall that a rupture which does not rupture. The Socialist paper Lanterne com-plains that the government has not ful-filled the promises made to the parlia-mentary leaders that a complete rup-ture would take place, and declares that the leaving of a charge d'affaires to carry on routine bushness with the vat-lean will not be satisfactory. There is carry on routine business with the val-ican will not be satisfactory. There is nothing to do, it adds, but to effect a complete withdrawal of the embassy and the embassy staff until not a con-

Cor

CO

and the embassy staff until not a con-cierge or cook remains. The more moderate elements appear to be satisfied with the course of the government, while the reactionary cler-ical papers express regret, with the ex-ception of L'Autorite, in which the Bonapartist, Paul de Cassagnac, ex-presses satisfaction that the church de-cebres open way avainst the republic calres open, war against the republic. Little is heard directly of the senti-ment of the clergy, who are practically muzzled by their official positions under the concordat.

The Rome correspondent of the Times says that vatican official circles lay great stress upon the fact that the pope alone directs the policy of the holy see. When Cardinals Vannutelli, Gotti, Agliardi and Vives y Tuto saw the pope on Thursday and Friday, his holiness forehadowed the first stage of the conflict, namely the recall of Am-bassador Nisard, but he declared so energetically that he was responsible to d alone for his actions and was act-

Klein, translator of the works of Bish-Africa for the native races, is believed op John L. Spalding of Peoria, Ill., who was proposed by Prince Albert as Bishto be largely the result of the feeling. op of Monaco Fatal Runaway Accident. Montrose, Colo., May 22 .- A. J. Walk-Montrose, Colo., May 22.-A. J. Walk-er and his wife, an aged couple living on a ranch near here, were fatally in-jured in a runaway accident on a road leading into the city today. The horse they were driving became frightened and overturned the buggy, throwing the occupants into an irrigating ditch. Walker's skull was crushed and Mrs. Walker's skull fractured. The couple with their four children located near here 10 years ago, coming from eastern M'ssouri,

The plant covered nearly 10 acres of ground in the southwest part of the city and employed nearly 200 men, wo-men and children. Railroad torpedoes and Fourth of July explosives were manufactured. Owing to the large rush of orders the officiais of the plant required the employes to report for duty today. About 30 complied with the request. This morning two explosions that shattered windows throughout the city startled the citizens.

Walter Vrooman Very III.

Baltimore, May 23 .- Walter Vrooman, Baltimore, May 23.-Walter Vrooman, the Socialist who spent a large for-tune furnished by his wife in endeavor-ing to carry out Utopian schemes, in the west, is seriously ill from nervous prostration at Cambridge. It is be-lleved however that he will recover. Little has been heard of Vrooman since the collapse of his co-operative mercantile company, which conducted mercantile company, which conducted a string of stores in the west, followed by the removal of the Ruskin univer-sity, which he founded, from Trenton, to Chicago shattered windows throughout the city startled the citizens. The concussion was felt for miles around. Two magazines in separate rooms had let go simultaneously with terrible results. The exact cause of the explosion is not definitely known. It is surmised that one of the Sherwood brothers, who were the only persons in the drying rooms, dropped a large box of torpedoes, but this theory can-not be confirmed. The explosion occurred shortly before The explosion occurred shortly before the employes assembled for duty. At least 20 persons were on their way to the factory when the explosion oc-urred. Human forms were strewn consider-Able distances apart on the factory site. The remains of the Sherwood brothers were found in drying room No. I, man-gled and almost unrecognizable. Their clothing was blown from their bodies, save a stocking on the right foot of Jay Sherwood, The body of Edith Dillon was picked up 200 yards from where the explosion

We Quit Giving The Salt Lake Trading Stamp Co.'s Trading Stamps STIT A THE and a LAST OPPORTUNITY

thus for the greatest good of the church that the cardinaus did not dare to remonstrate. The correspondent adds that First Secy. of the Embassy de Navenne is expected in Rome tomorrow, and that he will immediately assume charge of the embassy.

VATICAN AUTHORITIES AGITATED

Rome, May 22-Vatican authorities continue to be agitated over the con-flict with the French government growing out of the protest against President Loubet's visit to Rome and the recall of M. Nisard, the French ambassador to the vatican.

