Mrs. Capt. T. Reynolds, of Astoria, Oregon, is anxious to ascertain the Whereabouts of two young men named Lantzy who are supposed to be some-where in Utah. youth, and was a pupit of one of the greatest English organists, Wilford Besi, At the age of nineteen, in St. George's hall, Liverpool, he played the Messiah from memory before an audi-ence of musical critics, a feat not often paralleled by men of mature years. Jennie Lind was one of the audience and he afterwards enjoyed the honor of a talk with the renowned singer. Later he played in Albert hall, and, in fact, all the great music halls of London all the great music hails of London with distinct success. After coming to America, his ability made his name of national reputation, and he has been called to dedicate the organs in many of the larger cities. Glimore was so delighted with his ren-ditions that he presented him with a gold medal, and he has been the reci-plent of many other public honors. plent of many other public honors. The organ in the Congregational church, which is considered one of the inest in the country, was planned by aim, the great organ builders Parrand and Dotey paying a high tribute to his officiency and talent. efficiency and talent. The people of Salt Lake have been unanimous in the recognition and ap-preciation of Prof. Radeliffe's ability and the high standard he has estab-lished in local music, and will join in approbation of the testimonial to be tendered, the distinguished writer or tendered the distinguished artist on the 13th.
