R. J. Knight and William Kelson.

The Veteran Firemen held a largely attended meeting last night at their Canyon road hall where they gave R. J. Knight and William Kelson a sur-prise party. It was Mr. Knight's 60th birthday, and he was the recipient of a gold headed ebony cane on which was macribed. "Presented to R. J. Knight by the V. V. F. A., Sept. 29, 1903." A similar present was made to Mr. Kel-son, These two members of the Vet-eranFiremens' association have been es-pecially active in raising funds for the liquidation of the debt on the hall, and in recognition of their work, the presen-tation was made.
