

TELEGRAPHIC. FIRE AND BLOOD.

A Man Lynched on Suspicion of Being an Incendiary.

A TOWN PARTIALLY DESTROYED.

Many Families Homeless and Some Persons Reported Missing—A Midnight Bomb.

DETROIT, Mich., July 20.—Known as a village of 1000 population, in Michigan county, was partially destroyed by fire today. All the business section was wiped out. The loss will reach $100,000, with little insurance.
Many families are homeless, and some persons are reported missing.

GRAND RAPIDS, July 21, 2:15 a.m.— A report has just reached here from Down, the village which was partially destroyed by fire tonight, stating that the fire is discovered to be of incendiary origin, and a man was lynched shortly after midnight on suspicion of being the fire.

REYNOLDS REPLY.
Many Anxious to Have the Sherman Law Repealed.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The World papers replied to a telegraphic request sent the government and asked whether senators of every state south of the Mississippi river had a statement of views upon the Sherman law.
First—Whether it was they favor a repeal of the Sherman law.
Second—What measures should be substituted for the Sherman law.
They are in favor of unconditional repeal.

Third—Whether or not the extra sessions should be held.
Fourth—Whether or not a single southern or western governor or United States senator favors the Sherman law.
The answers to these questions are all in the affirmative. All are in favor of unconditional repeal, and all are in favor of the extra sessions.

Fourth—Whether or not the extra sessions should be held.
Fifth—Whether or not a single southern or western governor or United States senator favors the Sherman law.
The answers to these questions are all in the affirmative. All are in favor of unconditional repeal, and all are in favor of the extra sessions.