The pope said mass this morning in the presence of 64 ItAlians and foreign-ers, and gave up the rest of the day to the consideration of the difficulties with France, reading clippings from the newspapers on the subject.

the newspapers on the subject. The vatican hopes that M. Nisard will soon return to Rome, being influenced the fact that his family is still here. a question as to how L'Humanite a varis became possessed of the note of protest addressed to the other pow-frs, which varied from that sent to the French government is daily becoming French government, is daily becoming more interesting. It seems to be now pertain, as was at first supposed, that the indiscretion was due to the princi-pality of Monaco, the vatican's note to pality of Monaco, the vatican's note to which was stronger than that addressed to the other Catholic states, in conse-quence of the vatican having been in-formed that Prince Albert of Monaco intended to visit the king of Italy. A further reason why this note to the principality of Monaco was more em-phatic, it is said at the vatican, was because Prince Albert was the friend of Capt. Dreyfus, who had worked figainst the French government, and also because the Clerico-Nationalists were in accord, if not in the same field, with M, Jaurez, the Socialist leader were in accord, if not in the same field, with M. Jaurez, the Socialist leader who originated the present agitation. It is said that Prince Albert was of-fended because the late Pope Leo, at his late Jubilee, refused the Peter's pence sent by Monaco, because the money had its source in gambling op-centions. The relations between Peince erations The relations between Prince Albert and the vatican became more strained when the latter rejected Prof.

To the Point. If other Teas are as Good or Better than Tree Tea should they not lead instead? But other Teas don't. Tree Tea leads them all.

R

E

E

E

SKRYDLOFF AT VLADIVOSTOK People of the Place Gave Him a Great Reception.

Vladivostok, May 22.-Vice Admiral Skrydioff arlved here this afternoon. He was met at the Okeanski station, outside of Vladivostok, by Maj.-Gen. Voronetz and deputations of the military, naval and municipal authorities, as well as by an enthusiastic crowd, and was presented with bread and salt. Entering the town, the admiral drove to the pler in an open carriage, escort-ed by Cossacks, and boarded the cruis-er Rossia, on which a short service was held. The chaplain sprinkled and bless. ed the admiral's flag before it was run up to the masthead, where it was greeted with a salute from all the cruisers in the harbor.

The day happened to be the eighth nniversary of the launching of the Rossia and also Vice Admiral Skryd-off's saints' day. The admiral address. d the officers and crew of the Rossia, aving: "The emperor orders me to convey his greetings and loyal thanks for your gallant services, in consideration of which he reduces your tour of sea duty o three years.'

This announcement was greeted with Admiral Skrydloff then visited the ther cruisers and repeated the royal

There was a great outpouring of the townspeople. The admiral's reception was hearty everywhere, he being a great favorite from his last visit to Vladivostok.

Vladivostok. The opening of Vladivostok to trade has as yet had no effect in reviving business, which is at a complete stand-still. The town is in an excellent condition and the general health of the people is good,

BATTLESHIP OREL SINKS.

Due to an Accident, Raised and Very Little Injured.

Cronstadt, May 22.-The battleship Orel, which was brought here some days ago to receive her main battery and to be given the finishing touches before going into commission, suddenly sank at her anchorage on the night of May 20. Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, commander in chief of the Baltic squadron, was instantly called from St. Petersburg, and under his supervision the work of pumping out and raising the Orel was begun. The ship was raised this morning and was found to be undamaged save that her interior was filled with dirty salt water. An examination showed that water. An examination showed that her Kingston valves had been opened, permitting the water to rush in. It is suggested that the carelessness of a workman might have been responsible for the openeing of the valves, but an vestigation into the affair is proressing. While proceeding from Galernil isl-und, St. Petersburg, where she was built, to Cronstadt, the Orel grounded n the Neva and was hauled off after considerable trouble. Some of her plates

South African Natives Uneasy.

New York, May 23 .- Persistent runors of unrest among the native tribes have been rife for some time, according to a Times dispatch from Johannes-burg, South Africa. "Unrest" is perto a Times dispatch from Johannes-burg. South Africa, "Unrest" is per-haps too strong a word to use at pres-ent. The natives have been talking a good deal and feel themselves dissatisfied but only in a vague manner. The activity of the leaders in the Ethiopian movemnt, which is based on the idea of Gettysburg, Pa., May 22.—Sir Harry Mortimer Durand, British ambassador Mortimer Durand, British ambassador to the United States; Assistant Secy. of War R. S. Oliver, Maj. Gen. Wallace F. Randolph, U. S. A.; Brig. Gen. George A. Davis, Col. Hubbard Foster, U. S. A., who arrived here last night from Washington, today visited the battlefield, Col. John P. Nicholson, pres-ident of the National neak commission ident of the National park commission, acted as guide. All were surprised at Ambassador Durand's familiarity with the moves made by the contending ar-mies on this battleground. This even ing an informal reception was tendered the visitors at the office of the National park commission.

