

WHEN BELL RUNG HE WANTED BLOOD

Assassin of Father Leo Tells of Strange Motive for Murder.

REMINDED HIM OF SICILY.

While There, He Says, the Church Deprived Him of His Home and Then His Wife Deserted Him.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 24.—St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, dedicated by the murder of Father Leo Sunday morning, was rededicated with solemn ceremony this afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. Percy A. Phillips, chancellor of the diocese, having been authorized by a telegram from Bishop Matz, who is now in Los Angeles. The blessing today will be followed by reconsecration services upon the return of the bishop to the city.

Dist. Atty. George A. Stiger is arranging for a speedy trial of the man who killed Father Leo and who is now confined in jail at Colorado Springs under strong guard. It is likely that he will be brought back to Denver the latter part of this week or the first of next week, and immediately arraigned on an information of murder in the first degree. Yesterday the murderer said his name was Giuseppe Guarnaccia and from papers found in his lodgings today the police officials were led to believe that his name might have been Angelo Gabriele, but it is now believed that the man's right name is Giuseppe Alo, as declared by him in a statement made in jail at Colorado Springs today.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Feb. 24.—Giuseppe Alo, the anarchist, who shot and killed Father Leo Heinrichs at Denver yesterday, and who is being held in jail here, says that he was moved to kill the priest by the ringing of the church bells, which reminded him of his home in Sicily, which, he says, was wrested from him by the church.

It appeared from statements made by the murderer in answer to questions that when living in Italy he was expelled from the church in consequence of his anarchistic teachings, and his wife then left him. Her desertion, it seems, further enraged him against the church and priests, and when he heard the church bells ringing yesterday morning he determined to go out and kill one priest at least, and more if he could accomplish his murderous design.

The murderer said today that Giuseppe Alo was his right name and that he was born in the city of Milan, Italy, Aug. 10, 1857. He said he went to Buenos Ayres in 1905 and the revolver with which he killed Father Leo was purchased there. He arrived in New York City May 23, 1907, and left for Kansas the following August. After working 43 days as a section hand at Ellis, Kan., he came to Denver, Nov. 19, 1907. Since then he had worked but little.

GERMANY MENACE TO PEACE.

Dr. Hirsch Says the Nation Has Not Recognized the Equality of Man.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—"Germany has become a menace to the peace of the entire civilized world," declared Dr. Emil G. Hirsch at Sinai Temple yesterday. "That nation has lent a willing ear to the doctrine denying the equality of man."

"So far has that pernicious doctrine taken root that now it is a settled conviction among the strong men of the nation that even those born in that country are not real Germans unless they have Teutonic blood in their veins. The doctrine is the offspring of selfish and ungodly minds."

"This selfish doctrine has started to spread to America, and too often we hear the cry, 'America for Americans'—not to grant himself liberty, but to deny it to others. America has taught the world the great lesson that man is free to govern himself, but not to grant himself liberty. Liberty before the birth of America meant unbridled license, hurrying nations and men to destruction and deluges of blood."

Washington, Feb. 24.—The grand jury today returned indictments against Alex. Wachtel and Charles P. Bannion, prominent young men, alleging embezzlement of $30,000 of the defunct Exchange bank of which they were assistant bookkeeper and cashier respectively.

GOMPERTS AS LEGAL LIGHT.

Irrepressible Head of Labor Unionism Attacks Law of Court Decision.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Over the signature of Samuel Gomperts, an editorial in the American Federationist for this month attacks the recent decision of the supreme court of the United States in the case of Leow & Co., popularly known as the "hat case," which is declared to be "the most drastic and far reaching decision which it has ever handed down," and as affecting directly all labor, and hence the whole people. The editorial begins with the statement that "labor organizations must not be outlawed," and then proceeds at great length to review the court's decision point by point, with a view to showing that the court erred. It is noticeable that the current issue of the Federationist omits the usual "we do not patronize" list, but, instead, a paragraph at the end of the editorial declares: "It should be borne in mind there is no law, any, not even a court decision, compelling union men and the friends of labor to court-attack the particular articles which form the basis of the supreme court decision."

BREWER TAKES STAND FAVORING WORKING GIRLS

Washington, Feb. 24.—That laundry and other concerns employing females in mechanical labor in Oregon may not require female employees to work more than 10 hours a day, in compliance with the law enacted by the legislature of that state in 1907, was proclaimed today by the supreme court of the United States in the case of Curt Miller, a laundryman doing business in Portland by the state of Oregon.

Miller attacked the law as unconstitutional claiming that it puts limitation on the power of contract. The Oregon supreme court upheld the statute on the ground that it is a police regulation, and its decision was affirmed by the federal supreme court in its ruling today. The opinion was by Justice Brewer.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Ocean mail subsidy and currency legislation were the subjects of speeches in the senate today.

