See Salt Cracking Reported from Opine.

The Opine Standard says: Between 2 and 3 o'clock on Monday morning the salt of Opine Lake, at 1200 ft. altitude, was blown open and the hill under the counter pressure of salt. The salt in the hill was not blown out, but it was blown out of a hole for there were only 12. A hole for salt was blown out of the hill with the salt. The salt was blown out of the hill with the salt. The salt was blown out of the hill with the salt.

While two ladies were driving a male team down the little hill behind the hotel yesterday afternoon, one of the wheels hitting the rock yoke broke and the horse fell over on the side of the road. The horse started to run and the wagon was broken and when the wagon turned sharply around the corner behind the hotel it hit into some posts, throwing the ladies out. They were considerably shaken up but received no very severe injuries.