Russian Cavalry Routed.

Russian Cavalry Rolled. Tokio, May 22.—The Japanese forces which landed at Takushan Thursday, surrounded and routed a force of Rus-sian cavalry at 7 o'clock Friday even-ing in the neighborhood of Wang Chei Tung, seven miles north of Takushan. The Russian force, which consisted of about one' squadron, lost many men killed or wounded as well as a captain, who was captured. The Japanese sus-tained no losses.

tained no losses. Information brought to headquarters indicates that the Japanese troops are suffering from a terrible epidemic of beri-berl, due to the quality of the rice they are eating. The Japanese have abandoned the at-tempt to float the Russian cruiser Va-riag, sunk off Chemulpo, Korea, at the outbreak of the war.

SECURITY

Cenuine

Carter's

Little Liver Pills.

Must Bear Signature of Great Good

See Fac-Simile Wrapper Below.

FOR BILIOUSNESS.

FOR TORPID LIVER.

FOR CONSTIPATION.

FOR SALLOW SKIN.

FOR THE COMPLEXION

Very small and as easy to take as sugar.

CARTER'S FOR NEADACHE.

CAREN CATHER MUST MAYS

16 Conts Purely Vogathbie. Antertand

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

ABSOLUTE

The immense plant was shattered into fragments and not a single wall remains standing. Bricks and timbers were scattered for a half-mile around. The property loss is $60,000. The plant, it is said, will not be rebuilt.

occurred

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. Mr. Bryan Thinks it Will Not be Reorganized at St. Louis.

Chicago, May 22 .- William J. Bryan Chicago, May 22.—William J. Bryan said today while in Chicago that he thought the Democratic party would not be reorganized at the St. Louis convention. "The plan to bring rbout, a reorganization of the party will be defeated," he said. "The paramount is-sue in the campaign will be govern-ment by the people as against govern-ment by the corporations. The people will control the St Louis convention and the Kansas City platform will be reaffirmed in my judgment." reaffirmed in my judgment." "Do you expect to go to St. Louis as a delegate?" was asked.

"Well, it looks that way now, though I can't be sure," was the reply,

May Strike in Sympathy.

New York, May 22.-The truck driv-ers of this city held a meeting today to consider whether the 33,000 men whom their organization controls are to strike in sympathy with the freight handlers of the New York, New Haven handlers of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railway now on strike here. After a heated discussion it was decid-ed to postpone action until tomorrow, when another meeting will be held. At a meeting of the clerks and fore-men it was decided to continue the struggle. Unless conditions change the Joy line and the Metropolitan, as well as the Portland line may be tied up as the Portland line, may be tied up tomorrow. The Ciyde line also may suffer.

ARMENIAN VILLAGES. Turkish Authorities May Destroy

Those in Sassun District. Constantinople, May 22.—It is said the authorities contemplate destroying all Armenian villages in the Sassun dis-trict of Asia Minor in order to prevent the concentration of insurgents in the mountains and the installation of the villagers on the plain where they may be better supervised.

CHANCELLOR VON BUELOW.

He Still Retains the Favor of Emperor William.

Herlin. May 22.—There has been con-siderable vague talk in the newspapers representing the opposition since the recent debate in the Prussian house of back the the second size of back the second se ords that the position of the German mperial chancellor, Count von Buelow, has been shaken, but so far as is ascerhas been snaken, but so far as is ascer-tainable there is no foundation for it. Several influential Agrariah leaders criticized the chancellor in debate, but absolutely nothing has occurred show-ing that he had lost the favor of Em-peror William. Both the emperor and Count yon Buelow attended the wed-ding of Count Eulenburg's son yester Count von Buelow attended the wed-ding of Count Eulenburg's son yester-day at Liebenburg. Official business interviews are occurring as usual be-tween the emperor and the chancellor. The idea of making Gen. Budde, Prussian minister of railroads, the suc-cessor of Count von Buelow, is re-garded as ridiculous, his political ex-nerioese balog considered much tee inbeing considered much too inadequate

STAR STAR