Senators Simmons of North Carolina and White of Maryland spoke in criticism of the Aldrich currency bill. Senator White announced that he would not vote for any measure before the senate. An hour was devoted to the further consideration of the bill to revise the criminal code and at 4 o'clock the senate adjourned.

Dead Wife of San Francisco Sporting Man Leaves Note in Clothing.

San Francisco, Feb. 24.—When the coroner's deputies today entered the home of U. V. Leopold, who is a well known sportsman, was taken here by the actions of his husband, who, she alleged, was spending all his money gambling in the rear of a cigar store on Market street. An examination of the remains by Autopsy Surgeon Clark, established the fact that there were traces of carbon dioxide in the stomach, and it was thought that she died of gas asphyxiation. Her husband attributed her death to heart disease.

REVERSAL IN SUPREME COURT

Justice Harlan Holds Man Guilty of Violation for Importing Mistress.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The question whether a man can be punished for bringing to the United States from a foreign country a woman to make her his mistress, under the law imposing a penalty of $500 for importing "any woman or girl for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose," was involved in the case of the United States vs. John Bitty, which was decided by the supreme court of the United States today against Bitty.

The United States circuit court for the southern district of New York dismissed the case on the ground that "the mistress is not near enough to the prostitute to be included in general words in a statute directed against the latter unfortunate class."

Justice Harlan announced the opinion of the supreme court, reversing the decision of the lower court, holding that Bitty's conduct was immoral within the meaning of the law.

INDIANS WIN CASE IN SUPREME COURT.

Washington, Feb. 24.—In an opinion by Justice Holmes, the supreme court of the United States today decided the case of the Sioux Indians vs. the United States favorably to the Indians. The Indians claimed a large sum of money growing out of a treaty with them in 1851, under which the government agreed to pay them for 50 years an annuity of $75,000 in addition to $300,000 they were paid at that time. Payments were regularly made until the Sioux outbreak of 1862 when, owing to the many atrocities committed the treaties were suspended. The court of claims held that the government was still indebted to the Indians for $788,971 which was today affirmed.

TO CLINCH IT.

Congressman Champ Clark was a passenger recently on a train bound for Kansas City when he was much amused by the colloquy of an old chap who, it appeared, was proceeding to the city named on certain legal business. The journey was nearly completed when the elderly person became possessed of the notion that certain important papers he had left behind. After a hurried investigation of his bag he observed: "If I left those papers behind I'm a fool!" A little later he resumed his examination of the bag's contents. "I bet it'll turn out I'm a fool," he murmured, sadly.

When another mile or two had been accomplished he rummaged through the bag once more, and as he turned over the last bundle repeated: "It will sure turn out I'm a fool!"

At this juncture a lady individual occupying the adjoining seat took a hand. Frowning upon the old chap who had so often offered to wager that he was a fool, she irritably looked over the edge of his newspaper, and with sarcastic interest said: "Would you oblige me, sir, by laying a little money that same way for me?" YANKEE ADMIRALS MAKE LIMA GASP

Leave President Pardo's Box When Bullfight Gets Too Brutal.

POLICE AFTER OUR SAILORS.

Jack Tars Scrambled Into Ring to Get Banderillas as Souvenirs and Nearly Stopped the Fight.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 25.—Richard Barry, one of the correspondents with the American battleship fleet, writing from this city, tells of the impression gained by Peruvians of the officers and men of the American fleet by reason of their conduct at the bullfight. The account from the pen of Barry says that all Peru was thrown into a chaotic state when the officers left the president's box because the fighting with the bulls assumed what the officers from the fleet thought a too inhumane aspect. Barry says:

"All Lima was gasping tonight over the action of the three American rear admirals, Thomas, Sperry and Enroy, who abruptly left President Pardo's private box today after the killing of the fourth bull in the bull fight which was specially arranged for the officers and men of Admiral Evans' fleet. Such an action is regarded here as contrary to etiquette, and is a serious breach of the national custom in such matters."

Rear Admiral Thomas, who represents the commander-in-chief, was one of the first to arrive, accompanied by his fellow commanders, and there was a great attendance of jacks from the warships.

"In the first fight the bull was quickly dispatched, but when the second bull was let into the ring it made a mad dash at the matador, and before he could get out of the way he was gored so severely in the neck that he was hurried to the doctor with blood streaming from a big vein. It is probable he will die."

"A number of the American jacks leaped into the ring and struggled with each other to get possession of the banderillas before the bull was dead. These banderillas, or barbs, are stuck into the flesh of the horns by the pecos, and the jacks tore them out eagerly. The police, however, chased them out of the ring. At one time fully half of the 3,000 United States jacks present were in the ring. For a time it looked as if their enthusiasm would serve to break up the entire spectacle. During the bull fight a heavy rain fell—the first in Lima in 50 years."

SIGHT SICKENS THOMAS.

"The wounding of the matador seemed to have a depressing effect upon Admiral Thomas, and at the end of the fourth bull fight he arose abruptly and, motioning to his fellow admirals, left the box."

"President Pardo was not present, but he placed his box at the disposal of the American admirals, and had given special orders that the horns of the bulls be padded so that they could not rip and maim the horses. This distracted some from the spectacle as a bull fight, but made it more humane."

"A certain member of the fashionable Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs at the national capital has all his life borne many quips by reason of his exceedingly diminutive stature. Last spring the diminutive clubman took to his wife, the daughter of a well known Federal official, who is said to be as witty as her father."

"Mrs. Blank," said a friend one day recently, "I have just seen your husband for the first time since his marriage. Do you know, he seems shorter than ever."

"Who?" asked the wife, with a smile. "He married and settled down."—Harpers.

THE POWER-HOUSE IN HUMAN SYSTEM

Stomach is the Seat of Health. Good and Bad Says Cooper.

THEORY WAKING UP BOSTON.

Young Ohio Man Meets Swarms of Humanity and His Doctrine Is Proving Helpful.

Boston, February 24. The remarkable results that are being accomplished in Boston by L. T. Cooper have become a topic of universal interest during the past week.

Reports that preceded his visit to this city told of Mr. Cooper's great success in Chicago. But the man and his medicine did not attract widespread attention until the beginning of his second week here. Then the interest in him became very noticeable and his steadily gathered headway until his preparations are now being sold in enormous quantities, and his headquarters run-down condition place to spend a half-hour.

People are coming from all parts of the city and surrounding towns to see him. The young man, whose assistants are surrounded by swarms of humanity from early until late—some to tell what has been accomplished for them by the Cooper medicines; others to buy the remedies.

Perhaps nothing has done more to arouse this interest than Mr. Cooper's statement regarding the human stomach. At the commencement of his visit to this city, he claimed that the stomach is responsible for much of the ill health of this generation and that his New Discovery medicine would prove his theory to be correct.

"This statement seems to have been completely verified. During the past two weeks hundreds of people who have been taking the Cooper preparation have been relieved of various ills. In consequence, Cooper and his theories have been growing into greater prominence each day."

Many of those who called at his headquarters yesterday had taken the New Discovery medicine for various forms of stomach trouble and made statements as to results obtained by them.

A statement of this character, which is almost identical with all those given by people who have had the same experiences, is given by John S. Keen, a house painter, living at 7 Trenton Street, East Boston, Mass., who said: "For several years I have been in poor health. I have been treated by various doctors and taken all kinds of patent medicines, but received no benefit from either. My stomach was in a condition for indigestion, dyspepsia and stomach trouble, but none of them afforded more than temporary relief. My appetite was variable—sometimes hungry as a wolf, then again sickening at the sight of food."

"I was subject to dizzy spells, which made it dangerous for me to work on a ladder, which I frequently had to do. Sometimes a feeling of faintness would come over me, and I often narrowly escaped falling. After meals I would become bloated and distressed, and there was soreness in the pit of the stomach."

"Hearing of Mr. Cooper and what he had done for others, I decided to try his medicine. I had used one bottle of the New Discovery I was feeling fine. All signs of distress left me. The sense of relief was wonderful. My strength rapidly returned, and now in splendid condition. The dizzy feeling has disappeared entirely and I feel like I had taken a new lease on life. I cannot say too much in praise of Mr. Cooper's medicine."

The introduction of these new preparations in Boston has been remarkably successful, and they seem to be growing more popular each day.

RHEUMATISM ITS PAINS AND ACHES CAUSED BY URIC ACID IN THE BLOOD

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation. It is caused by an excess of uric acid and other irritating foreign matter in the blood, which has gotten into the circulation because of indigestion, chronic bowel disturbance, weak kidneys, and a general impaired and sluggish condition of the system. The refuse or waste matter of the body, which should be carried off by the usual avenues of bodily drainage, is left in the system because of these irregularities, and it ferments and sours forming uric acid and other impurities, which are absorbed into the blood.

Then this vital fluid loses its powers of nutrition and healthfulness and becomes a weak, acid-laden stream, which, as it circulates through the body, deposits the poisons and acids with which it is filled into the muscles, nerves, joints and bones. This causes inflammation and soreness, and soon the pains and aches commence; the joints swell, the flesh grows sensitive and tender, and Rheumatism is established in the system.
